TWELVE MILES IN ONE GREAT TANGENT

This is the Survey From Bertha to Hillsboro, Electric Line MEANS A SPEEDY SCHEDULE

Engineer Donald, of the Oregon Electric, in City, Saturday

Chief Engineer Donald, of the Oregon Electric Railway, with a line in process of construction between Portland and Salem, and with two surveys between Hillsboro and Bertha, connecting with the Salem-Portland line, was in town Saturday, and in talking with the Argus reporter, said that the survey out this way will doubtless give them a 12 mile tangent—for the uninitiated it might be well to state that a tangent means an absolutely straight line—and this will mean a dandy speed. He states that his road is not a hot air proposition at all, and they are not building in the newspapers. Whether or not they build, he states, depends on whether the people want the line; and whether it would pay; and whether they must dig up too much for privileges.

Mr. Swigert, president of the company, recently wrote the Argus that he would have something to say to the people of this portion of the county after a short time, and it is supposed that he will come through with his proposition as soon as he knows what he can do in the way of construction.

F. H. Bowlby, of Bowlby Bros., was in the city Saturday.

Henry Harms, of beyond Glencoe, was an Argus caller, Saturday.

Frank Weisenback and wife, of Witch Hazel, were in the city Saturday.

Lawrence C. Brown, of Iowa Hill, was in the city the last of the week.

Satisfaction guaranteed in the Ocean Wave Washer.—Chas. A. Lamkin Co.

John Jack and family, of near Farmington, were up to the county seat, Monday.

John Abbott, the Forest Grove jeweler, was down to the county seat, Monday.

Geo. Haase, of Gaston, and who is working for the Tanner mill, was down to the city Sunday.

J. E. Dickason, who lives up in the foothills above Glencoe, was in the city Monday afternoon.

Albert Friday, one of the old timers of the Greenville country was in town Monday morning.

A. J. Richardson, of Portland was out Sunday, the guest of his brother-in-law, Dr. F. J. Bailey.

Hon. Chas. V. Galloway, state land agent, and an appointee of Governor Chamberlain, was in the city Sunday.

Gents' and boys' clothing, fall line now in—Kub, Nathan & Fischer Sincerity make—at H. Wehrung & Sons.

J. H. McNamer and C. W. McNamer, of Forest Grove, were down to the county seat, Monday, looking after horses.

Wanted: Farms and lands of all kinds for sale and rent. Address J. R. Foreman, 205 East Morrison, Portland, Oregon.

Layton Wisdom, associate editor of the Rural Spirit, the really great farm and stock paper of the northwest, was in the city Sunday.

J. H. Ellerson, of Beaverton, and who has been there since the heavers first built in that section, was up to the county seat the first of the week.

Nick Kemmer, of Cooper Mountain, and who has grown hops on the hill for many seasons, was up to the city Saturday, on business at the court house.

Sam Sorenson, who was injured last winter, down on the river, was in town from Farmington, Monday. He expects to soon be able to navigate without the use of crutches.

Speaking of groceries—if you want the finest staple and fancy groceries to be found in the market, try John Dennis. He is after your trade, and once a customer, always a customer.

Mrs. J. W. Sewell and F. J. Williams, of this city, and Warren Williams, of Mountaineer, went to Summerville, Saturday, to attend the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Frazier, whose remains were interred at that place, Sunday.

The "American Citizen," played by a local troupe from McMinnville, at the Crescent last Saturday evening, was well received, and gave splendid satisfaction. Doty, as the citizen who eschewed his Americanism in order to save his clients, who had been swindled by his partner, was a success, and Miss Irvine, as his wife in name only, the two marrying in order to equally divide a fortune, the money saving his good name, was very good. Wortman, as "Sims," and Gilbert Tilbury, as the promoter, were all to the good. Their support was fine all the way through and any time that "Mack" wants a good house they can come to this city and get it. Hon. C. V. Galloway, state land agent, as Barbary, was a hit, and he and Doty make a great pair in comedy or pathos.

Mayor C. M. Smith and Councilman E. M. Tucker, of Jefferson, Oregon, were here Saturday, looking over the city water and light plant. Jefferson has voted bonds in the sum of $12,000 for the purpose of municipal light and water, the town to own and operate a deep well water system and a regular system of lighting. The town has 400 inhabitants, and this amount will give them a service for years to come, even if the town should grow greatly. They were well pleased with what they saw here in the way of system and operation. Mayor Smith states that they will in all probability put in wood water pipe as the iron pipe has raised to a price above their limit.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Moulton, who have been visiting at Dr. A. B. Bailey's for a few days, departed Saturday morning for Portland. Mr. Moulton has a position with the Sante Fe Copper Mining Co., in New Mexico, in the metallurgy department, and they soon leave to take up their residence in that section of the world. Mrs. Moulton was formerly Miss Alice Merryman, and a sister of Mrs. Bailey.

