

JUNE COUNTY CLAIMS ARE VERY LARGE

Court Convenes Friday; Adjourns Saturday

BIG DOCKET FOR THE MONTH

Warehouse Men Taking out Licenses, and Giving Bonds

The June term of County Court was a business session from the word 'go' and the court did not adjourn until Saturday night. Aside from what was published last week, the following was transacted:

Work of Clyde Lincoln, on Holcomb bridge, accepted; also Glencoe, Jones, Reeves, Pollock and Olson bridge repairs accepted.

Recorder's receipts approved at $409.90 for June; clerk, receipts for June, $166.25.

Coroner's report on death of G. W. Oda, who died on train near Dilley, approved, also approve report of death of John Likas.

State vs Emerson, larceny case; transcript allowed.

J. B. Inlay, Reedville; Geo. A. Brown, Hillsboro; Geo. R. Bagley, Dudley Mill; C. B. Buchanan, Cornelius, all granted warehouse licenses.

Peter Schnurr granted $3.40 rebate, double taxation.

E. B. Tongue et als refunded costs, penalties and interests upon payment of tax on small tract.

State vs D. E. Robinson, who pleaded guilty to assaulting Jay Kubn; transcripts allowed.

Petition of J. W. Haines et al to establish road, granted, and same to be laid as per petition, at expense of petitioner.

J. W. Sewell, John Borwick and A. A. Morrill appointed to view and survey the road as per petition of C. True, et als, and to meet at home of C. True, July 17.

Petition Thos. W. Sain et als for road was denied.

Chris Christensen appointed an inspector of District No. 22.

Further claims allowed:

Table listing names and amounts for various claims and judgments, including J. H. Dickson, L. Holtz, C. E. Shorey, etc.

A. E. Devere sues E. Devere for divorce. Plaintiff alleges they were married in 1887, and says that in 1895 defendant struck plaintiff with a large plow file, and in 1904 also made an assault with fists, causing defendant, who was recovering from an illness, to relapse. Plaintiff also charges defendant with taking and keeping a business letter, and of trying to plaintiff's business. This complaint reads as though the defendant was a mean husband—but the situation is reversed. The plaintiff is A. E. Devere, and the defendant is Emaline Devere, his wife. Here is your strenuous life for you, and the unfortunate man should have a decree if his complaint is true. Lotus Langley is attorney for the plaintiff.

Mrs. E. L. McCormick visited with her parents at Forest Grove, the first of the week.

Andrew Stewart, who works for Zina Wood, at the hop farm, tells of a nocturnal experience which happened to him the other night, which meant a peeled nose. He dreamed that he was walking down from the McManville grand stand at the ball grounds, and the first thing he knew he landed at the bottom of the stairs, having walked in his sleep. He has now sworn off attending ball games.

Something new: Mexican drawn work, on sewing machine; 30 beautiful designs, suitable for fancy shirtwaists, pillow tops, underwear, centerpieces, etc., on anything from finest Indian linen to Butcher's linen; learned in one to three lessons. $1 per lesson. Call and see samples. Mrs. J. J. Hill, 2nd & Railroad Streets. Also dress making and family sewing. Satisfaction guaranteed.

H. T. Latham and wife, and John Dobbins, conductor on the Southern Pacific, accompanied by his wife and Roy Latham, were in the city on the Fourth. Mr. Latham will soon go to Sheridan to operate a flour mill. Dobbins is one of the Southern Pacific's popular freight conductors, and occasionally makes a passenger run on the West Side.

Lost on celebration grounds, Hillsboro, on Fourth: Hand stitched, leather, containing pair of glasses, and small sum of money. Return to Argus office and receive liberal reward. Glasses are of value to owner—Fred Bulling, Laurel, Ore.

One lone juror, talesman for the March term, was at the court house, Monday, awaiting the coming of Judge T. A. McBride, who held him in case of a jury trial. The court did not arrive and Mr. Root still held his commission.

