

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS.

VOL. XIII.

HILLSBORO, OREGON, NOVEMBER 15, 1906.

NO. 35

COUNTY WILL HAVE NO GENERAL ROAD MASTER

County Court Decides Against it by Vote of Two to Three

THE COUNTY BUYS ROCK QUARRY

Recorder's Receipts for October Very Large

The county board adjourned Friday, after a three days' session. One of the most important propositions coming before the board this month, for a vote, was the proposition of hiring a general county road overseer, at a salary of $150 per month. Commissioner Buchanan made a motion to hire John McClaran, of Gales Creek, as a county road master, at a salary of $150 per month. Upon voting the ballot was recorded as follows—Buchanan, "Aye;" Judge Goodin and W. J. Butner, "No;" and the motion was declared lost.

Back tax of $8.80 on land of Alfred Guerber, Helvetia, was remitted and county gave quit claim deed.

Upon payment of $50 W. H. McEldowney is to be given a deed to land in the Ebbert donation land claim.

The county court voted to buy two acres of rock ground from land of John Olson, near Cedar Mill, purchase price to be $150.

Transcripts of State vs Archibald Howard, Chas. Briggs and Claude Bowman were ordered paid.

Recorder Ireland reported $365.45 as fees for the month of October and Clerk Goldman reported $272.50 as fees for same month.

R. Puhols, of West Union, granted permission to set telephone poles at edge of county road.

The court ordered that the $300 allowed as exemptions on the 1906 tax roll be stricken off and that no exemptions be allowed when the taxroll is extended.

John Siefert, of Centerville, was a county seat visitor Monday.

H. Wehrung & Sons carry a full line of Heinz' pickles and bottled goods.

M. W. Hahn, of near Mountindale, was in the city Monday, and called at the Argus office.

Mrs. Pillsbury can show you a handsome new line of golf gloves and mittens for ladies and children.

Frank Powell and wife, of Monmouth, Ore., were here over Sunday, the guests of S. D. Powell and wife. They have just returned from a month's visit in the Big Bend country. Mr. and Mrs. Powell are each 77 years of age, and each is a pioneer of 1851. The husband is heavily interested in farming near Monmouth, and also has a large interest in his local bank.

A chicken case occupied a day and night in Judge Bagley's court last Friday. Some time ago, in August one Joe Sanders, of near Bethany, lost over six dozen chickens. He found dead chickens all over the yard one morning and in the chicken yard were two dogs. One of the dogs he alleges, belonged to John Berger and he sued for $46. Berger claimed his dog was at home early in the morning, and six jurors, A. C. Shute, J. C. and C. A. Lamkin, Herman Kamna, J. W. Sewell and W. H. Morton were selected as a jury. After being out until two o'clock the next morning they stood three and three for the contending parties. T. H. Tongue Jr. was the plaintiff and M. B. Bump for the defense. A large number of witnesses were in from Bethany.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE FOR BEAVERTON

Under Auspices Oregon Agricultural College

NEXT SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17

Dr. Jas Withycombe and Wm Schulmerich, Speakers

Beaverton will have a Farmers' Institute on Saturday, November 17, morning, afternoon and evening. The farmers of that section will meet and hear the subject of agriculture threshed out as never before. The sessions will be held at 10:00 a. m., 1:30 p. m. and at 7:30 p. m.

The topics of the lectures will be as follows: "The draft horse," Hon. E. T. Judd; "Fruit growing," Prof. C. I. Lewis; "Management of the Dairy Herd," Wm. Schulmerich, of Farmington; "General Agriculture and Forage Crops," Dr. James Withycombe, of Corvallis, Vice Director of the O. A. C. The evening session will take up the "Breeds and Types of Live Stock," and this feature will be illustrated by stereopticon views.

The general public is cordially invited and the farmers of east Washington county are requested to give the session a good attendance.

SHOOTING MATCH

There will be a rifle and shooting match at the Roy place, 3 miles north of Hillsboro, Saturday, November 17. Forty turkeys to be killed off, besides some chickens and geese. The shoot will commence at ten o'clock.

