

SNYDER'S REMAINS BURIED HERE TODAY

Estate of the Father Sends Check for Funeral

HELD HERE OVER THREE MONTHS

Interment was in the Hillsboro Cemetery

At last the remains of Carey D. Snyder, the murdered man whose body was found near Bethany, early in October, have found rest. For three months they have lain in the Patterson undertaking parlors, and yesterday morning Acting Coroner H. T. Bagley received a check from the executors of the estate of the late R. M. Snyder, father of the dead man, the money to cover funeral expenses, with instructions to bury locally, in metallic casket. The check was for $150, and was signed by Sybil Snyder and R. M. Snyder Jr., as executrix and executor of the estate in which the dead man would have shared, had he lived a useful life.

Carey D. Snyder formerly lived near Mountaineers, in the hills, the place having been purchased for him by his father, who sent the boy West to reform, after release from the Missouri penitentiary. The boy fell in with some of his old Kansas City pals, and finally conspired to rob the Forest Grove bank. The bank was robbed, but Snyder and his young wife claimed they had nothing to do with the robbery, as the robbers went ahead of time. A few days later Snyder went to Portland, telling his wife he was going to make the robbers "dig up." On December 4, 1905, he was last seen alive in Portland. He hired a rig, having two seats, and left town. Nothing was seen of him after that time, and in October of this year his remains were found in a casket, and brought here. The remains were buried here today, in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

HURRAH FOR THE DRAG

Editor Argus: I am glad to see that you speak a good word for the road drag whenever opportunity offers. I consider the road grader, and the road drag, whether made of plank or a split log, as the rural mail carriers' friends. The most of the soil in this county, if it is properly graded, not too wide, and then kept smooth in winter with the drag, will in a couple of years become nearly as hard as a rock road, and it is my opinion, after traveling the roads every day for 33 months, that if the money spent in buying rock quarries and crushers, and what is worse than wasted in hauling rock and dumping them in mudholes, was used in grubbing out the roots, grading the roads, and ditching, in order to have good drainage, the necessity for rock roads would disappear, in my opinion. Anyway, we would then have a good foundation for the rock, and without which it is worse than useless to put in on the highways. Thanking you in behalf of the rural mail carriers, and for your advocacy of the road drag, I am yours truly.—A. M. Kennedy, Carrier Route 1, Beaverton.

GEORGE THOMAS REA

George Thomas Rea, of west of Hillsboro, died at the family home, Monday, January 7, 1907, from an attack of heart failure. Mr. Rea has been a sufferer from this affliction for some years, but had been on his feet continuously prior to his death. He was born in Richland County, Ohio, Nov. 3, 1847, and enlisted in Company G Sixth Iowa Cavalry, Sept. 22, 1862, serving three years. He was discharged in October, 1865, with the rank of Sergeant. After leaving the army he graduated out of the Eastman Business College, Chicago, and went West. He wedded Miss Osee Daniels at Mitchell, South Dakota, June 11, 1885, and resided at Canton, that territory, until 1887, when he moved to Coleridge, Iowa. The family moved to Hillsboro in 1901. Deceased was a member of the Masons and G. A. R. Mr. Rea was one of the few who went through the Civil War on the Union side and remained a democrat. He was an inveterate reader, and kept himself well informed on all subjects. He was noted for a kindly wit and satire, and had fine powers of declamation, an instance of which will be remembered by those who have attended the Veterans' reunions in Washington County. He was a kind husband and loving father. The funeral took place Wednesday, under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity, and interment was in the local cemetery.

Mrs. Pillsbury wishes to announce that she is putting in a full line of lace, embroideries, and fancy goods, for her Spring trade. She will also carry shirtwaists, ladies' and misses' underwear, linen goods, etc. Stationery and school supplies a specialty. Do not fail to call and see our lines before purchasing. Argus and Journal, $1.75.

J. A. Estes, of Albina, was in town this morning and organized the retail grocers. W. H. Wehrung was elected president and R. H. Greer was chosen for secretary. All the grocers were present and the following will attend the State meeting, at Portland, January 16 and 17: Wehrung, Greer, Palmateer, Dennis, Schulmerich, Vaught, and Lou Emmott. The object of this association is so that they can buy to better advantage and protect their credit departments, get better and more concerted actions in the matter of freights, etc.

If you want to tile your place, get figures from the Groner & Rowell Company, of Scholls. We are the largest manufacturers of drain tile in the county, and have sold our product far and wide. I am going to build in the Spring, get our figures of brick, building blocks, etc. We also furnish lumber, rough and dressed, of all kinds, and deliver if required, in sufficient quantities. Address us at Hillsboro, R. F. D. No. 2.

The city council will soon plank First Street from the depot, most likely up to Baseline, so as to give a plank thoroughfare clear through to the condenser. North Second Street will also come in for some planking, as will also Third Street. The council will keep planking as long as the road money holds out, and it is not easily figured just how much good road will be laid before operations cease. The question of a lumber supply will also be important, as it costs from three to four dollars more on a thousand than last year.

At R. L. Cate's office, 226 Stark Street, Portland, can be found the choicest buys of residence and business property in the city of Portland. He handles the celebrated Hawthorne Estate lots. Telephone Exchange 70.

The firemen are going to have a benefit ball at the Opera House, on the evening of January 12. The proceeds will be for the betterment of the fire company, and the project should be favored and supported by all who are interested in fire protection. The boys give their time to protect property from fire loss, and they should receive the appreciation that is due them.

The opening of the new Presbyterian Church at Reedville will take place next Sabbath, at 3:30 in the afternoon. The building is not completed yet, but is so far finished that services may be held. The building will not be dedicated until Spring, when due notice will be given. Subject at the Tualatin Plains Pres. Church, next Sabbath morning: "Proof of the Christian Life." A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Strayed: 35 head Angora goats; 2 billies, 12 unmarked kids. Others marked with hog ring in ear. Reward for information leading to their recovery.—Dr. A. B. Bailey.

SENATOR HAINES IS TO BE PRESIDENT

Will win out Over his Competitors, Sure

HAS MAJORITY PLEDGED HIM

Wilbur K. Newell Will Fight for Convict Built Roads

The legislature will convene next week at Salem, and Washington County is cutting some figure in the importance of the fight. The three members of the lower house are hanging together on the Speakership fight, and all are supporting Davey, of Marion, who nearly lost the game by making a three days' trip to Seaside, to take a rest, when the opposition published far and wide that Davey had gone on one of the drinking bouts and was again assaulting the liquid that "stings like an adder, and maketh the eyes red."

Senator Haines, of Forest Grove, will most likely land the presidency of the Senate, as it is said that he has a majority pledged him. Newell is fighting to have the convicts build state roads, and he is getting help all over the state. Organized labor appears antagonistic, but as the measure is drawn so that the roads built will be purely state roads there is not likely to be much opposition.

Mrs. A. Conley, of North Hillsboro, writes the Argus the following letter: "Dear Editor: The Argus last week stated, in its sketch of the fire at my home, that Mr. Heidel owned the place, and that we rented it of him. This was an error, as we bought the place from him last Summer. The loss of the fire was a great blow to us, as it destroyed pictures, certificates, letters of reference, and all our clothing except that which we wore and which was on the line in the yard. The fire caught from a defective flue that projected in the bedroom, and that portion of the house was all a blaze before we knew it. Our two year old child had been sleeping in the bedroom, and had left it but about twenty minutes before the blaze was discovered. I desire to thank the many friends who aided me in the hour of need."