Edmond Cornelius has taken charge of the R. L. Cate real estate office in this city. Mr. Cornelius knows the country in this vicinity as well as any of the old timers, and he should be able to do some business for his employer.

For sale: Holstein bull, practically thoroughbred, coming 3 years old. Fine for breeding purposes—John Schneider, Hillsboro R. 4, residing one mile west of Phillips. Phone, Pacific States, Hillsboro, 49x3.

Mrs. W. J. Wall and son, Earl, arrived last week from Los Mochis, Sinaloa province, Mexico, where Mr. Wall has been engaged in business for the past two years. He expects to follow in a very short time.

Speaking of groceries—if you want the finest staple and fancy groceries to be found in the market, try John Dennis. He is after your trade, and once a customer, always a customer.

Robert Rice, well known in and around Glencoe, was in town the last of the week, meeting with his Washington County friends. He is at present located at Elma, Washington, in a logging district.

Hop pickers wanted for 50 acre yard. Good accommodations. Please register now.—S. L. Barnes, Ladd & Reed Farm, Reedville, Oregon.

F. M. Roberts, a Seattle attorney, was in town the first of the week, on legal business with the firm of Bagley & Hare.

A. H. Garrison, who is enjoying a furlough from the Roseburg Soldiers' Home, was in town the last of the week.

Wanted: Teams to haul lumber by the thousand from mill—Union Lumber Co., two miles north of Cedar Mill.

Wm. Royer, of Albion, and who is working on the P. R. & N. right of way above Baxton, was in town Monday.

Fresh milk cows for sale.—D. P. Corrieri, Hillsboro, Route 2, near Kelay ranch, 1 1/2 miles southeast of city.

Banks and Verboort played ball at Banks, Sunday, the score being in favor of the Banks' team.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Young returned Sunday evening, from a trip above Mount Hood.

Harvey Northrup, of Shady Brook, will spend the Summer over in Tillamook.

H. M. Pitman, of Yamhill county, was in town Monday, on probate business.

Born, to W. E. McCallum and wife, of near Reedville, July 8, 1907, a son.

Born, to T. M. Kerr and wife, of Hillsboro, July 8, 1907, a son.

Hon. Bruce Huston was out Tuesday, on legal business.

Geo. Zeteman, of beyond Leisyville, was in town Monday.

Lewis Creps Sr., of Banks, was in town Saturday.

Fred Mast, of Mountandale, was in town Friday.

CELEBRATION WAS A GLORIOUS SUCCESS

Crowd Estimated From Eight to Ten Thousand

NOT A SINGLE ARREST ALL DAY

Immense Throng Well Pleased With the Great Demonstration

Hillsboro's celebration on the Fourth was unquestionably the greatest ever witnessed in Washington County, both from the standpoint of ground; of immensity of throng, the visitors at Shute Park being estimated at from eight to ten thousand; fine attractions, and, in fact, everything that goes to make the eagle scream. The parade formed at about ten o'clock, Miss Midge Imbris being the Goddess. The states were represented by little girls, and their conveyance was drawn by a traction engine, driven by Ferd Hertrampf.

Mr. Durs was the representative of Uncle Sam, and his float carried a delegation of boys competing with the number on the Girls' float. Upon reaching the grounds Hon. B. B. Beckman, of Portland, delivered one of the finest addresses ever heard in Hillsboro. R. F. Peters read the Declaration of Independence.

The parade was led to the grounds by J. C. Lanekin, who carried Old Glory.

The afternoon exercises were opened by a base ball game between Cornelius and Banks, the Banks team winning by a score of 11 to 2. It was a good game, and the Banks' boys walked away with the prize money. The line up of the two teams was:

Table listing baseball team lineups for Banks and Cornelius, including players like E. Saunders, M. Krats, and J. L. Ballcock.

The balloon ascension was absolutely the finest ever witnessed in Hillsboro. The balloonist shot up over a half mile—possibly 4,000 feet then dropped with his parachute. He landed in an open space on the grounds, within 300 yards from where he started.

