

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS.

VOL. XIV. HILLSBORO, OREGON, JULY 4, 1907. NO. 16

BRICKTOP NAMED AS INTRUDING LOTHIARIO

Sam J. Smith, Formerly of This County, Wants Divorce

PUTS McNAMARA IN COMPLAINT

Another Memoir of Brick's Tillamook Trip

When J. T. McNamara went to Tillamook last Fall, and came home with a reputation as a sleuth and informer on those who sold booze contrary to the statutes of the state of Oregon, he also had another little episode on his memoirs. While there he met with a family whose lord and master was Sam J. Smith, well known at Forest Grove and also down this way. As a closing chapter, Sam sued his wife for a divorce in the Multnomah court, the other day, and names J. T. McNamara as co-respondent.

It will be remembered that Bricktop came back from the coast city and soon afterward was caught in the robbery of a room at the Tualatin and sent up for one year at Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Smith were married at Olympia, Wash., in 1903.

Brick is at Salem and it is not recorded that he will be taken to Portland to witness the trial.

START FOR EUROPE

Miss Wilma Waggener departed Sunday evening for Europe. She went to Victoria and Vancouver, and from there she goes over the Canadian Pacific, to Lake Superior, where she crosses the lakes on a steamer. At Montreal she stops several days and sails on the Empress of Ireland for Liverpool. Miss Waggener, who has been instructor of piano at Pacific University for several terms, goes to take courses at Berlin and Vienna. She expects to remain until next Spring, when she will return to Hillsboro, and again take her position with the college.

Miss Waggener is the first Hillsboro girl who has taken so important a step in musical culture. She will be accompanied by Miss Beatrice Hadden, Miss Grace Wilton and Miss Field, of Portland, and the young ladies will be together

Something new: Mexican drawn work, on sewing machine; 30 beautiful designs, suitable for fancy shirtwaists, pillow tops, underwear, centerpieces, etc., on anything from finest Indian Linen to Butchers' Linen; learned in one to three lessons. $1 per lesson. Call and see samples. Mrs. J. J. Hill, 2nd & Railroad Streets. Also dress making and family sewing. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Hillsboro has been slighted, and that without just cause or provocation. The Saturday Blade, published at Chicago, and making a specialty of peculiar incidents, runs Grandma Wood's 120th birthday under a date line reading "Hillsboro, Idaho." The Blade will please correct, or we'll get Grandma to give him a piece of her vigorous mind.

Herman Collier and M. N. Bonham have bought the store at Laurel, and will make a try at the mercantile business. Mr. Collier has a wide acquaintance over in that section, and Mr. Bonham has been principal at the Laurel school. They should be able to keep the creditors away from themselves in good shape. The Argus wishes them luck.

Ranchmen on the North Plains say that the Hessian Fly has done no damage at all so far this season, and the prospects are fine for a good grain yield. The aphid, generally in evidence, has failed to make his visit to hurt, and old together, with timely rains, old Washington County will again make good as the chief of them all.

It will be of interest to know that one D. B. Townsend, of Salem, is attorney for those who will at once file suit against the Oregon & California to force them to sell the lands granted the company for the building of the lines in Oregon. The attorney has consulted with Congressman Hawley on the case. Several have filed in this county.

Wendell Davis, who recently bought 70 acres, half of which is cleared, in the Shady Brook section, was in town Saturday, and he is well pleased with his purchase. In fact, he could have taken a thousand dollars for the bargain within a week after he made the purchase. "Washington County against the world," says Davis.

Hop pickers wishing to pick at Ray Hop Farm, Witch Hazel, will please register at the ranch, or send their names for registry, with number of pickers in family to the undersigned. Fine accommodations.—Frank Weisenback, Manager.

DEERSLAYERS ARE GETTING READY

Can Kill Bucks by the Fifteenth of July

DOES PROTECTED UNTIL SEPTEMBER

Sportsmen Getting Their Shooting Irons in Order

Hillsboro sportsmen are getting their shooting irons ready for the open season for killing buck deer, the law releasing the close season on July 15. Does can not be killed until September 1, and after that the killing will be on in earnest. Hillsboro and Forest Grove hunters are going to start for the Nehalem and the coast range on July 14, or a day sooner, in order to be on the grounds at daybreak on the 15th.

George Armentrout, the disciple of Fennimore Cooper, at Forest Grove, Chas. Miller, Chas. Stevens and Sam Varley are getting ready for another trip to the hills, and C. Blaser and Dr. W. D. Wood, E. L. Wann and Wm. Nelson, of this city, are to be in at the dawn, and it is even whispered that Thos. Tucker, who came here in the fifties, was seen oiling up his old "Beteey," the other day, to take just one more crack at a venison.

Tom Sain, of Gaston, will not hunt this year, as he expects to rope his bucks, it being rumored that he has a half dozen so tame that they will lick salt from his hand.

