HILLSBORO, OREGON, JULY 18, 1907.

COME DOWN AND HELP HILLSBORO LOSE TEARS

Will Have a Regular old Time Crying Match in Future

NEITHER OFFICES NOR MONEY

Like Jeremiah, Will Don Sackcloth and Ashes

The Forest Grove papers—at least one of them—are doing considerable growling because the court does not spend lots of money on roads up that way. As a matter of fact Forest Grove has had more money spent in its vicinity by tenfold than Hillsboro has had, outside of that which comes from the regular road fund. The court has spent money on Gales Creek, leading into the Grove, and it has made many other appropriations that benefit Forest Grove, while Hillsboro, aside from the bridge which cover holes left by the Almighty, has had nothing outside of the regular road tax. What's the use of a newspaper making itself ridiculous over some proposition of which it knows nothing? The paper's fling about politics and votes is amusing in consideration of the fact that the college city has the highest office within the gift of the people of the county—the office of state senator—as well as the office of county surveyor. Clerk Godman was a Tigardville man; Sheriff Connell was a Glencoe man; Recorder Ireland is a Greenville man; Treasurer Jackson was a Dilley man; Judge Goodin was a Glencoe man; Supt. Case was formerly a Gales Creek and Forest Grove man, when elected to office; Cornelius has one commissioner and Beaverton has the other—Jehui! Isn't it time for Hillsboro to get in and weep because its citizens get neither offices nor road appropriations? Great Scott, we have something to cry about!

Card of Thanks

We desire to thank our many friends who so kindly tendered sympathy and help during our recent bereavement, the death and funeral obsequies of the late wife and mother, Mrs. Henrietta Barrett.

N. A. Barrett and children.
Portland, Oregon, July 16, 1907.

Claus Jeeze, of Banks, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. A. H. Spraner, of Beaverton, was in town Tuesday.

Julius Asbahr, of south of town, was over to the county seat Tuesday.

Adam Bail, the Centerville blacksmith, was in the city Tuesday evening.

Chief McLachlan, of the P. R. & N., was a Portland visitor yesterday.

Fresh milk cows for sale.—D. P. Corrieri, Hillsboro, Route 2, near Kelsey ranch, 14 miles southeast of city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lytle and daughter, Marian, leave the last of the week for an outing at Tillamook.

Louis Carstens, of Manning, and one of the old time sawmill men of that section, was in town Monday, accompanied by his wife.

Mrs. Pratt Vickers, wife of agent Vickers, of the S. P., and her mother, Mrs. Lund, of Cornelius, are spending the week at Gladstone Park.

Joe Williams and wife, of above Gaston, were in town Monday. Mr. Williams is one of the big hop growers of his district, and says the vine is looking fine up his way.

Dan Bailey, of Blooming, was in Monday, and reports his father, Calvin Bailey, who was critically ill for some time, as improving considerably.

Hop pickers are requested to register at the W. B. Jolly yard, 2 miles north and a half east of Hillsboro. Yard of 33 acres to pick, and yield heavy.—W. B. Jolly, grower.

H. B. Nicholas, a Portland attorney, was in town Monday, returning from a trip to the Nehalem. Mr. Nicholas says that Buxton is doing all kinds of business these days, owing to the money spent by the P. R. & N. Company.

Eugene Huntsinger and wife, of Tillamook, have sold their place over in the bay county, and arrived here Friday, to remain a month or so, and they may permanently locate this side of the mountains.

B. G. Leedy, ex-state master of the Oregon Grange, and who is still active in affairs of that institution, was up from Tigardville, Friday, and called on the Argus. Mr. Leedy says that crops are fine down his way, and that hay has come out wonderfully, considering the poor early prospects. He says that the Tigardville and Tualatin sections are looking up considerably since the Oregon Electric has been constructing their line.

For sale: Holstein bull, practically thoroughbred, coming 3 years old. Fine for breeding purposes.—John Schneider, Hillsboro R. 4, residing one mile west of Phillips. Phone, Pacific States, Hillsboro, 49x3.

Two or three people have tried to get a petition to run a saloon at Banks, but that growing place seems to have concluded that it wants no more of that business in the town. However, it is said that if a good saloon man would come along, and build up town, and away from the school house, he might stand a chance of getting a majority of the signatures in the precinct.

Cherries have been bounteous in yield this season, and they have attained wonderful growth in many instances. F. A. Haines, of this city, Saturday out a small bough of the "Bing" variety that was loaded with large fellows—and they were the finest of that variety seen this year. There were 40 fine cherries on three inches of bough, and that's going some.

J. M. Bridges, of west of town, Saturday brought to this office the hand-satchel and purse, containing an expensive pair of glasses, and several dollars in silver, lost on the Fourth by Mrs. Fred Bulling, of near Laurel. It pays to advertise when you live in an honest community. The Argus extends thanks to Mr. Bridges in behalf of the losers.

