About a hundred numbers were sold at the dance floor at the Shute Park, Saturday evening.

Second hand Walter A. Wood mower, for sale, cheap.—Theo. Nissen, Farmington, Oregon.

Chas. Matthee, of near Laurel, was in town, Saturday, accompanied by his wife and children.

For a good smoke try the Schiller or Excellence—and you will try them again and again.

Born at Roseland Farm, southeast of Hillsboro, June 28, 1907, to Fred D. Adams and wife, a daughter.

Walter and William Beard, of above Banks, and Robt. Simpson, of Buxton, were in the city Monday.

For sale or lease: Warehouse and flour mill known as Hillsboro Mills—John Milne, Hillsboro, Oregon.

J. B. McPherson, of the Forest Grove hop grower, was down to the county seat, greeting friends, Saturday.

J. W. Marsh, who has spent nearly sixty fourths of July in Oregon, was in from Centerville, Saturday.

The condenser has its new ware house all enclosed, and the building adds materially to the appearance of the plant.

Peter Nelson, of West Union, who is engaged in hopgrowing as well as ranching, was in the city Saturday afternoon.

Smokers like the Schiller and the Excellence. These cigars are of the best stock. You can't fool an authority on a good cigar.

C. S. Reynolds, the Mountaineer merchant, and J. J. Schlicht, of that section, were in town Monday, enroute for Portland.

Ed. Wann is handling the peace affairs at the Shute Park, this week, having been sworn in as marshal for the celebration.

Cedar shingles and cedar hop poles and cedar fence posts for sale in small or car load lots, if desired. Hannan & Son, Buxton.

C. W. Thrapp, manager of the Reedville Ray hop farm of 100 acres, was in the city Saturday, and made the Argus office a call.

Deputy Sheriff Kane ran across a red fox Saturday, above Dilley, near the Dethlefs school house. These animals are very scarce in this section.

W. J. Benson, the machinist, and who has been working at the Forest Grove condenser for some weeks, was in town Monday morning, for a few hours.

Prof. Miller, the balloonist, arrived in the city Saturday. Mr. Miller has made the best ascensions ever made in this section, and he has many admirers here.

New 3 1/2 inch Burchell wagon, used four months, for sale, by P. A. Batchelar, Hillsboro Route 2, just east of this city. Will also sell set double work harness.

Sobolls and Laurel came in Sunday with a baseball team and beat the Hillsboro nine by a score of 6 to 3. Forest Grove beat the Verboort nine by a score of nine to two.

Theoman Anderson, aged 18, and a native of Denmark, died at Forest Grove, Friday night, from an attack of diphtheria. He came from Denmark about three weeks ago.

Wm. Iogram, who has lived in Washington County for fifty four years, was up from Farmington, Saturday, and says he never in all these years saw a better crop prospect.

For sale: Ten room house in good repair; barn; orchard; 2 lots in tract; one block from school house; 3 blocks from railway. Goes for $2,000; $1,200 down, balance on time. Inquire of Argus.

Earl Ringle and Ray Emmott, who left here last Spring to become vacqueros, and went east of Eugene, are here to spend the Fourth of July. The boys did finely down there and may go back.

Watkins' stock and poultry foods and Watkins' remedies are what farmers and dairymen should use for best success.—Z. M. LaRue, agent, 404 Pacific Avenue, Forest Grove, Ore., Pacific Phone 294.

Elmer Mays, the Glencoe merchant, of Mays Bros., was in Friday evening, and says that all his town needs is a railroad to make it one of the best points in the county. Glencoe is situated five miles north of the county seat.

For sale or exchange: Cigar and fruit stand, good established location, in city of Portland; will trade for city or country property in Washington County. A good, paying business.—Inquire of Kussell Bros.

F. T. Kane, deputy sheriff, went to Cedar Mill, Friday, and attached the Union Lumber Co.'s mill on a judgment from Multnomah County, for Averill & Co. The claim is somewhere in the neighborhood of a thousand dollars, but as the mill has large contracts ahead, and an up-to-date plant, they will settle the attachment at once. It is understood there is some dispute over some machinery that would not make good.