CROENI-LEHMAN

Mr. A. L. Croeni and Miss Rose Lehman were united in marriage at the home of George Croeni, Portland, June 27, 1907. Rev. W. J. Johnston of the M. E. Church, officiating. The groom is a well known Bethany farmer and the bride is a daughter of one of Bethany's prominent farmers. They have taken up housekeeping at the Croeni Brothers farm, this side of Bethany.

Argus and Oregonian, $2.

John Berger, of Bethany, was in town Saturday.

Wm. Schulmerich, of Farmington, was in town Friday.

John B. Stewart, of South Tualatin, was in town Saturday.

H. C. Pearson, of South Tualatin, was in town Saturday.

L. E. Shute unloaded a new engine and baling outfit last week.

J. B. Tamsie, of near Glencoe, was in the city Monday.

Sam Kunz, the Bethany merchant, was in the city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griffith, of Arleta, were guests of Mrs. Mary Malone, Sunday.

John Witt, of south of town, brought the Argus in the finest six foot branch of Royal Ann cherries seen this season. For size they were world beaters and for flavor the best ever.

For sale: Holstein bull, practically thoroughbred, coming 3 years old. Fine for breeding purposes.—John Schneider, Hillsboro R. 4, residing one mile west of Phillips. Phone, Pacific States, Hillsboro, 49x3.

The jury in the case of Chas. H. Dodds, of Portland, versus J. H. and Alice V. Iritz, suit for alleged balance due on rental of a house in Portland, disagreed, and Judge Claude Greear dismissed them for further consideration of the case.

Richard May, of Cambridge, Iowa, and who has been traveling in California for his health, was here the last of the week, the guest of his brother, James May, of Vine-lands, whom he had not seen for several years. Both were in the U. S. service together during the Civil War.

Thos. Franklin, from Morris-town, Tenn., is here, visiting with John Bettis and family, on the Hawthorne ranch. Mr. Franklin just arrived from California, where he has been for some time. He is but 22 years of age, and stands six-feet-six—and doesn't know where he will land when he gets his growth.

Miss Emma Mohr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mohr, of West Hillsboro, has entered the Journal contest to secure a scholarship in one of the best colleges of the Northwest, in order to complete her education. Miss Mohr is a bright young lady and the Argus bespeaks support for her from the hundreds of friends the paper has in the county. Every subscription will help her.

J. A. Krieger, of Verboort, was in town Saturday.

Peter Vandebey, of Verboort, was in the city Saturday.

O. P. Kernan, of Helvetia, was an Argus caller Saturday.

P. I. Lilligard, the Laurel hop grower, was in town Friday.

E. E. Watts, of south of Reedville, was in the city Monday.

W. A. Finney, of Sellwood, was in the city the last of the week.

J. C. Wilson, of Bethany, was in town Monday, on probate business.

Commissioner C. B. Buchanan was down from Cornelius, Friday.

Readers will find two real estate sale articles in this week's Argus.

M. Cantwell and Chas. Meacham, of Mountaindale, were in town Monday.

Rev. Belknap, of the M. E. Church, went to Eugene the last of the week.

C. E. Hurst was in from the B. P. Cornelius ranch, beyond Glencoe, Saturday.

Born, to J. F. Peereboom and wife, of Roy, June 30, 1907, a son, weight 12 pounds.

Geo. Hesse, of Gaston, was down from the Tenner sawmill to spend the Fourth at the old town.

Thos. Wann is out for the National Holiday. He is at present in the employ of the city of Portland.

Editor J. F. Wood, of the News, Forest Grove, was in town Friday, and while here looked over the town.

Wanted: A girl for general housework. Apply to S. L. Barnes, Ladd & Reed Farm, Reedville, Oregon.

H. M. Basford, who recently purchased the Cornelius Brown place, southeast of Newton, was in town Saturday.

Frank Keenan, one of the old settlers up in the Vinelands' section, was down to the city the last of the week.

Mrs. Grant Landess, of South Tualatin, brought in an egg to the Vaught Grocery, last week, which measured 6 1/2 x 8 1/2.

Farmers of Farmington and vicinity can weigh their horees, hay, or heavy loads, at the John Kamna place, at popular prices.

Wm. Bagley, the Leisyville hop grower, and who has the largest individual yards of any in the county, was in town Monday.

John Papes, who has charge of the Greeks at work on the P. R. & N., was down to headquarters, Monday, on probate business.

E. W. Dant was up from Reedville, Saturday. Mr. Dant was one of the fortunate ones who held his wheat for the top of the market.

Hop pickers wanted for 50 acre yard. Good accommodations. Please register now.—S. L. Barnes, Ladd & Reed Farm, Reedville, Oregon.

J. L. Barnard, who was in the real estate business here, years ago, was out from Portland, Saturday, greeting his many old time friends.

