HARRISON A. JONES DROWNED AT ALBANY

Was Working on Steamer Oregon, as Deck Hand

TRUCK FORCED HIM INTO THE RIVER

Body Was Not Found Until Sunday; June 3.

Harrison Allen Jones, son of the late Washington and Margaret Jones, former residents of near Mountaineale, and north of Glencoe, was drowned at Albany, late in May. He was working on the steamer Oregon, as deckhand, and was hauling a truck. He was going down a steep incline, when the truck forced him into the river. His body rose two times and finally sunk from sight. Every effort was made to save him but without avail. H. W. Jones, of Mountaineale, went to Albany, and after searching several days the body was located, and taken to the Lone Fir cemetery, Portland, for interment.

Deceased was born in Portland, and was aged 17 years, 3 months and 2 days. When a boy his parents moved to this county. The following brothers and sisters survive: H. W. Jones, Mountain dale; C. L. Jones, Cooper Mountain; A. L. Jones, in the U S Army at Batanzas, Philippine Islands; Mrs. Julia Myers, Portland; Mrs. Hattie R. Neil, Portland; Mrs. Clara Paulsell, Woodstock; Mrs. Laura E. Monish, Portland; Mrs. Eliza B. McKay, Mt. Tabor; Mrs. Gertrude Howell, Beaverton. The funeral took place from Dunning's undertaking parlors.

T. C. Wadsworth, wife and child, were out Sunday, guests of relatives.

For sale: one dwelling house, 8 rooms; one dwelling house, 9 rooms, one lot for warehouse on S. P. track, 40x89 feet.—Jno. Milne, Hillsboro, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Smith, of Forest Grove, will celebrate their Golden Wedding this Saturday afternoon. They were wedded fifty years ago June 17th. They are the parents of DeWitt Smith, deputy county clerk.

Announcement—We are prepared to furnish candy in quantity for Club socials, Lodge banquets, lawn parties, picnics, Church fairs, etc., made to order and at special prices. After dinner wafers a specialty.—The Den of Sweets.

George W. Phillips, who has charge of a big harness and saddle business at Wilbur, Wash., arrived Monday night to attend the bedside of his father, Daniel T. Phillips, who is critically ill at Cornelius. Years ago Geo. conducted a shop in this city, and he was a general favorite.

Those wishing ornamental shrubbery, nursery stock, flowers (such as carnations, China asters, etc.) should call on E. R. Morton, either at Hillsboro greenhouse grounds, north of the court house, or at the Beaverton greenhouse. Also have fine stock of celery, tomatoes, cabbage, cauliflower and other plants.

Wm. Sigler, of Leland, Idaho, where he is engaged in the stock business, arrived Monday, to visit his brothers, Alonzo Sigler, Hillsboro, and Jas. Sigler, Phillips. He was well known here by the early pioneers, and left for the Idaho country in 1856. He had not seen his brother Alonzo for 43 years.

To the Ladies of Hillsboro: I have purchased the Bazaar business, on Main street, and have added to the stock, so as to better meet the demands of the buying public. I am putting in a splendid line of lace and embroideries, neckwear, belts, ladies' and children's furnishings, and I solicit your patronage. My selections are the latest, and it shall be my aim to make the Bazaar the exclusively up-to-date place for this class of purchases.—Mrs. Eva B. Pillsbury.

Henry Mathee, of Laurel, has just sold a half grade four-year-old Percheron, sired by the registered black Percheron stallion, "Oregon," for $200. A pretty good price for a half blood, which goes to show the advantage of good breeding. While in the city he called to renew his subscription to the Rural Spirit, which he has been taking for several years. Mr. Mathee says the farmers about Laurel are growing a great deal of vetch of late years, which, as well as all other crops, is looking fine this spring. The people out that way are sending their milk to the condensers, and some are sending their cream to the Hazledwood company at Portland.—Rural Spirit.

Go to McCormick's for school supplies.

C. D. Staley, of Dairy, was in the city Monday.

Frederick Hansen, of Reedville, was in town Friday.

G. H. Pranger, of Leisyville, was in the city, Saturday.

John Kanna, of Farmington, was in the city Saturday.

N. Womer, one of Laurel's hopmen, was in the city Monday.

Gottlieb Zuercher, of near Cedar Mill, was in the city Saturday.

