NO. 42

TEN THOUSAND DOLLAR DAMAGE CASE FILED

Wm. Bagley Jr. Sues W. F. Hollenbeck

TROUBLE OVER CHOPPED FEED

Suit Filed in Circuit Court by Bagley & Hare

Attorneys Bagley & Hare have filed a damage suit for ten thousand dollars, the plaintiff being Wm. Bagley Jr. and the defendant being W. F. Hollenbeck, the Roy warehouse man. The basis of the suit is an alleged statement made by Mr. Hollenbeck in the store of J. W. Vanderveiden, at Roy, about December 1.

The complaint charges Hollenbeck with saying:

"I sent grain to the Dudley mill to be chopped and when it came back I was 45 pounds short. I weighed it out and weighed it in and I am 45 pounds short."

The plaintiff is conducting a chopper near Centerville, and the property is owned by Geo. R. Bagley, the Hillsboro attorney. The plaintiff says that the statement has damaged his reputation, and virtually charges him with larceny, and he asks redress.

NOTICE TO FRUIT GROWERS

The Fruit Inspector of Washington county has found that almost all trees are infected with fruit pests and the law requires the owners or persons having possession thereof to destroy or eradicate such orchards or pests. You are therefore notified that unless such orchards or pests are destroyed or eradicated before the first day of April, 1907, I will proceed under the law to either cut down or destroy such orchards or have the trees sprayed at the owners expense.—W. R. Harris, Inspector.

Jas. Hoover, of North Beaverton, was in the city Monday.

Charter Oak stoves and ranges—C. A. Lamkin Co.

John Siefert, of Centerville, was in the city Monday afternoon.

R. M. Kyle, one of Cedar Mill's pioneers, was in the city Monday.

Loose clover hay for sale at reasonable price.—F. M. Heidel, Hillsboro.

Fred Berger, of below Bethany, was a county seat visitor the last of the week.

N. Womer, one of Laurel's prominent citizens, was in the city Monday, and called at this office.

Good, young, and well matched driving team, 1090 lbs each, hack and harness, for sale.—F. M. Heidel, Hillsboro.

Thos Emrick started for Tillamook, Friday, accompanied by Frank Hill, the P. K. & N. time-keeper. They went over the Wilson River road, horseback.

Mrs. F. M. Heidel has a lemon tree of which she is very proud. Last year the tree bore but one that ripened, but this year it increased to four. When the weather was cold the tree was taken inside. The lemons are large sized, and have a nice bouquet.

M. S. Hoover and wife, of Scott's Bra, Cal., were in the city the last of the week, and went on out to Mountaineer to visit with Jacob Rafferty and family. Mr. Hoover is a son of the late Jack Hoover, who lived out at Shady Brook years ago. He left for California, Monday.

This is the beginning of a New Year, and Hillsboro promises to improve more this year in the way of manufactured output than ever. The Argus has increased its business wonderfully the past year, and thanks all its patrons for their support, and wishes all a Happy New Year.

Harrison Allen, who has formed a partnership with Chas. Carey, of Portland, denies that Senator Fulton ever considered him as a possible candidate for U. S. District Attorney. Mr. Allen says he has resigned the district attorneyship for the Fifth Judicial District because he wants to get out of politics.

The Tom Tallman house, owned by F. M. Heidel, and rented by a Mr. Cooper, caught fire about 2:15 Monday afternoon, and the fire department responded, arriving in time to extinguish the blaze which had been checked. The damage was about $200. The building was on the site of the Mrs. Reeves' home, which burned three or four years ago. Much of the bedding and clothing of the family was saved.

LOUIS LACHMUND & CO. OF SALEM, HAVE SUED JOHN SALZGEBER, OF THE BIG HOPFARM ON THE HAWTHORN PLACE, FOR $4,000 FOR MONEY ADVANCED FOR PICKING PURPOSES FOR THE SEASON JUST CLOSED.

Louis Lachmund & Co. of Salem, have sued John Salzgeber, of the big hopfarm on the Hawthorn place, for $4,000 for money advanced for picking purposes for the season just closed. Lachmund alleges that he contracted for fifty thousand pounds of hops to be delivered at Redville, at 20 cents per pound. He says that he gave Salzgeber the advance money, for which he took a note, and that when the hops were dried and baled the grower refused to deliver the hops or allow him to sample them. The company asks for $4,000 and interest since September; $500 attorney's fee, and that the hops be sold to satisfy the sum asked for. Teal & Minor are the attorneys for the plaintiff, and it is understood that Bagley & Hare will defend the case. It is stated that Salzgeber has a good defense.