A. C. Shute and wife returned Tuesday evening from an extended trip East, making Jamestown, New York, and all large cities. The Hillsboro Band, of which Mr. Shute is a member, met them at the depot and tendered them a serenade. They report a fine trip.

David Dobie, of Portland, and who deals in timber lands, was in town from Portland, Sunday. He goes east in a few days, to sell Washington and Columbia county timber lands.

Oliver and Carl Huston, of Portland, and who are sons of S. B. Huston and wife, were out Monday. They will go to the Huston cottage in a few days, to spend a vacation at Nye Creek, on the Newport beach.

The hay crop has recovered itself as compared with prospects, and good clover hay in the field has been selling at $7 per ton, while timothy has been selling in a few places at $10 in the shock. Many, however, refuse to take $10 for first class timothy.

Forest Grove beat Banks, Sunday, by a score of 17 to 9 at baseball; Cornelius beat Scholls at a bigger tally, and Hillsboro beat Beaverton at a still larger one. Forest Grove plays Carlton, Sunday.

Speaking of groceries—if you want the finest staple and fancy groceries to be found in the market, try John Dennis. He is after your trade, and once a customer, always a customer.

Deputy John Wall and family are camping at Roderick Falls, above Forest Grove. Mr. Wall goes up in the evening and returns to his law offices in the morning.

For gentlemen's, ladies' and children's hose you can do no better than to buy of John Dennis. We have them for everybody, and at prices that are values.

H. T. Ratcliffe, of Kansas; Geo. Ratcliffe, of Walla Walla, Wash., and T. R. Ratcliffe, of Scholls, were in the city Tuesday, and called on the Argus office.

Fred Myers, of Chehalis Mountain, and R. S. Alexander, of Iowa Hill, were in town Tuesday morning.

C. R. Boyd, the old time sawmill man, and who is now running out beyond Phillips, was in town Tuesday.

Elmer Barrett, of East Portland, was in town Tuesday, and called on the Argus.

J. A. Kirkwood and Frank Weisenback were up from Reedville the last of the week.

Wm. Nelson, of the Nelson Hardware Co., was out the first of the week, on a deer hunt.

R. L. Banks and Dr. Burgess, of Banks, were in the county seat Tuesday.

Fred Cornelius was over on the Wilson this week, after deer.

AGITATION FOR A BIG STREET FAIR

Hillsboro's First Attempt was Grand Success

MAY HAVE ONE THIS FALL

B. P. Cornelius, Post Master, and Mayor Dennis Favor it

In all probability Hillsboro will have a street carnival this Fall, and there is considerable agitation on that subject just now. A few years ago Hillsboro gave a rousing street fair, and it was a decided success. There were exhibits of our varied industries, livestock, manufactured articles, etc., and what we did then we can now double in scope and quality. Together with the exhibit there will be a horse show, say those who wish to have an Autumn demonstration. It is suggested that the first week after hop picking be the time set.

Post Master B. P. Cornelius says: "We can have a street fair that can eclipse any that might be held in the Willamette Valley, for we have everything here but minerals—and we've got that if we go deep enough. By all means let us have a street fair. It will awaken public pride on our resources and productions, and stimulate people to raise better fruit, better grain, and better livestock. What's the use of keeping our light under a half bushel. Let us show the world what we can do, and show them right at home. Give us a street fair by all means."

Mayor Dennis: "Give us a street fair. We can beat the world from Jersey calves down to Logan berries. Let us have a good exhibit of what we can raise and a regular justification. We don't know ourselves, what we can produce here, until we 'show' others. I'm for the street fair."

Card of Thanks

We desire to thank those who so kindly assisted us during our recent bereavement, the death and funeral obsequies of the husband and father, the late Jacob W. Ratcliffe.

Mrs. G. A. Ratcliffe,
Geo. W. Ratcliffe,
H. T. Ratcliffe,
T. R. Ratcliffe,
Scholls, Ore., July 16, 1907.

The ten year old daughter of Fred Walter, while picking cherries last Thursday, at the home near Phillips, fell from the tree, fifteen feet, and struck her arm on a lard bucket which was tied to her waist. The tin cut a terrible wound at the elbow, and the bone was broken so that both ends protruded. The tin also cut into the elbow joint, making a very serious wound. The fracture was compound, and it may be that the arm will never again be as good as formerly. Dr. Tamiesie attended the fracture.

John Roberts, of above Gaston, was down to circuit court, Monday, and it took Judge McBride about two minutes to grant him a divorce from his wife, who deserted him last Spring, and went back to Eugene. Before the wife left him she told him that she only married him in order to get a home for the winter, and told him other disagreeable things. Roberts is a good natured, big fellow, but this was a little more than he could stand, and so he invoked the court for relief.