Felix McHargue, the nine year son of J. D. McHargue, working on the P. R. & N. above Buxton, was kicked by a colt last Thursday, and the hoof of the animal nearly severed the lad's nose from his face. The little chap was carrying water when the accident happened. Dr. F. J. Bailey, surgeon for the road, dressed the wound.

Argus readers are requested to look up the display advertisements of the Forest Grove National Bank and John E. Bailey, of Forest Grove. These two institutions have looked up the standing of the Argus as an advertising medium and found it to be second to none in the territory they seek to reach.

J. B. McNew, of below Reedville, was in Monday, and to show what forty hens will do in six months, submits the following: Gross cash received, $69.02; cash paid for feed, $15.70; net profit, $53.32. Just imagine what a nice little income a man would have from a thousand chickens, doing as well as this flock!

Notice to hop pickers: Those wishing to pick hops on the Reedville hop farm, 100 acres, one half mile northeast of Reedville, and owned by A. J. Ray, will please register at once, either in person or by mail. Good accommodations can take care of entire families.—C. W. Thrapp, Manager.

John Kamra, of Farmington, was in town Saturday. Mr. Kamra has 70 acres of fine timothy, which stands as high as the top board of the fence, and which will go four tons to the acre. That's going some and when John gets the ranch in little better shape he can get a trade with the Argus.

E. E. Lytle and his associates are planning to make a big Summer resort over at Tillamook, and their scheme involves the expenditure of thousands of dollars. The coast line will be the closest of any to Portland and the trip will be made in from two and one-half to three hours.

The Pacific States' Central is this week putting in its central in the Greear Brick, on Second Street, in the quarters formerly used as a restaurant. It is stated that the company will hereafter operate the Hillsboro central with a company man.

The Hillsboro Lumber Co. has received its gang edger, and it will be installed in course of a few days. This will mean a bigger output for the plant, but the company could not fill the orders it could get if it had a mill ten times its present capacity.

Lost: Small black mare, with three white feet and white streak in forehead and on nose; branded "A" on shoulder. Liberal reward. Write or phone McCormick Bros., Laurel, Ore. Independent Phone.

Clarence Young and wife, of Rainier, are here, spending the Fourth with relatives. Mr. Young goes from here to Kernville, Lincoln County, on the Siletz, where he has a timber claim on which he has five million feet of yellow fir.

Farmers wanting good, heavy, serviceable hay racks, 15 and 16 feet in length, can get them ready made at the Wm. Fugy blacksmith shop at Phillips. Cheaper than you can make them yourself. Painted, 2 coats.