John H. Stevenson, well known at Forest Grove, near which point he spent his boyhood, and who is now a reporter on the Evening Telegram, was presented with $150 by Sweeney, the Spokane millionaire, the other day. It seems that Sweeney wanted to make an election bet and Stevenson told him where he could place a few dollars. Mr. Sweeney won several hundred and gave John H. $150 to get him a new suit. It is now said that every reporter on the Telegram is keeping an eye open for better stands.

Since the Southern Pacific overland California trains have been running past this place the hobclement has been making the West Side section in goodly numbers. Every night trains that stop here for a meet order throws off three or four from the blind baggage, and the knights of the road meander up town looking for something to eat. Marshal Atkinson is kept very busy looking after the undesirable element.

R. L. Ronald, who was out here last week as chief engineer of the electric line that runs from Salem via Tualatin to Portland, was robbed of $40 by a highwayman, last Saturday night. Mrs. Ronald was with him at the time and insisted that her husband should give up his money without trouble—in fact, she went through her husband's pockets while his hands were raised.

LINK RIVER DRY

For the first time in three years Link River went dry Friday, and Mrs. O. B. Gates had the novel experience of walking across the channel dry shod. The wind commenced blowing Thursday night and by Friday morning had backed the water up into Upper Klamath Lake to such an extent that the power for the electric light plant was shut off. During the day the wind continued blowing, and for a time it looked as if the city would be in darkness during the night. At the Klamath Lake Navigation Company's dock the waters of Lake Ewauna raised 14 inches, while on the Lower Lake a fall of 12 inches was recorded, its waters having been blown up this way.

About 4 o'clock in the evening the high wind which had prevailed all day commenced dying down, and shortly thereafter everything had assumed normal shape and the waters that find their escape through Link River commenced running down hill again.—Klamath Falls Herald.

Mrs. Gates is well known here, being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Waggener. The above is a veritable Red Sea story and the Argus will never again doubt the Scriptures.

G. H. Briggs, associated with his brother, Abner Briggs, in the mercantile business at Dilley, was a county seat visitor, Tuesday.

All kinds of hardware—C. A. Lamkin Co.

Sam Paisley, of Buxton, was in the city Saturday.

Go to McCormick's for school supplies.

Frank L. Myers, of Irvington, was in the city Saturday.

Charter Oak stoves and ranges—C. A. Lamkin Co.

E. C. Luce, with the O. C. M. Co., was in town Saturday.

S. A. D. Meek, of Mountindale, was in the city Saturday.

Grant Holcomb, of beyond Bethany, was in the city Saturday.

Marshal Davis, of Laurel, was a county seat visitor Saturday.

You will find a nice new lot of Winter shirtwaists at Mrs. Pillsbury's.

W. C. Jackson, of Glencoe, was a county seat visitor Saturday afternoon.

David Lebeau, of Scholls, was up to the county seat the last of the week.

Schulmerich Bros. are agents for the best known wagon on the coast—the Bain.

H. L. Decker, of Forest Grove, was a county seat visitor the last of the week.

Are you a smoker? Then call for the Schiller or Excellencia—Oregon manufacture.

Fred W. Wolff, interested with Peter Nelson in the hop business, was in from West Union Saturday.

For Sale—Strawberry plants, Wilson variety.—Mrs. Robt. Kuhn, Eighth and Railroad Sts., Hillsboro.

John Miller and wife, of Portland, were out Sunday, guests of Mrs. Susan Brown and Mrs. Susie Morgan.

For rent: Two furnished bedrooms on First Street, Hillsboro. Lady tenants preferred.—Inquire at Argus office.

Fifty acres cleared land for sale; or will be divided in two 25-acre tracts; 1 1/2 miles of Hillsboro.—Inquire of Argus.

Dr. Chas. Hines, of Forest Grove, was down Monday, along with other witnesses to prove the will of the late F. M. Hines.

Blasting powder constantly on hand at Herman Ostermann's store, Centerville. He also carries a complete line of general merchandise.

T. R. Imbric, who is interested in the real estate business and irrigation plans in Eastern and Southern Oregon, was in the city Monday, greeting his friends.

The jury in the case of State vs. Mark Wilson, of Beaverton, the defendant being charged with assault, found the young man guilty, as charged, late last Thursday evening, and a fine of $10 has been imposed by Judge Bagley, before whom the case was heard.