The contests were won as follows:

- Pony race, open—Willie Cornelius, First, Oregon Lady, G. Smith, Trixie, second. D. C. Sain's Yakima, distanced. Buggy race, free for all—C. F. Wilson, G. Creek, "Maud," 1st. D. B. Emrick, Scholls, 2nd. Saddle horse, free for all—J. W. Macrum, Sports, 1st. W. Cornelius, Oregon Lady, 2nd. C. H. Wolschlegel, "Duck," distanced. C. H. Olson, Chief, distanced.

Foot race, 100 yd dash—Roy Heater, 1st. Walter Robbins, 2nd. James Broderick, 3rd. Harry Batchelor, 4th. Greased pig—caught by Ray Taylor. Sold pig for $4. Bucking horse contest; Ed. Morrill and Harry Emrick, contestants, first money given to Harry Emrick.

FINE LOT OF BOYS

The Newberg boys constituting the Rowland band, which played here on the third and Fourth, are a fine lot of lads, and their visit to Hillsboro is appreciated highly. Their suits were green, trimmed in white, and they have the musical game down to a science. They came over without charge, just to see how we do things over here in Washington County. One of the boys, Ben Evans, is a son of Eli Evans, who formerly resided near Kinton, this county. The players are:

- Earl Rowland, cornet, leader. Granville Everest, cornet. Theo. Cummings, cornet. Everett Hayescock, clarinet. Sam Collins, clarinet. Ora Macy, alto. Ben Evans, (formerly of Kinton), alto. Arthur Hodson, base. John McDonald, base. Clarence Coe, trombone. Robert Patterson, trombone. Harry Patterson, base drum. Frank Haskins, snare drum. Marion Rowland, trombone.

John Boeker and wife spent Sunday at Greenville and Banks.

W. H. Lyda's team ran away in Forest Grove, and passed through Cornelius with the running gears, and collided with no teams. On the long bridge the runaway team encountered a binder, with no damage. This side of the bridge the team met Thos. Bailey, who was out with one of his horses, and he rode at their heads and caught them, stopping them finally, just as they reached the city limits. The horses might have injured some one in passing through the county seat, and Thos.' action entitles him to the Carnegie medal.

Argus and Oregonian, $2. Fred Bulling, of Laurel, was in town Saturday.

Leavitt Birdsell was in town the last of the week.

Peter Vandshey, of Verboort, was in town Monday.

Eli Pee, of Cornelius, was down Monday, getting a hunting license.

H. Taylor Hill was in from his Mountandale ranch, Monday afternoon.

David Rice, for years a nurse at the Roseburg Soldiers' Home, was in the city on the Fourth.

Wm. Jackson and wife, of Portland, spent Sunday with County Treasurer Jackson and wife.

Ira E. Watson, of Portland, and formerly of Forest Grove, was out to the city the last of the week.

Moses Dillaboy, who has been on the sick list for some weeks, was in town Friday, greeting his many friends.

Wanted: A girl for general household work. Apply to S. L. Barnes, Ladd & Reed Farm, Reedville, Oregon.

M. J. Mauldoo and wife left for The Dalles the last of the week. They will make that city their future home.

Gents' and boys' clothing, fall line now in—Kuh, Nathan & Fischer Sincerity make—at H. Wehrung & Sons.

Mrs. T. C. Wadsworth, of Portland, was a visitor in Hillsboro the first of the week, a guest of Dr. J. E. Adkins, who is her father.

E. W. Dant, who has been threshing for some 38 years, missing but one season, was up from Reedville, Friday, on business.

Farmers of Farmington and vicinity can weigh their horses, hay, or heavy loads, at the John Kamna place, at popular prices.

Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Brown were out Friday and Saturday, guests of Mrs. Susie Brown, Mrs. Susie Morgan and John Brown and wife.

Ed. Groat, aged about 38 years, and a son of E. J. Groat, of below Scholla, came up from California a few days ago, to visit his father, bringing his wife and child along.