The United Artisans, of Dilley, held a very pleasant basket social at their hall in Dilley, last Wednesday evening. There was a neat little literary program, and the basket sales, amounting to $25, went into the social entertainment fund of the order. H. A. Hubbert, foreman at the Third Street mill, of this city, was in attendance.

Frank Wallace, of First and Washington Street, left this week for Hammond, Oregon, which is situated a mile or so this side of Fort Stevens, on the Columbia River bar. He goes to work in railway employ.

Brown Leghorn eggs, 15 each setting, for 50 cents; also full blood Buff Leghorn eggs for hatching purposes, 50 cents for setting of 13. Mrs. Agnes Gowan, Hillsboro. Independent phone, 144. Eggs delivered to any part of the city.

Sam Johnson, of Shady Brook, was in Monday, bringing in Harry Eldredge, who has been spending a few weeks up in that section. Mr. Eldredge left Monday evening for his home in Portland.

Watkins' stock and poultry foods and Watkins' remedies are what farmers and dairymen should use for best success.—Z. M. LaRue, agent, 404 Pacific Avenue, Forest Grove, Ore., Pacific Phone 294.

Paul Landauer, who bought a place near the West Union church, two years ago, was in the city Monday. Mr. Landauer begins to think that there is no place like Oregon.

We sell a complete line of stoves and ranges, hardware, tinware, crockery, etc. Come and see them and get prices before purchasing.—Schulmerich Bros.

J. M. Grear, who has been in California for his health, returned the last of the week. He says that he found cold, raw weather down there, much to his disappointment.

C. E. Kindt and A. N. Davies, of Kinton, were in the city Tuesday, on business. Mr. Kindt reports seeding as very late down in that section.

Our line of spring dress goods have commenced to arrive from New York. Come and see them.—Schulmerich Bros.

H. G. Fitch, justice of the peace for the precinct of Cornelius, was in the city Monday, on business.

J. S. Robinson, of Farmington, was in the city Monday, and called on the Argus.

Carl Meier, of the Road Bridge section, was in the city Saturday. Jas. Gibson, of East Portland, was in the city Tuesday.

COUNTY BOARD LETS THE SCHOLLS BRIDGE

Expect new Structure to Last Thirty-Five Years

BID FOR STEEL SPAN OFFERED

Was Rejected, However, as Too Expensive

The County Court, consisting of Judge J. W. Goodin, and Commissioners W. J. Butner, Beaverton, and C. B. Buchanan, Cornelius, met last Saturday, and opened bids for the construction of the Scholls' bridge across the Tualatin River, near the Groner & Rowell mill. There were but two bids offered, one for a wooden span and one for a steel span. The steel span bid was entered by A. E. Eberhardt, of Walla Walla, and he figured that he could put in the 80 foot span for $1825; repair on old piers, $400; trestle work, $620; making a total for the work at $2845.

D. B. Reasoner offered a bid on the same work, only that he would put in the Howe truss of timber, for $1747.44, total, and the contract was awarded to Mr. Reasoner. The timber will be tarred, and the court estimates that the structure will be good for 35 years. It will be a covered bridge, and there will be no piling driven under the approaches.

"SWACK" WHACKS AGAIN

The dirty and ignorant Jamaican, who has in the past protruded his puke into this section, and who helped the Independent, in a recent issue, to a communication, must have encountered short shrift at Corvallis, recently. Here is a scrawl sent by him to the Oregonian.

ALBANY, Or., April 13.—(To the Editor.)—This is how that I were treated in the city of Corvallis Oregon at the College There were some young women stop to talk to me for that I had given an talk in the public school and they thought that I were going up to the college to talk in the Y. W. C. A. but then I were just going up to see the major Ed ward and there were in the lot of hoodlums boys that said that they did not like to see niggers talking to white women So they told me to get of the campus they would allowed to ten minutes to get of the college ground, and the half of that time were gone already So they said that I could not come to the school and talk to the white girls the president said to them that if they were howling at them if they did not care they had no right to care for that they were Nothing but one horse studs.