Dr. Wood is hurrying preliminaries for putting in his brick on Second Street. He expects to have the structure completed by the time bad weather sets in.

For gentlemen's, ladies' and children's hose you can do no better than to buy of John Dennis. We have them for everybody, and at prices that are values.

Sheriff Connell and associates sent thirty head of bunch grass horses over to Tillamook, the last of the week, where they will dispose of them to Tillamookers.

G. W. Kelly, who is state organizer for the Association of Equity, a farmers' union, was in from Vine lands, Saturday. He expects to start his organization campaign in September.

Speaking of groceries—if you want the finest staple and fancy groceries to be found in the market, try John Dennis. He is after your trade, and once a customer, always a customer.

Geo. A. Brown has leased the Milne warehouse, and is ready to receive hay or grain for storage, at reasonable prices. Farmers are requested to give him their patronage. All business will receive prompt attention.

Clark E. J. Godman went to Tigardville and Tualatin, Saturday and Sunday, and says the Oregon Electric is grading to beat the Mormons down in that section. He states also that they expect to have the grade ready for the track between Portland and Tualatin, and perhaps the Willamette River, at Wilsonville, within a very few weeks. The big bridge will doubtless be finished by the middle of September.

ANDREW HOERETH OUT ON $1,000 BAIL BOND

Does Not Look Like a Perverter as Charged

WORKED FOR YEARS IN CITY PARK

Bond Was Readily Furnished by His Friends

Detective Andrew Vaughn Friday brought out Andrew Hoereth, charged with a statutory crime against a daughter under 16, and Friday evening Andrew Boesl, a Portland business man signed as surety on his bail bond and the prisoner, who is a hardworking German, was given his liberty, to appear later and answer the fearful charge lodged against him. The defendant worked for years for Myers, the park keeper of Portland, and he has always borne an excellent reputation. Hoereth has many influential friends who aver that he cannot be guilty. He is industrious and now owns a 16 acre tract at Swedeville. The old man keenly feels the disgrace of his arrest, but would say nothing about the case. E. B. Tongue is defending. When brought to the sheriff's office Friday the old gentleman was very downcast. A Portland friend who had read of his arrest, but who did not find Hoereth in Portland, telephoned Sheriff Connell that he would fix bail. This was unknown to Hoereth, and when Sheriff Connell told him that "Andy" Boesl would go his bail, for the first time after his arrest the prisoner saw some humor in the situation, saying: "Andy" is under arrest; "Andy" arrested me (meaning "Andy" Vaughn) and now "Andy" keeps me out of jail—a case of the "Andrews." "That is good. I shall not go to jail. One night in jail is kenuff!"

Editor J. F. Wood, of the News, Forest Grove, was in town Friday, and while here looked over the town.

Wanted: A girl for general housework. Apply to S. L. Barnes, Ladd & Reed Farm, Reedville, Oregon.

H. M. Basford, who recently purchased the Cornelius Brown place, southeast of Newton, was in town Saturday.

The big bridge will doubtless be finished by the middle of September.

There is going to be some trouble between Brother Edward Harriman and the city dads unless the gentleman from New York puts back that spur at Shute Park. The roadmaster had the spur taken up a few days ago, and later put back some of the rails, but replaced only a short piece of track. This isn't satisfactory to the council and mayor, and Mr. Edward will have to come through or put up $350 in Uncle Sam's coin.

Herman Matthes, who for ten years has been running an engine in a logging camp on the Columbia, was up from Clatskanie, this week, and says that times are the best on the river for all that period. He has been spending the week with relatives at Laurel.

Fred Schoen Jr., who lives south of Cornelius, was in town Saturday. Fred is the father of a fine daughter, born to his wife, June 18.

Henry Kemna, of Blooming, was in town Saturday. He says crops look fairly well out that way.

POMPEIAN MASSAGE CREAM

Your skin may look clean after washing—until you see the left-in dirt that of the pores

Just as this paper is white until it is compared with something whiter, so your skin may look clean until you try a Pompeian Massage and see the left-in dirt that it brings out.

You have been washing with soap and water but still the dirt remained. You thought your skin was clean, but wondered why it was sallow and why the wrinkles grew more in evidence every year.

Pompeian Massage Cream gently rubbed in and then as gently rubbed out will bring with it the dirt that soap has never touched, nourishes the skin, puts rosy blood in the cheeks,—lets nature do its perfect work.

All good barbers apply Pompeian Massage Cream—it is a great relief after shaving and tends to make the skin stronger and less sensitive.

Ladies appreciate Pompeian Massage Cream because it stimulates the circulation and gives a bright, clear complexion.

Come in for free sample and copy of the famous booklet "A Treatise on Facial Massage."

Pompeian Cream is sold at 50c and $1.00 per jar.