On the Fourth they were all at the A. W. Barber home, in East Hillsboro, adjoining the celebration grounds. They were about to hitch up the team to go home, when the visitor was hurt by one of the horses, the animal kicking him and breaking his nose, besides fracturing the skull just above the eyebrow, breaking in the outer wall. Dr. A. B. Bailey, who was at Shute Park, first waited on the injured man and remained with him until the Groat family physician, Dr. Linklater, arrived at the Barber home. He is getting along nicely, and will recover. Ten years ago Mr. Groat was kicked in the stomach by a horse, and Dr. Linklater then attended him.

Don't forget the big dance at the Celebration grounds, on Saturday evening, July 13. Everybody invited. Tickets, $1. This will be the last dance until after the harvest season.

All the big threshers of Washington County are this year raising the price to 2 1/2 cents per bushel, the charge formerly having been 2 cents. The increase in the cost of oils, labor, and all expenses attendant on threshing, has caused them to make the raise, and otherwise they would operate at a loss. The smaller threshers will doubtless also make the same charge. With poor crops even when labor and material were low the threshers hardly made enough to pay them for going out, and they think they are entitled to something for their investment, as well as their labor.

The big threshermen have met and talked the situation over, and have agreed to do business at some profit, at least.

A visit to the Chehalis Mountain section, southwest of this city, Sunday, disclosed a view of the finest farm section in the county. The grain looks fine all over the hills, and there is not a poor crop on the mountain. Bald Peak was the objective point, and from the top you can see Washington, Tillamook, Yamhill, Multnomah, Polk, Clackamas, Marion and Linn counties. Many cities are seen in the valley below, notably Salem, McMinnville, North Yamhill, Carlton, and many others. Those who spent the day Sunday on the summit were: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schulmerich, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Long, of the Argus; Misses Etta Schulmerich, Jessie Donelson, Hillsboro and Hattie Krieger, Forest Grove, and Messrs. Fred Sewell, John Humphreys and George Stevens, Hillsboro. If the Argus happens to be under standard this week, just lay it to a sears experienced by the reporter, who drove the gray outlaw, ridden by Harry Emrick, on the Fourth, in the bucking contest. This wasn't known until after he had returned from the mountain, and he has had the shivers ever since.

Mr. Alfred Brugger, of Lents, Oregon, and Miss Martha Wagner, of Hillsboro, were united in marriage at Portland, July 3, 1907. Rev. Krause, German Lutheran minister, officiating. The groom is proprietor of a bakery and confectionery at Lents, on the Mt. Scott line, and is an industrious and highly respected business man of his vicinity. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Wagner, who reside on Third Street, Hillsboro, between Baseline and Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. Brugger were in the city Sunday, and the wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride. Mrs. Brugger has lived in Hillsboro for many years, and her many friends wish her every happiness. They will reside at Lents.

WILKES—MAXFIELD

Mr. Marion Wilkes, formerly of Hillsboro, and Miss Florence Maxfield, of Corvallis, were united in marriage at Corvallis, Benton County, July 3, 1907, and departed July 4 for the Blue Ledge mine, near Jacksonville, where the groom has a position as civil engineer and assayer, for an extensive copper mining company. The groom is a son of T. S. Wilkes, ex-county surveyor of Washington County, and who has been in Arizona and Colorado for several years.

Argus and Journal, $1.75. Elmer Miller, of Shady Brook, and who is working for the Pence Company, returned Tuesday from a trip to Goldendale, Wash., where he visited with Jas. Bowie, formerly of this section, and took in the Fourth of July celebration. Mr. Miller says that grain looks fine up that way, and there is prospect of a bumper crop. He thinks Goldendale will improve wonderfully the next few years.