To lease for term of years: Farm of 187 acres, 60 acres cleared, 9 miles from Portland, three miles from Bethany. Will rent for cash. Good buildings and stable fitted for dairying.—Grant Holcomb, Hillsboro, Ore., R. 1. Pacific States Phone 369.

Arthur Rogge, of Forest Grove was re-elected as a director, for four years, of the Oregon Historical Society, at Portland, the other day. Hon. Geo. H. Williams delivered the address, and touching on Washington County's early history, and gave as district clerk in Hillsboro, between 1853 and 1860, the names of Wm. Geizer Jr., W. S. Caldwell and Hon. W. D. Hare.

Blasting powder, No. 3, Hercules, fuse and caps, at Portland prices.—G. Hager, near Phillips, 14 miles northeast, and 7 miles from Hillsboro. Address, R. F. D. 4, Box 65.

The Scholls Telephone Company has called a meeting for January 12, at the Artisan Hall, Scholls, at ten a. m., at which time and place the members will elect officers and attend to other business, such as taking up the matter of renting phones; adopting a flat rate instead of a switch rate, and several other propositions.

Wanted: Hop Farm, on shares, for reliable and experienced party. Also farms to sell or rent. Apply to or address J. R. Foreman, 305 E. Morrison, Portland, Oregon.

Mrs. Arvilla McGuire, who died at Seattle last Friday, was a resident of this county years ago, living in the Tualatin section. She was the mother of H. D. McGuire, who was drowned in the Umpqua while he was Fish Commissioner.

Headquarters for all kinds of agricultural implements, wagons and buggies, shipped direct from the factory, and sold below Portland prices.—Schulmerich Bros.

Born, to Wm. Wolf and wife, of this side of Cedar Mill, on Dec. 17, a son. Wm. was in town Saturday and imparted the information that the young chap weighed 10 pounds when ushered in to this vale of tears.

Sixty or seventy Angora goats, high grade, billies and nannies, for sale. S. R. Lawrence, Scholls, Ore., address, Sherwood, R. F. D. 4.

Mrs. Louie Mueller and children left Friday for Ventura, Cal., to join Mr. Mueller. They will conduct a hotel and boarding house at that place.

Have a new stock of No. 3 Giant Blasting Powder. Full stock of shoes and rubbers. Come and see us.—P. S. Anderson & Son, Reedville, Ore.

Miss Jennie Woodward, aged 45 years, and who was once a teacher in this county, died at Forest Grove, last Saturday. She had been an invalid for eight or ten years.

Fifty acres cleared land for sale; or will be divided in two 25-acre tracts; 1 1/2 miles of Hillsboro.—Inquire of Argus.

Jabez Wilkes sold a four year old filly the other day for $300, and Wm. McQuillan also sold a six year old for the same amount.

For sale: 20 acres land, 1/2 mile north of town; 4 acres beaverdam on place. Goes for $1,000. Inquire at this office.

Clerk Godman is again issuing hunting licenses, as all hunters must renew or let the ducks roost on the ends of their guns.

Blasting powder constantly on hand at Herman Ostermann's store, Centerville. He also carries a complete line of general merchandise.

Miss Beatrice Tunstall and Lola Cooley, of Phillips, and who are attending high school at Salem, were home Holiday week.

Our fall line of dress goods, wash goods, flannel, etc., is complete.—H. Wehrung & Sons.

WAS BACK TO KANSAS CITY ON SNYDER CASE

Sheriff Connell Visited the East in December

SECRET HAS JUST LEAKED OUT

Was Absent Two Weeks on Official Investigation

It now transpires that Sheriff Connell was at Kansas City, Mo., early in December, and that he went back on the Snyder case. The officer will say nothing as to what he discovered back there in connection with the case. His visit was to take up the bank robbery, at Forest Grove, as well as the murder of Carey D. Snyder, the two crimes being connected.

When Sheriff Connell went away it was reported that he was up in the Malheur district, and so careful was the officer that no one suspected that he was making a trip in the interest of the state. The Argus at the time heard it rumored that he had been called to Kansas City as a witness in a libel suit brought by Geo. Perry, and published that statement.

