

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS

SUPPLEMENT—THURSDAY, APRIL 12, 1906

UNION PARTY CALL

For Independent Mass Meeting

An Independent Mass Meeting is hereby called to meet at the Court House, at Hillsboro, on Wednesday, April 25, at the hour of ten o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating Independent candidates for the several county offices, as follows: Three Representatives, County Judge, Commissioner, Clerk, Sheriff, Recorder, Treasurer, Surveyor, Coroner, and to transact such other business as may come before the meeting. An invitation to attend and participate in this meeting is extended to everyone, regardless of his past or present political views.

By order of the Union Party Central Committee of Washington County.

James H. Sewell,
Chairman.

John M. Wall,
Secretary.

Wm. Rohr, of above Greenville, was in town Tuesday.

Joseph Bishop, of Helvetia, was in the county seat Tuesday.

A. E. McCumsey, of near Mountaindale, was in the city Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Peter Spiering, of Greenville, was a caller at the Argus office Tuesday.

Banker Sholes is fixing up the street in front of the newly built Third street residence, opposite the Gates' property.

The U. S. Grand jury is still in session at Portland, and the Washington County member of the body is Doc. Tigard, of Tigardville.

Fred Everson, in the law offices of Dolph & Simon, Portland, where he is a law student, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Harriet R. Davis.

Miss Lucy Humphreys, who has been down on her homestead near Cannon Beach, has returned and taken her position in the city schools.

Frank T. Wrightman, of Salem, candidate for the republican nomination for secretary of state, was a Hillsboro caller, Tuesday, circulating among his party affiliates.

The undersigned has a nice assortment of flowering plants, shrubs, etc.; also cabbage and tomato plants; also full-blood Brown Leghorn eggs for hatching purposes. —Mrs. Agnes Campbell, Hillsboro.

C. E. Kindt was up from Kinton yesterday morning.

August Kempin was in yesterday, from northeast of Glencoe.

Rheinhold Schwanke, of Centerville, was in town yesterday morning.

Col. R. W. McNutt, the Cornelius real estate man, was in the county seat yesterday.

Upon an indictment filed in circuit court Jos. Holder, of Gaston, was arrested Monday, and brought to the county seat, the charge being sale of liquor without license. Mr. Holder furnished bail in the sum of $400, his sureties being B. Fleischauer and Jos. Buchele, both of Gaston, and the case will be heard either at the July or the November session of court. Holder states that he has complied with the government statutes, and has not violated the state law.
