Conductor Chas. Cline, for twenty four years on this West Side run, tells the Argus reporter that the first 26 miles out of Portland gives more passengers for the Southern Pacific than any like distance on any like point, leading out of Portland.

Thos. S. Wilkes, former county surveyor, has been at Detroit, Mich., for several weeks, arranging for a manufacturing firm to make and place on the market his newly patented cash register, which bids fair to eclipse anything yet used in the mercantile world.

Civil Engineer Schiller, who has a farm in the east end of the county, and who for years has been with a railway company in his professional capacity, was in town Monday. Some of his friends have induced him to run for county surveyor. His farm is east of Beaverton.

Every few years the government makes a military map of the courses running between Vancouver and coast points, to prepare for marches of infantry and cavalry in case of war. The Vancouver commandant has lately sent out a corps of civil engineers, and they were out here last week and ran in some stakes between here and Dairy Creek. It is supposed that this is being done because of the troubles over the sea, in China, and because in case of war the department wants to be in shape to protect Tillamook. If the Secretary of War would wait a few months Brother Lytle will have rails laid over to the coast and the camping points will be of no practical value.

Commissioner C. B. Buchanan, of Cornelius, says that the little debilitated city is forging right ahead. The "Baseline mill furnishes a neat little pay roll; the Southern Pacific section crew furnishes another; the pickling plant to be installed by the Knight Packing Company, promises another; and what with the various other industries, the future of the place looks good. With a new bank; with the electric line passing through the main street; and with new homes being built or bought nearly every week, Cornelius is coming to the front—and makes her debut with money in the treasury.

Arthur Downs, formerly of Forest Grove, passed through town, Friday, on an extra freight, and says that he sees a great deal of improvement along the West Side. Mr. Downs was at one time one of our crack baseball players. He states that his father, O. R. Downs, known by all our county veterans, is running for recorder of St. Johns—and he expects to be elected for time immemorial. Here's luck to father and son.

SAIN ON GAME LAW

T. W. Sain, a prominent rancher above Gaston, thinks that the game law, relative to deer, and running of deer with hounds, is a delusion and a snare. Mr. Sain says: "Many farmers up near the foothills keep a big band of goats for the purpose of clearing land, and as well, for profit. Coyotes make inroads into these flocks, to the loss of owners, because a few sportsmen want to keep the deer protected. Years ago, when it was not uncommon to see hounds chasing deer the coyotes were few and far between—for they do not thrive in a hound country. The game law makes it expensive for those whose hounds hunt deer, and as a result where a few years ago we had twenty hounds in our neighborhood, to-day we have none, and the coyotes have increased, much to our loss. If the deer were not 'protected' it would be a good thing for outlying farmers. It looks silly for a neighborhood to lose twenty five or thirty Angora each year, and perhaps as many sheep, in order that some fellow from the city can come out and kill a couple of deer, and the farmers kill as many more in a season. It's all 'folderol'."

Enlist Doctors Probe No Inquiries.

We refer to that boom to weak, nervous, suffering, nervous known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John F. Lytle, one of the Editorial Staff of THE OREGONIAN, writes in his review of the "Favorite Prescription" which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator, and makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system. It continues to maintain us have a permanent which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of disease peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonin (Uterine Root). Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhoea; stonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women; mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic disease of the reproductive organs of women; constant sensation of heat in the region of the uterus; menorrhagia (bleeding) due to a weak condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhoea (suppression) or almost monthly irregularity of the menstrual flow; abnormal condition of the digestive organs and anemic (thin blood) habit; dropping of the uterus; and general debility of the system."

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says: "It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions of the uterus, and in general debility of the system, it is a most valuable remedy."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root: "In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use which has such general usefulness of action. It is universally regarded as the tonic used in all debilitated states."

Prof. Bartholomew, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal: "Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (bleeding) and consecutive dysmenorrhoea (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.

to the reunion with a great degree of anticipation.
