Oregon has set the pace in the election of United States Senators. This week the legislature elected on the first ballots, two senators, the two being the plurality candidates of the June election. This is as it should be. The people may make mistakes, but the people can correct them. The next move for Oregon to make is to recall a public official when he has been recreant to his trust. To this end no commission should be given a senator unless it provided his recall in case there is betrayal of his constituency.

W. J. Bryan visited Portland this week and even talked to a republican legislature in the state of Oregon, and this, without being insulted by the little snickernee newspapers with patent bowels or proprietary medicine overcoats. Truly, the world "do move."

THE MARKETS.

This morning's market reports, compiled from Portland quotations, are:

New Williams Got a Gift. In the last century there lived in a western village a gentle old man subsisting on a meager salary. One day he learned that his brother had died in San Francisco and left him a fortune of many millions. The transition was staggering, especially so since it was followed by a shower of appeals for money from every quarter of the globe and from persons known and unknown to him. His son, who acted as his secretary, noticed with regret that the father seemed unable to grasp the meaning of his new power and was glad to have him at last evince a little interest in one of his begging letters. It proved to be from Williams college, asking an endowment on the plea that the old man's birthplace was near the institution.

"I'd like to do something for that school," said he meditatively. "Well, I would, father, if I were you," his son encouraged him. "I believe I will." The old man's ardor kindled. "I believe I'll give them something handsome." "So you should," the son pursued. "Why not?" "I will. I'll give them"—he thought for a moment—"I'll give them $100!"—Boston Herald.

Safer. "Do you think a flying machine would be safer than the ordinary means of exploring the arctic regions?" "Much safer," answered the inventor. "It would be likely to break down before the party got as far as usual from civilization."—Washington Star.

Of Interest To Women. To such women as are not seriously yet of health, but who have exacting duties to perform, either in the way of household cares or in social duties and functions which seriously tax their strength, as well as to nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable supporting tonic and invigorating nerve. By its timely use, much serious sickness and suffering may be avoided. The operating table and the surgeon's knife would be unnecessary if this medicine were employed in the most valuable women's remedy were resorted to in good time. The "Favorite Prescription" has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless. Bear in mind, please that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse, because of the uncertainty as to their composition and harmless character, but is a MEDICINE OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine taking the place of the common use of alcohol in its make-up. In this connection it may not be out of place to state that the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, and sold through druggists, all the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended. A little book of these endorsements will be sent to any address, post-paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card, or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. Easy to take as candy.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR THE COUNTY OF WASHINGTON

George Schulerich and A. S. Sholes, Plaintiffs, vs. Oregon & California R. R. Company, a Corporation, and M. L. Paxon, Defendants.

To M. L. Paxon, one of the above named Defendants: In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby commanded and required to appear in the above entitled Court and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled cause on or before the expiration of six (6) weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, in the Hillsboro Argus, the first publication thereof, being on the 20th day of Dec. 1906, to-wit: On or before the 31st day of January, 1907, and you will please take notice that if you fail so to appear and answer said complaint the Plaintiff will take a decree against you, adjudging and decreeing that they are the owners in fee simple of all of the West 1/4 of the Northeast quarter of Section 20, T. 3 N., R. 3 W., of the Will. Mer., containing eighty (80) acres, free from any and all claim, right, title and interest made by you, and that you be forever barred and precluded from claiming any right, title or interest therein or thereto, and for such other and further decree as may be necessary and proper. This summons is served upon you by publication, by order of Honorable J. W. Goodin, County Judge of Washington County, Oregon, made and dated on the 18th day of December, 1906.

Oldest, Financially Strongest, Safest and Most Conservative Banking Institution in Washington County.

Did you ever investigate to ascertain the respective liability of a Corporation and its Stockholders? If you did, you found that Stockholders of a Corporation, however rich personally, are not liable for corporate indebtedness (deposits) except to the extent of their unpaid subscriptions to the Capital Stock, (except National Banks.) If their subscriptions are fully paid, their liability for the debts and contracts of the Corporation ceases—therefore, do not credit the corporation with the individual wealth of its stockholders, nor confound the property of the individuals with the corporate property, in judging the wealth and responsibility of the Corporation. Only the property of the Corporation is liable for its debts and contracts.

We are not like Banking Corporations in which Stockholders incur no liability, except to the amount of unpaid subscriptions to the Corporate stock.

We are not like a Banking Corporation which appears to have, but has not, the individual backing of the wealth of its Stockholders, but owns only the money paid in for its stock, or its equivalent, the major part of which is usually portable property, and its deposits. But for the safety and protection of our deposits and our depositors, everything we possess, including real estate, is an asset. When you deposit your money with us, you are protected by the best of Oregon non-portable, tangible real property to the value of $150,000, in addition to all of our other banking assets.

We pay you 4 per cent. on Savings Deposits, compounded or paid every six months.

Have you ever figured the difference between compounding in four and six months? Figuring for one year:

Here are the figures on $100.00: In four months $104.04 In six months $104.04 For one year Difference on $100.00 4 mills " " $1,000.00 4 cents " " $10,000.00 40 cents

Bear in mind, the paid up stockholder of a Banking Corporation is not individually liable for its deposits.

We give you the best of protection and banking facilities; help you to save and accumulate for the rainy day, and guarantee courteous treatment to all.