G. W. Waite, of Pierce County, Wisconsin, is here, the guest of his father, J. B. Waite, of East Hillsboro. The visitor in olden times caught "bull-heads" from the same pond as the Argus reporter—and they were dandies, too—much larger than those caught down here on the Slough by fishermen from this place.

Van Delashmutt, of Witch Hazel, was in town Saturday, and while here received a telegram from Tucson, Arizona, that he was for the first time a grandfather. The dispatch was from his son, Ivan, who is Professor of the Chair of Metallurgy in the University at that place, stating that a son had been born to his wife that morning.

Lieut. W. H. Myers, of Forest Grove, feels his importance more today than he did fifty-one years ago when he enlisted in the Indian War. He is the grandfather of a pair of twin boys, each of whom has a healthy pair of lungs. The twins keep their father, F. L. Myers, on the roads selling merchandise in order to keep the larder well supplied. They came to the Myers home October 25, 1906.

Azair Wharton, of gypsy and horse trading fame, was given an arraignment before Justice Bagley last Friday and bound over in the sum of $300 to appear at circuit court and answer the charge of larceny by bailee. Wharton is alleged to have traded horses with Joan Monner, agreeing that he would trade back the next day provided Monner's father, who owned the horse young Monner had with him, were not satisfied. Monner took the animal home, according to his version, and Monner Sr. told him to take it back. He went back the next morning and Wharton told him he had sold the horse and gave him the laugh. Wharton put up $300 cash bail to make his appearance.

DIXON FAMILY AIR TROUBLE IN COURT

Wife of Albert Dixon Petitions For Care of Children

LEAVES HOME AND THEN RETURNS

Albert Dixon and Wife, of Forest Grove, in Limelight

Mrs. Lillian Dixon, of Forest Grove, left her home last week and asked, by petition, to have the Boys' & Girls' Aid society take charge of the six minor children of herself and Albert Dixon, her husband.

Judge Goodin had the wife, father, and children in question, all brought to the county seat and there was a hearing Monday afternoon. The wife had but little to say at the hearing, except that she would be guided by the elder children, who were through school, and upon their request they returned home. The youngest child is but three months old.

The Dixons were in circuit court two years ago, when Mrs. Dixon sought for and procured a divorce, alleging in her pleadings that Albert Dixon, at that time the father of ten children, at family prayer, would pray God to kill her and put her out of his presence, and he would then tell the children that God would answer his prayer. At that time Mrs. Dixon procured a divorce, but in a few months afterward the divorced parties slipped over to Vancouver and again entered into the marriage relation. One child has been born since. The husband, at the hearing yesterday, said his wife was very fond of the babies, but qualified his statement by the clause: "She can't cook a little bit."

The mother is now home with the children, the elder children saying they would see that the little chaps were cared for. Dixon is to remain away at present, but he is to see that food and raiment is constantly sent to the family.

BUT HIS NAME IS BOOZER

How little there may be in a name is freshly indicated by the fact that the Rev. Mr. Booze is delivering temperance addresses in Oregon.—Indianapolis Star.

But his name happens to be Boozier and he was a former Hillsboroite. The "r" doesn't destroy the paradox.

DANCE, AND SHOOTING MATCH

There will be a dance at Centerville Hall, during the day, on Monday, Nov. 26. Also a shooting match for turkeys, ducks, geese and chickens. All are cordially invited and a good time is assured.

Austin T. Buxton, of Forest Grove, master of the State Grange, was in Portland yesterday enroute to Denver, where he will attend the National Grange convention. Mr. Buxton is accompanied by his wife, who goes with him as a delegate. The convention at Denver will open Wednesday, November 14, and will continue in session about ten days. While at the convention Mr. Buxton will enter a protest against the extravagance in the postal system and urge that a committee be appointed to proceed to Washington to make a thorough investigation. At the last meeting of the Oregon State Grange resolutions urging such a course were passed, and Mr. Buxton hopes to obtain decisive and determined action on the part of the National body.—Sunday Oregonian.

The supreme court of Oregon evidently believes in Chinese wages and has no use for the union scale. A witness in a justice case gets one price and a juror, who has to stay with the case from start to finish, gets a measly one dollar per day, perhaps a day of twelve hours, at that. The law goes in and takes a man away from his business and gives him less than a common laborer can get at any occupation. As a matter of fact there are very few around Hillsboro who court the job of juror in justice court.