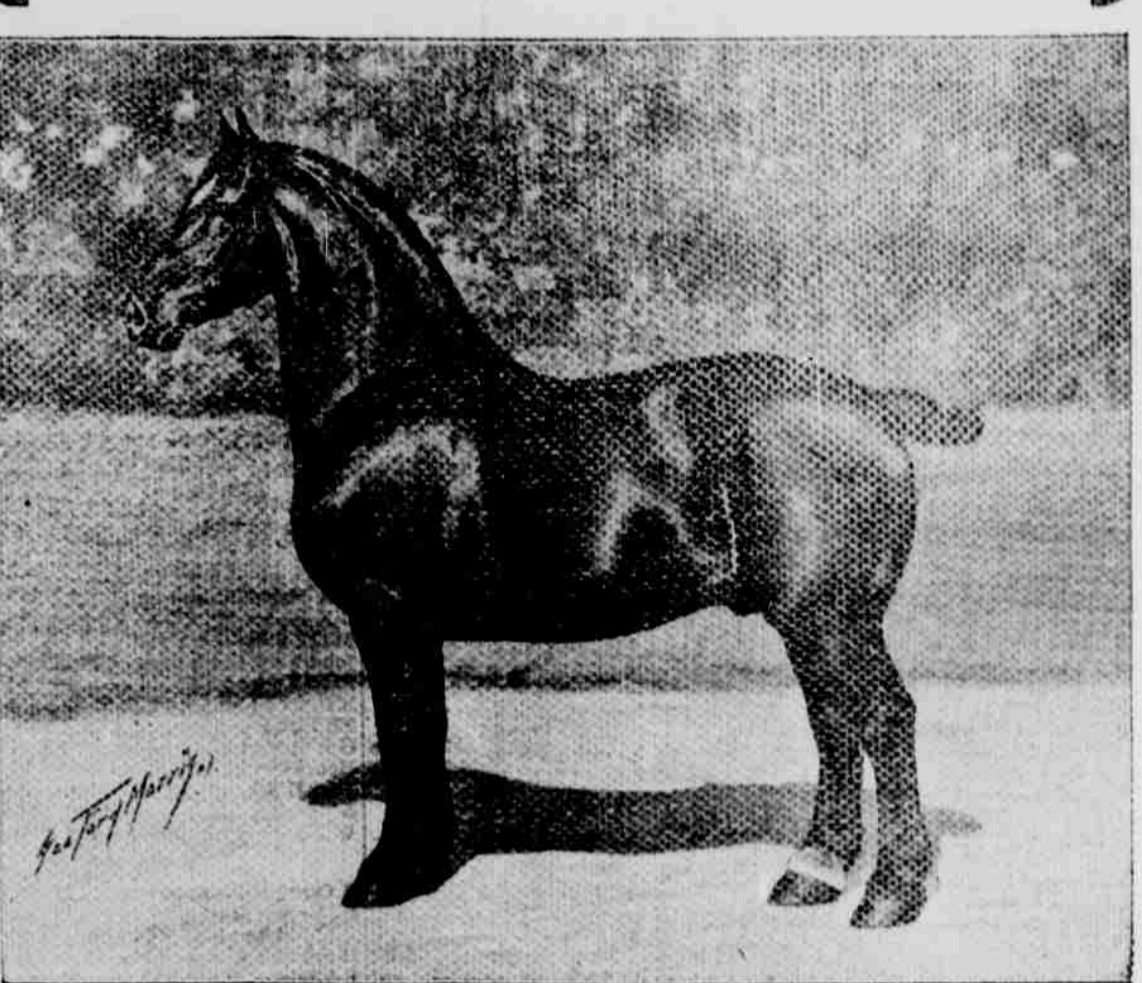

John Fischer, who owns the Ulrich Haes' place, near West Union, was in town Monday. Mr. Fischer thinks Washington County is all right, and he says he thinks he will soon induce some more Idaho people to come down here and settle.

We have ordered a car load of wire fence direct from the factory. We can save you five per cent. on same if ordered immediately.—Schulmerlich Bros.

Take Home the Best. When it comes to staples one cannot afford to buy poor stuff. The health is the main thing to consider. You are not considering it when you buy second and third qualities. Purchase the best procurable, but that does not mean that you must pay ridiculously high prices. Compare our goods with those sold elsewhere at higher prices. Then you'll come back here and stay with us, because you will know that our goods are superior, if not cheaper.

The advantages of this Association in comparison with others of a similar character are:

1. We insure NOT IN THE CITIES, and can, therefore, not be affected by large conflagrations.
2. We insure ONLY THE BEST FARM BUILDINGS, a pass by old shacks and houses with steeply pitched roofs.
3. Our assessments can only be used TO PAY LOSSES and not for expenses.
4. We insure NO BUSINESS PROPERTY, no stores, no factories, no saloons, no hog houses or fruit driers.
5. We take care NOT TO OVER-INSURE, sticking to the "two-thirds" clause of the policy.
6. Our meetings are held in the City of Portland, the business center of the state, where members CAN EASILY ATTEND and keep the institution UNDER CONTROL, so that it SHALL NEVER BECOME A GRANT OF A LAW.

Agents in Washington County are:

1. H. C. PEABODY, Cornelius, Ore., R. P. D. No. 2.
2. W. J. R. BRADY, Forest Grove, Ore.
