AGED PIONEER DIES

Cleve Short Silver, aged 92 years, and a pioneer of 1850, and a resident of Washington County in pioneer days, died at his home in Portland, Sunday morning. Deceased was born in Ohio, Nov. 4, 1814, and moved to Indiana in 1838, and was wedded the same year. In 1850 he crossed the plains to Oregon. He first settled in Portland, and later took up a claim on Chebalem Mountain in 1854. He was the committing magistrate when J. H. McMillan, who killed the late Masters, father of John Masters, of this city, was held to appear before the circuit court. Cleve Silver was a man of excellent parts, and had a host of friends in this section of the state. It was his ambition to live to be 100 years of age, and he refused to believe that he was going to die even when dissolution was coming on. All of his children passed away before him. A few years ago he visited Hillsboro and had a great time meeting his pioneer friends.

J. W. Price was in from north of town, Tuesday.

Mrs. L. W. House returned Monday from a trip back East, where she visited home folks. The cold weather, being unusual at this time of year, was a surprise to her.

FOREST GROVE VOTES A LIQUOR LICENSE

Wet Measure Wins out by Seven Majority

TO LICENSE SALOON AFTER YEARS
Wets Carried Mayor and Councilmen
Solid

After a desperate fight, in which every vote was canvassed, and every effort made on each side, Forest Grove has voted to license a saloon, and no reversal can be made inside of a year from the date of the election, which was held Monday. The fight was a strenuous one as shown by the fact that the majority on the license vote was but 7—license, yes, 140; no, 133.

The wet ticket lost their recorder and treasurer. The vote was as follows:

License	Anti-License
For Mayor—	For Mayor—
B. H. Laughlin, 168	M. Peterson, 111
Council—	Council—
C. H. Himm, 165	A G Hoffman, 119
S A Walker, 150	G C Patterson, 127
J W Fuqua, 147	O Baldwin, 123
Recorder—	Recorder—
J N Hoffman, 125	Walter Hoge, 140
Treasurer—	Treasurer—
W M Langley, 130	L J Corl, 141
Marshal—	Marshal—
U G Hanna, 151	A L Sexton, 127

Thus ends, for one year's activities, a fight that has been carried for years. It is said that the business men of the city, with very few exceptions, voted for the license ticket.

GERMAN MUTUAL ELECTIONS

The Bethany German Mutual Insurance organization met in this city Monday, and elected officers for the ensuing year, as follows: Fred Berger, Bethany, president; Chris Schindler, Cedar Mill, cashier; Peter Gossen, Helvetia, secretary; Geo Krebs, Helvetia, and Samuel Graf, Bethany, assessors for two years; Emil Kurath, Hillsboro, auditor. The next annual meeting will be held in Hillsboro, on the second Monday in January, next year.

No assessment was levied, as the Mutual has sufficient money to conduct its business another year. One member, a Mr Thompson, came clear from Linn county to attend the session.

Different now to the Deacon

The cold snap that we had last week, An' made the skatin' grand, Took us clear back to fifty-two, When all the western land, Seemed frozen in a grip so tight, An' ice was on the streams, While Sue an' I put on our skates, An' glided jes' like dreams— Like dreams that come but once in life, To make the best of once in life, An' lighted that old skatin' ground, In summer called a pond. I never shall forget the hours, We skated on the ice, An' how we allus swung away, When circlin' once or twice, An' skated 'till we reached the cove, Down where the big fir grew, An' found the place where fir's I had The nerve to talk to Sue— An' tell her how I loved her, so, How in the spring, we'd wed— The while she blushed an' turned away, An' hung her lovely head, But skatin' days is done with us— We like the fireplace warm, An' stay in when the ice is thick, An' east winds rage in storm.

FORMER SCHOLLS MAN AND WIFE ARE ROBBED

W. W. Beardsley, Running Grocery in Portland

ARE ROBBED BY DARING BURGLARS
Enter House in Night and Get Eighty-
Five Dollars

W. W. Beardsley and wife, two elderly people who resided at Scholls two or three years ago, and who went from there to Portland, were robbed Friday of eighty-five dollars by three masked burglars, who entered their house in Center Addition, Portland, and tied their aged victims with rope. They ransacked the house from top to bottom, secured the eighty-five dollars, and Mrs. Beardsley, in her terror, fainted. One of the highwaymen went to the kitchen faucet, drew a glass of water, and calmly resuscitated the swooning woman. The robbery took place at 3:00 o'clock in the morning, and the husband and domestic, Miss Lucy Carrington, were bound. They entered by means of a ladder, placed to an upper story window The Oregonian, in reporting the arrest, says:

The Beardsleys conduct a small grocery store at Clarendon and East Flanders streets, and occupy living rooms on the ground floor in the rear. Their house is a two-story frame structure, and Miss Carrington has apartments upstairs. It was into her room that the trio of masked and armed burglars first came. They gained entrance by means of a ladder, up which they climbed to the window. They broke out the pane and entered. Miss Carrington was awakened and screamed, but was warned to keep quiet. The burglars thrust revolvers up to her face, and ordered her to get out of bed and go downstairs. The noise had awakened Mr. Beardsley, who lighted a lamp and was making an investigation, when he encountered the masked men, marching along, Miss Carrington, attired in her nightgown, in the lead. The burglars forced Mr. and Mrs. Beardsley and Miss Carrington to remain quiet, while two of the robbers searched the house. The third stood guard with his revolver, frequently warning the trembling victims to remain quiet. The searchers were bold and determined. They removed $40 from Beardsley's trousers pocket, ransacked the rooms thoroughly and finally broke open with a cleaver the inner box of the safe. There was no money in the safe, but when they turned their attention to the cash drawer, the burglars were rewarded by finding $45, making a total of $85 for their most daring and exceptionally sensational exploit.

Having completed the robbery, one produced a rope and two of them set about to bind the victims to the bed. Miss Carrington was bound first, Mr. Beardsley next and Mrs. Beardsley last. She was overcome from the shock, and being ill in addition, fainted. The masked man who had been standing over her with his revolver threateningly drawn, hurried to the kitchen, got a glassful of water and returning, applied it to the victim's face and forehead, succeeding in reviving her.

ORDERS FILLED PROMPTLY (Daily News.)

Hartford City, Ind., Jan. 5.—The stork visited the editor's home last evening and left an 11-pound boy. This was "according to order."

The editor is E. E. Cox, and his wife was formerly Miss Nellie Tozier, of this city. They spend their summers in Oregon. Mrs. Cox is a native of Hillsboro.

TWO DEMOCRATS AGREE

Last week's Argus editorial said: "The coming session of the legislature should cut down the number of Normal schools from four to two, leaving one at Monmouth, and one at Weston." It will not only save the expense of two schools, which constantly want aid from the state, but the remaining schools would be practically self-supporting, and another saving would be effected.

The Governor's message to the legislature has the following, which in its way is remarkable, showing that at last two Oregon democrats can meet on common ground and agree: "There are too many Normal schools in the state supported by money exacted from the taxpayers. One in Eastern and one in Western Oregon might with propriety be maintained, affording every facility to those desiring to fit themselves as teachers."

LUNCH AND COFFEE HOUSE

Home style lunches at all hours, from 10 cents up. Regular meals at regular meal hours during the week. Sunday, breakfast from 7 to 8:30. Noon meal, 12 to 1:30. Evening meal, 5:30 to 7 o'clock. In the Benson Bldg., Main Street, near Third—D. E. Pizer.

Hon. B. F. Purdy, of Gaston, was in town Saturday morning, and went on to Portland that evening, to join the legislators for their invasion of Salem.

A. Spreitzer, formerly of Hillsboro, and who left here for Portland many years ago, remembers the Argus for another year. Mr. Spreitzer has taken the Argus ever since it was established.

Superintendent Ringle had the time of his life, Monday, getting water pipes, which had broken during the night, repaired. Scores of people were without water for half a day. Those pipes which were exposed to the outer walls of buildings suffered the most. Where the water was turned off at the street valve, there was no trouble.

Donald McPherson, who formerly was in the mercantile business at Glencoe, Mountaineale and Buxton, was here Monday, and went on out to Mountaineale. Mr. McPherson was born in the Oregon country, at Fort Caldwell, in 1845, and has been over sixty years of pioneer life. His father was with the Hudson Bay Company as a fur trader, and was a close friend of the late Thos. Otebins. He will visit up here for a week or so and then return to Oak Point, where at present he is residing. Mr. McPherson well remembers the year of 1862, when the Winter was the coldest of record in the Oregon country.

POMPEIAN MASSAGE CREAM

is today indispensable on the dressing table of gentleman or gentleman. Not only does a Pompeian Massage perfectly cleanse the skin, but it removes wrinkles and blackheads, takes out stiffness of the facial muscles, animates the tissues, and makes the flesh firm and solid. Men use Pompeian Cream after shaving—it flexes the muscles and takes away shaving soreness. Most women recognize the value of this preparation in maintaining a clear and healthy skin.
