WILLIAM H. LUNG

William H. Lung, a veteran of the Civil War, died at his home north of Cornelius, March 11, 1907, after an illness covering several months. Mr. Lung was born in Mercer Co., Kentucky, March 14, 1828. At the age of seven years he moved with his parents to Schuyler Co., Ill., where he resided until 1850, when he crossed the plains to California, going to the gold fields. In 1854 he returned to Illinois. In 1862 he was wedded to Miss Harriet Meyers, who died four years later. Of this union two children were born, one dying in infancy. The other is Frank Lung, who was with the father at his death. In 1881 he was wedded to Mrs. Fanny L. Hanna. They came to Oregon in 1887, and bought the home place north of Cornelius. Mrs. Lung died in March, 1903. Deceased was an upright, conscientious man, and highly respected. He leaves a brother, Dr. John A. Lung, of Chewelah, Wash.

A Square Deal

Is assured when you buy Dr. Pierce's family medicine—for all the ingredients entering into them are printed on the bottle-wrappers and their formulas are attested under oath as being complete and correct. You know just what you are paying for and that the ingredients are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native medicinal roots, found growing in our American forests, and while potent to cure are perfectly harmless. Not a drop of alcohol enters into their composition. A much better event is used both for medicinal and preserving the medicinal properties of the plant. This agent possesses intrinsic medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable antiseptic and antiferment, nutritive and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, as extended by sour rising, heart-burn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels. Besides curing all the above distressing ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all diseases of the mucous membranes, as catarrh, whether of the nasal passages, of the stomach, bowels or pelvic organs. Even in its ulcerative stages it will yield to this sovereign remedy if its use be persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption in its advanced stages, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those cases, where coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages, nor must it be expected to cure chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption. It is the best medicine that can be taken.

HER CHOICE.

Miss Lighthead's Preference When It Came to a Question of Love.

"Maud," he began as he was preparing to leave her the other evening, "before I go I want to talk over a very serious matter with you."

"What is it, Bertram?" she asked.

"It's about Ted," he went on. "You seem to take more enjoyment in his society of late than in mine."

"Why, you jealous fellow?"

"I know I am, Maud, but I can't help it. I love you so. Lately I have noticed a great difference in you. You are not as affectionate, and I don't believe you miss me at all when I am away."

"Why, I—"

"You needn't try to deny it, Maud," he interrupted her, "for I know the truth. You don't miss me because you and Ted are always together. In fact, I believe you even hate to hear my name now, as it may take you away from him for a few moments."

"You know that's not true, Bertram."

"Then, Maud, I'll put it to the test right here and now, for I cannot let things go on as they have. You must choose between us. Who is it to be—your own loving Bertram or Ted?"

"What?" she exclaimed. "Give up Ted? Never!"

"Very well, then," he bitterly said as he sighed and walked out into the hall and put on his hat and overcoat. "I'm not of a jealous disposition, and I'm called a fair minded man by my friends, but I'm not the sort of fellow to share a girl's affections with one of those confounded Teddy bears. Miss Lighthead, farewell forever!"
