REAL ESTATE

City and Country properties in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana, for sale or exchange.

Hillsboro Office, Main Street, opposite the Tualatin Hotel

R. L. Cate is better equipped to make quick sales of Hillsboro property than any other real estate dealer in the state:

FIRST, BECAUSE Mr. Cate's Portland office advertises extensively, both locally and throughout the Middle West, and secures many inquiries for farm properties daily.

SECOND, BECAUSE Mr. Cate's Hillsboro office is in charge of a live young man, who has been for many years a resident of Washington County, and knows that district thoroughly.

THIRD, BECAUSE the two offices working in harmony, make an effective sales organization which cannot be duplicated.

The Hillsboro Co-operative Company discovered recently that they had been paying taxes for a number of years on the upper part of the property built by them, and occupied and owned by the Grange. As the law exempts the Grange society from taxation the company asked the county court for a rebate and the neat little sum of $138.56 was refunded them.

A big team belonging to the Oregon Nursery Company ran away on Second Street, Saturday morning, starting from the postoffice, and running down Second, turning to the left at the foot of the Street, and finally were stopped at the Brogden place, in North Hillsboro. Address us at Hillsboro, R. F. D. No. 2.

The weather of last week was delightfully springlike, but the first of the week the rains cooled the temperature considerably. This had the effect of keeping back the fruit, which was getting a trifle too far advanced for the season. Mr. Huntman, who has a peach orchard Southwest of town, says he has fine prospects for a good crop if the frost does not hit his trees while in bloom.

A lady about seventy years of age, and residing near Mountsindale, was out last Friday, just to see if the salmon trout had made a run up Dairy. A large one bit and the lady pulled him out, clear to Banks, when his salmonship flopped off the hook. In making a recast of her hook into the stream the fish hook caught in her hair, entering her scalp, where it lodged until Dr. A. B. Bailey went out and extracted the unwelcome visitor. The lady is a great trout catcher in season, but avers that there was no trout bait on the hook, when she had the mishap—and, as a matter of fact the trout are yet down in the lakes and bayous.