So he said to them that you cannot both that man so then I do not hold you up in this thing so you let along this man he is not doing nothing bad if they want him to be Punish they will come, to the one that have something to do with the So you cannot bother him if you do you will have trouble on your hands So they were chasing about the streets of corvallis at midnight and The skate rinks until late hours of the night and if you call that Decent then I don't want any of that So then I were coming down the C. E. R. R. Track, April the 11th, About Dark and I met 2, couples going, Down the track playing just like if they were all boys and such like if they call that nice Do you then if that nice then I don't care to Any thing bad, So then I will close on this for that I would not like to Have sister to go there in that college.

That is how they done me some of them hoodlums want to be bad, that all D. H. J. A. Z. Swackhammer West Indian Lecturer Traveler Explorer of the Most part of the World.

The Knight Packing Company of Portland report that they had a very successful season at their Cider Factory at Cornelius, last Fall, as they were in shape to handle all the apples that were offered them. They paid cash for apples, or pressed on shares, as suited the customer, and about every farmer around here has his cask of pure cider in the cellar now, but the greater portion of the apple juice is shipped to the Knight Packing Company's plant at Portland, for the converting into cider-vinegar. The company is to put up more tanks this Summer in anticipation of an even greater business this Fall than last year on account of the more widely extended knowledge of the Cider Factory being in operation here. In addition to their cider business at Cornelius, the company is now contracting with the farmers around there for cucumbers for pickling purposes, and intends to erect tanks and buildings this Summer to take in and salt the cucumbers this Fall, as a reserve stock for their Portland pickle business.

A basket social will be given on the evening of April 19, at the Flint School House, for the purpose of purchasing an organ for the school. Everybody invited, ladies please bring baskets.—Miss Westcott, teacher.

We have just received a carload of Utah Land Plaster. Also a full supply of blasting powder. If you want salt, remember that we have just received a carload.—Anderson & Son, Reedville.

A. J. Smith, of Goldendale, who lived northwest of town thirty years ago, was down last week, the guest of his son, Wm. Smith, of Glencoe. Mr. Smith is one of the old pioneers of this section, and thinks we have a great future.

Alfred Cummings, formerly of Buxton, is now up in the Vancouver Island country, British Columbia, where he is cruising timber. He writes he sees no such timber up there as we have in Oregon, and particularly in the mountains above Buxton, and over in the Nehalem. He says that Vancouver Island beats Oregon for rain, and up there it goes one better on rainfall—that while it rains 11 months in Oregon, giving us a dry August, that up there August is also a wet month.

CHAS. PATTON, COON, AGAIN IN CUSTODY

Caught at Vancouver, Wash., Last of The Week

PATTON SAYS HE NEARLY STARVED

Feet Went Back on Him. "No Disgrace to Run When you are Scared."

Chas. Patton, the negro who broke jail two weeks ago last Friday morning, was caught at Vancouver, Wash., last Saturday, and Sheriff Connell went over and got the prisoner, Sunday, and he is now safe in the Hillsboro county jail. Patton takes his re-capture philosophically, and says he will take his medicine. He was seen in the jail Monday morning, and unburdened himself as follows to the Argus reporter:

"The first day I laid out in the woods north of town, and I had to 'lay low' as the boys were passing me every few minutes. I was under a big log and couldn't be seen. You bet I was scared. When night came, I walked back down First Street and could see the jail lights a winking at me and I said, 'not for me, twinklers.' I went on south, and made into the timber in South Tualatin. I was cold and hungry and I darsent show my black head in daylight. I jes' went to a henhouse once in a while, in the night, and pulled a rooster off the roost, fer I had to live, and I would get so hungry that at times I thought I would starve. I finally made Oregon City after days an' days, and my feet were so lame that I couldn't make no time—say, 'it aint no disgrace to run when you are skeered,' is it? I went over to Vancouver, and there they pinched me. Now, look heah, Mr. Newspaper man, don't you go an' run no great big story about this. I never robbed Thornburgh at all, jes' as shush as there's a God in Heaven. I gess, though, I'll stay in this country for a while."

BEAT FOREST GROVE

The Hillsboro Public school nine went up to Forest Grove, Saturday, and played the Forest Grove school nine, returning with victory perched on their banners, the score being Hillsboro, 14, and Forest Grove, 8.

POMPEIAN MASSAGE CREAM

is today indispensable on the dressing table of gentleman or gentleman. Not only does a Pompeian Massage perfectly cleanse the skin, but it removes wrinkles and blackheads, takes out stiffness of the facial muscles, animates the tissues, and makes the flesh firm and solid. Men use Pompeian Cream after shaving—it flexes the muscles and takes away shaving soreness. Most women recognize the value of this preparation in maintaining a clear and healthy skin.