Tents, hammocks, camp stools and lawn chairs.—G. A. Patterson.

J. J. Meacham, of above Mountaineale, was in the city, Monday.

David Reghitto, the Beaverton union man, was in the city Friday.

Moses Dillaboy, the Cooper Mountain farmer, was up Friday.

Fine line of Mohair for waistings, all shades and colors, at H. Wehrung & Sons.

G. W. Stitt, one of Beaverton's old timers, was up to the county seat, Monday.

Smoke the Schiller and Excellencia cigars—Oregon manufacture. Call for them.

J. J. Krebs, formerly a merchant at Farmington, was up from his ranch, Saturday.

For sale: Cheap, Baker & Hamilton horse cultivator, good as new. Inquire at this office.

J. B. Schaefer, of Linton, was up the first of the week, a guest at the Ross Farm, north of town.

Use Jap-a-lac to finish your floors and renew your furniture.—G. A. Patterson, Distributor.

George Hathorn and family, of Laurel, passed through the city Saturday, enroute to Leisyville, for a visit.

Smokers like the Schiller and the Excellencia. These cigars are of the best stock. You can't fool an authority on a good cigar.

Attorney Geo. R. Bagley has purchased the Dudley farm, located at Centerville, where the old flouring mills were located for years.

$10 spent with Herman Ostermann, Centerville, entitles you to 50 cents worth of merchandise, over the counter, free. Ask him.

George Butler, who has been out at the Bloyd & Sigler mill, near Phillips, came in the first of the week for a few days' medical attendance.

We carry a complete line of tinware, hardware, stoves and ranges. Also crockery. Come and see our complete dinner set, at $8.50.—Schulmerich Bros.

R. Crandall was Friday exhibiting a lemon of the American Wonder variety, and the specimen was a beauty, measuring 11x12 inches, circumference.

Wanted: To rent farm of 150 acres under cultivation and with some pasture. Write "Z" care Argus, stating place, where it is, and how much cash rental you want.

Dorr B. Waggener, with the locating engineers on the P. R. & N. Ry., came down from above Buxton the first of the week, for a few days' visit with his parents.

Headquarters for all kinds of agricultural implements, wagons and buggies, shipped direct from the factory, and sold below Portland prices.—Schulmerich Bros.

A R. Warren has arrived from the Nelson-Wilcox mill, and taken up his residence in this city. He expects to go down on the Columbia for the Summer, where he will fall timber.

Taken up: Brown muley steer, top out of left ear; light brown around nose; owner call, pay charges, prove property, and take same away. Owen Murray, Cedar Mill.

L. M. Beebe and wife, of Springfield, Lane County, were here the first of the week, and went on out to Matthew King's, for a short visit. Mr. Beebe is publishing the Springfield News.

Our suits fit you, and you can not tell them from the product of a first-class tailor shop. Come in and see them. We carry the finest stock of clothing and overcoats in the county. H. Wehrung & Sons for $200.

Ira E. Barrett, attending the Corvallis Agricultural College, came down the last of the week, having finished the term examinations. Ira will finish the pharmaceutical course, and then take a course in medicine.

People who want next Winter's wood should place their orders early this Spring, as the demand for shipment to Portland will be stronger this season than ever before. Orders placed now may prevent inconvenience next Fall.—H. D. Schmetzer, Hillsboro.

OREGON KID WINS THE BIG EVENT

Takes Two Mile Race At Irvington, Saturday

HUNT CLUB HAS FINE RACES

E. B. Tongue Returns With Two Trophies to His Credit

Portland's Hunt Club races at Irvington, last Saturday, were attended by a large crowd, and a number from this place went in to see the courses. The big event was won by Oregon Kid, E. B. Tongue, owner and mount. The Kid went up against the best of them and was an easy winner. This horse has been winning the hurdle races with ease, but the Portlanders wanted to get his scalp on straight riding. The Kid has been under Fortune's training for a few weeks and he went into the string "fid as a fiddle." Tongue won the Mrs. F. O. Downing cup and the Hunt Club cup at this race.

In the seven furlong race E. B. also won, riding "Our Choice," making two events to his credit. T. H. Tongue was second in the fat man's race, "Pike" Davis being first on an old skate christened "Ligero." This was the fourth mile dash.