FRUIT GROWERS MET AND ORGANIZED

Inspector Harris Addresses Members in Court House

GOOD CROWD IN ATTENDANCE

Officers Were Elected and Committees Appointed

At the court house, and an organization was effected, known as the Hillsboro Horticultural Society. Inspector W. R. Harris was present, and delivered an address, touching upon the condition of orchards, and reviewing the legislation. When questioned as to the rights of officers to destroy infected orchards he referred them to the law passed by a recent legislature and to the decision of Judge McBride, at Oregon City, showing where an orchardist had refused to spray a diseased lot of trees and where force was used to prevent the inspector from cutting the trees down. Judge McBride decided that the inspector had the right under the law to proceed to destroy the orchard if the owner refused to care for the trees.

The following officers were elected:

President.....Van R. DeLashmott
1st Vice.....Geo. H. Wilcox
2nd Vice.....W. H. Connell
Secretary.....C. E. Deichman
Treasurer.....John Reilly
Executive Committee—C. Rhoades, Van DeLashmott, A. E. Rice, John Reilly, C. E. Deichman.

A constitution and by-laws were adopted and the membership fee was fixed at fifty cents. All are invited to join the society. The following were elected to attend the meeting of the State Horticultural Society, which will meet in Portland, January 8, 9 and 10: Van DeLashmott, John Reilly, Geo. V. Doughty, C. Rhoades, W. H. Connell, W. E. Thorne, and F. M. Heidel.

The following committee was elected to inspect spraying outfits and materials: Grant Mann, W. H. Connell, C. Rhoades, Geo. H. Wilcox and Geo. V. Doughty.

THE AMERICAN MAGAZINE HAS CHANGED HANDS

For 30 Years Leslies Popular Monthly

Ida M. Tatnell, who wrote Lincoln and the famous "Story of Rockefeller"; William Allen White, the well-known Kansas editor; F. P. Dunne, creator of "Mr. Dooley"; Ray Stannard Baker author of "Railroads on Trial," and Lincoln Steffens, of "The Shame of the Cities" fame, are under the leadership of John S. Phillips, now editing The American Magazine.

Never before has such a brilliant group been gathered together, and they are not only contributing themselves, but are filling the magazine with the very best novels and short stories and great timely articles by other famous writers and beautiful pictures by great artists.

The regular price for the twelve numbers of The American Magazine is $1.20—little enough as it is, but for a limited time you can get the November and December, 1906, numbers, with a full year's subscription for 1907, for a dollar.

Think of it! Think of the quality of reading you get for $1.00. Think of the quantity—at least two great novels, 95 short stories, 28 poems, 70 timely articles, 800 beautiful pictures, and all for $1.00.

Cut this offer out, write your name and address on a slip of paper and mail it, with $1.00. Send it now—today—before the special 14 months' offer is withdrawn. Send it by check, postal money order or a dollar bill, at the publisher's risk, to The American Magazine, 141 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

Will sell, along with the lease, 3 horses, 12 cows, and 25 tons hay in barn, some chop, oats and wheat, and machinery and tools necessary to run place. Place on milk route and rural mail delivery, a good bargain.—Frank Wallace, Hillsboro, Ore., R. F. D. 2, 3 1/2 miles southeast of Hillsboro and one mile south from Minter Bridge.

Smokers like the Schiller and the Excellence. These cigars are of the best stock. You can't fool an authority on a good cigar.

Henry Treber and sister, Miss Mary, of Portland, were out last Friday, guests of their sister, Mrs. J. C. Kuratli.

Geo. R. Bentley, of Portland, and now city salesman for the Geo. Lawrence Company, was here New Year's. He formerly handled life insurance out of Hillsboro.

Postmaster Cornelius, with the first of the year, followed orders for reduction of post office box rent. Those boxes which rented at 75 cents per quarter now rent for 45 cents and those heretofore rented for 50 cents, rent for 35 cents.

POMPEIAN MASSAGE CREAM

is today indispensable on the dressing table of gentleman or woman. Not only does a Pompeian Massage perfectly cleanse the skin, but it removes wrinkles and blackheads, takes out stiffness of the facial muscles, animates the tissues, and makes the flesh firm and solid. Men use Pompeian Cream after shaving—it refreshes and takes away shaving stings.
