

"I have seen many sections of the United States in the past few years," said Thos. Wilkes, the other day, "but Northwestern Oregon has all of them beaten when it comes to natural resources. If Oregon, particularly Western Oregon, would spend the money that other sections of the West must spend in order to beautify, it would be the most glorious of them all. Right here is the trouble. We do not have to spend money here for outward appearances in order to attract tourists, and the home-comer is coming without it. At the same time, when we fully appreciate what we have in natural beauty we will not be so careless about external appearances."

Notice to hop pickers: Those wishing to pick hops on the Reedville hop farm, 100 acres, one half mile northeast of Reedville, and owned by A. J. Ray, will please register at once, either in person or by mail. Good accommodations can take care of entire families.—C. W. Thrapp, Manager.

D. B. Reasoner and family leave Friday for the Haines' dam on the upper Tualatin, above Lee Falls. They expect to be in there for several months, and while there Mr. Reasoner will put in repairs on the dam, so that it will be a fine reservoir. He takes with him Ray Reasoner, El Craig, Dan Binkley, Wm. Finney, R. Lockwood and two other helpers. They will be right up in the heart of the game country and venison steak will not be a rarity on the bill of fare.

Lost: Small black mare, with three white feet and white streak in forehead and on nose; branded "A" on shoulder. Liberal reward. Write or phone McCormick Bros., Laurel, Ore. Independent Phone.

"Aunt Angelina" Catching, of Portland, and well known to all the pioneers of Washington County, having crossed the plains to Oregon in 1845, is in the city, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Richard Baldr, who resides on Baseline, just south of the Christian Church. She will remain here several days, and will meet many of her pioneer friends.

Farmers wanting good, heavy, serviceable hay racks, 15 and 16 feet in length, can get them ready made at the Wm. Fugy blacksmith shop at Phillips. Cheaper than you can make them yourself. Painted, 2 coats.

Miss Agnes Jasper, of Verboort, and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Casper Jasper, died Sunday after a short illness. Miss Jasper was born in Brown county, Wis., in 1874, and came to Oregon at the age of fourteen months. John and Walter, brothers of Puget Sound, were in attendance at the funeral, which was held under the auspices of the Fidelity Association.

Smokers like the Schiller and the Excellencia. These cigars are of the best stock. You can't fool an authority on a good cigar.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bailey and son, Paul, and Miss Eva Bailey departed Tuesday for a week at Long Beach.

Don't forget the dance at Shute Park, Saturday night, July 13. Walkers' orchestra—the best of dance music, and a royal good time guaranteed.

T. Hutchins, working in the sawmill at Buxton, had two fingers of his right hand considerably lacerated by getting them in contact with the saw, the other day. Dr. F. A. Bailey dressed his wounds.

Jack Wright, of Forest Grove, was in town Monday. He states that he soon made short work in selling the thirty head of "bunch-grassers," which he took over to the bay country.

New 34 inch Burchell wagon, used four months, for sale, by P. A. Batchelor, Hillsboro Route 2, just east of this city. Will also sell set double work harness.

With concrete walks around the court house square, and plenty of water on the lawn Hillsboro would have one of the finest county seat properties in the Northwest. We've got the raw material—all it wants is a little expenditure.

There will be a meeting at the Baptist church in Hillsboro, at 3:00 p. m., Sunday, under the auspices of the German congregation. Rev. A. Becker, of the German Baptist Church, Bethany, will occupy the pulpit, and will deliver his sermon in German.

Dr. W. D. Wood is moving his wooden buildings from his Main Street property, next to the Shute bank. One of the structures has been moved to the rear for a warehouse, and the other goes to one of the Dr.'s lots, west of his brick office, between Second & First Streets, close to the Crescent Theatre.

The barn of Wm. Crowther, residing on Gates Creek, eight miles from Forest Grove, burned last Saturday, the blaze catching from fire-crackers set by the children. The father was absent from home at the time. Mr. Crowther's wife died several months ago, and the children were alone. The loss is about $1,000, and there was no insurance.

Cedar shingles and cedar hop poles and cedar fence posts for sale in small or car load lots, if desired. Hannan & Son, Buxton.

The city of Cornelius, which has no debt, and which has money in the treasury, is again on the map of importance. On July 1 the cow of Wm. Walton gave birth to a calf. The little fellow died, and the old cow was not to be consoled. No one brought her a calf, however, and so Sunday, July 7, she just up and gave birth to another chap, which is alive and doing well—thank you.

Every Washington County man who has followed the horse racing in the Northwest for some years will hear of the death of Wm. Ayers, the book-maker, with more or less regret. "Billy" Ayers was a feature here in this county, when old Hillsboro was giving the best fairs held at that time in the Northwest, and when the late Robt. Imbrie was the chief factor and executive in seeing that our best products and livestock gladdened the eyes of the visitors.

This summons is served upon you by publication by order of Hon. J. W. Goodin, County Judge of Washington County, Oregon, made and dated on the 28th day of May, 1907, which order requires that you appear and answer on or before the expiration of six (6) weeks from the date of the first publication thereof, to-wit: on or before July 11th, 1907.

HARLEY AHARE, Attorney for Plaintiff.

We have ordered a car load of wire fence direct from the factory. We can save you five per cent. on same if ordered immediately.—Schulmerich Bros.

F. Brampton, of Hilledale, was in town Tuesday morning.

Take Home the Best. When it comes to establish one cannot afford to buy poor stuff. The health is the main thing to consider. You are not considering it when you buy second and third quality. Purchase the best procurable, but that does not mean that you must pay ridiculously high prices. Compare our goods with those sold elsewhere at higher prices. Then you'll come back here and stay with us, because you will know that our goods are superior, if not better.

The advantages of this Association in comparison with others of a similar character are:

- 1. We insure NOT IN THE CITY, and can, therefore, not be affected by large conflagrations.
2. We insure ONLY THE BEST FARM BUILDINGS, and pass by all shacks and houses with steeply pitched roofs.
3. Our assessments can only be used TO PAY LOSSES and not for expenses.
4. We insure NO BUSINESS PROPERTY, no stores, no factories, no saloons, no bus depots or fruit depots.
5. We take care NOT TO OVER-INSURE, sticking to the "two-thirds" clause of the policy.
6. Our meetings are held in the City of Portland, the business center of the state, where members can readily attend and keep the insurance UNDER CONTROL, so that it shall NEVER BECOME A BURDEN OF FEAR.

Agents in Washington County are:

- 1. H. C. FRANKSON, Cornelius, Ore., R. F. D. No. 2.
2. W. J. R. BRADY, Forest Grove, Ore.

If you wish to join apply to the nearest agent or if there is no local agent in your vicinity, send your name and address to