SIX THOUSAND DOLLAR SUIT FILED MONDAY

Chas. Bernards Alleges That Widow Has His Money

RELICT CLAIMS MONEY IS HERS

Peculiar Case is Filed in Local Circuit Court

July 31, 1906, Frank Bernards, of Portland, and formerly of near Cedar Mill, died in Multnomah County, leaving a widow, there being no children. A will was subsequently found, making Chas. Bernards the legatee. The will was admitted to probate, and Chas. Bernards the executor. Chas. Bernards filed a suit Monday, in the circuit court, alleging that after his brother's death Mrs. Ann Bernards, the widow, entered his house and took possession of a large sum of money, the amount of which was about $6,000, which said money, he avers, belongs to the estate. He asks for a verdict turning over the money, and for interest at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum. The suit was filed pursuant to an order made by Probate Judge Goodin.

Mrs. Ann Bernards, it is said, puts up the claim that the husband intended to give her the money; that he did give it to her; and told her where she would find it in the basement of the house, where he had hidden it prior to his last illness. Chas. Bernards, the plaintiff, is well known in the Cedar Mill section as one of the substantial capitalists of that neighborhood. E. B. Tongue is attorney for the executor.

MAN BADLY KICKED

Ed. Groat, aged about 38 years, and a son of E. J. Groat, of below Scholla, came up from California a few days ago, to visit his father, bringing his wife and child along. On the Fourth they were all at the A. W. Barber home, in East Hillsboro, adjoining the celebration grounds. They were about to hitch up the team to go home, when the visitor was hurt by one of the horses, the animal kicking him and breaking his nose, besides fracturing the skull just above the eyebrow, breaking in the outer wall.

Dr. A. B. Bailey, who was at Shute Park, first waited on the injured man and remained with him until the Groat family physician, Dr. Linklater, arrived at the Barber home. He is getting along nicely, and will recover. Ten years ago Mr. Groat was kicked in the stomach by a horse, and Dr. Linklater then attended him.

Don't forget the big dance at the Celebration grounds, on Saturday evening, July 13. Everybody invited. Tickets, $1. This will be the last dance until after the harvest season.

All the big threshers of Washington County are this year raising the price to 2 1/2 cents per bushel, the charge formerly having been 2 cents. The increase in the cost of oils, labor, and all expenses attendant on threshing, has caused them to make the raise, and otherwise they would operate at a loss. The smaller threshers will doubtless also make the same charge. With poor crops even when labor and material were low the threshers hardly made enough to pay them for going out, and they think they are entitled to something for their investment, as well as their labor.

The big threshermen have met and talked the situation over, and have agreed to do business at some profit, at least.

A visit to the Chehalis Mountain section, southwest of this city, Sunday, disclosed a view of the finest farm section in the county. The grain looks fine all over the hills, and there is not a poor crop on the mountain. Bald Peak was the objective point, and from the top you can see Washington, Tillamook, Yamhill, Multnomah, Polk, Clackamas, Marion and Linn counties. Many cities are seen in the valley below, notably Salem, McMinnville, North Yamhill, Carlton, and many others. Those who spent the day Sunday on the summit were: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schulmerich, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Long, of the Argus; Misses Etta Schulmerich, Jessie Donelson, Hillsboro and Hattie Krieger, Forest Grove, and Messrs. Fred Sewell, John Humphreys and George Stevens, Hillsboro. If the Argus happens to be under standard this week, just lay it to a sears experienced by the reporter, who drove the gray outlaw, ridden by Harry Emrick, on the Fourth, in the bucking contest. This wasn't known until after he had returned from the mountain, and he has had the shivers ever since.

POMPEIAN MASSAGE CREAM advertisement featuring an illustration of a man and a woman, with text describing the benefits of the cream for skin care.

THE FOREST GROVE NATIONAL BANK advertisement, highlighting its directorate and banking services in Forest Grove, Oregon.

Bailey's Big Store advertisement, promoting SELZ' Shoes and various goods, located in Forest Grove, Oregon.

A Clear Head! advertisement for Iron-Tone medicine, claiming benefits for digestion, sleep, and appetite.

The Delta Drug Store advertisement, offering a complete line of drugs and medicines in Hillsboro, Oregon.