For sale: Driving mare, gentle, fine driver, not afraid of auto or cars, safe for woman to drive; top buggy, harness, and in good repair, for sale. Entire outfit goes at a bargain, for $200 cash.—S. J. White, at Mincemoyer place, 1 1/2 miles north of Reedville.

Some one is going to get in serious trouble if they do not refrain from buying liquor for minors. Both here and in other parts of the county there are some boys who drink, and they get the liquor through other parties than saloon men. Hillsboro saloon keepers are very careful about this proposition—that of giving liquor to minors—and if the deputy district attorney finds out who is giving youngsters beer and whiskey there will be prosecutions.

For sale or exchange: Cigar and fruit stand, good established location, in city of Portland; will trade for city or country property in Washington County. A good, paying business.—Inquire of Kuratli Bros.

Ben Henderson, of Henderson & Son, Cornelius thrasher and baler-man, was in town Tuesday.

We carry the best shoe on the market for the money. W. L. Douglas and Dr. Reed's famous cushion shoes for men. Leading makes for ladies. Latest styles and finish.—H. Wehrung & Sons

Argus and Oregonian, $2.
A. Anderson, of Helvetia, was in town Tuesday.

Peter Grossen, of beyond West Union, was in town Monday.

C. Rebe, of Farmington, was an Argus caller Tuesday morning.

Frank Bower and wife, of near Scholls, were county seat visitors, Monday evening.

Born, July 15, 1907, to Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Palmater, of this city, a son, weight eight pounds.

Dance at the platform, Shute Park, Saturday evening, July 27. Tickets, $1.00. Walkers' orchestra.

Julius Meyer, of above Greenview, was down to the city Monday, taking out full citizenship papers.

Wanted: A girl for general housework. Apply to S. L. Barnes, Ladd & Reed Farm, Reedville, Oregon.

J. J. Krebs and family, of Farmington, are over at Garibaldi, beyond Tillamook, for an outing at the beach.

Wanted: Teams to haul lumber by the thousand from mill.—Union Lumber Co., two miles north of Cedar Mill.

Geo. E. Payne has been appointed regular carrier on Route 2 out of Hillsboro, with Frank Lackey as substitute.

Al cedar shingles for sale in any quantity. Also cedar fence posts. C. S. Reynolds, Mountsdaile, Oregon, at store.

Dick Hundley, who's running a hopyard above Gaston, is down this week, helping out the home folks on North Plains.

Miss Ona Ford, who has been four years with the Wilkes Bros' Abstract Co., is taking a vacation at Carson Springs, Wash.

Henry Wehrung and wife and Miss Eva Catching and Miss Alice Wehrung went to the Wehrung cottage at Nye Creek, Tuesday.

Hop pickers wanted for 50 acre yard. Good accommodations. Please register now.—S. L. Barnes, Ladd & Reed Farm, Reedville, Oregon.

Found at Shute Park, on celebration grounds, a bicycle. Party can have same by proving property and paying for advertisement. Inquire at Argus office.

T. S. Barr, of Grays River, Wash., was here Tuesday, the guest of his brother, Frank Barr. He returned Tuesday evening, accompanied by his mother, who has been visiting here for a fortnight.

J. C. and Claude Grear returned the last of the week from Hepper, where they went on business. They report plenty of money up in the Morrow county district, and say that things are lively.

Spray your hops: New is the time to spray before the vine gets too heavy, and the lice too thick. We have quassia chips and whale oil soap in stock. C. B. Buchanan & Co.

James McClaran, of Gales Creek, and who is aged 72 years, stumbled by getting his feet into a wire, Sunday, and fell on a piece of timber, breaking a rib in the region of the heart. Dr. Linklater went up and attended the injury.

The Hillsboro Lumber Co. is building a small addition on their mill, in order that room can be made for the gang edger. The track has been laid for their loading spur and it makes things look like business at the millyard.

Lost on celebration grounds, Hillsboro, on Fourth: Hand satchel, leather, containing pair of glasses, and small sum of money. Return to Argus office and receive liberal reward. Glasses are of value to owner.—Fred Bulling, Laurel, Ore.

Frank G. Mitchell, of Pendleton, Oregon, where he is in the drug business, is down for a week's visit with relatives and friends. He reports the upper country as having a fair crop this season. He is in the center of the finest wheat belt in the dry plateau region.

Hop pickers wishing to pick at Ray Hop Farm, Witch Hazel, will please register at the ranch, or send their names for registry, with number of pickers in family to the undersigned. Fine accommodations.—Frank Weisenback, Manager.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nelson, of near West Union, entertained about eighty five neighbors, last Saturday evening, the occasion being their eldest daughter's thirteenth birthday. The hours were spent in music and dancing, and at midnight sandwiches and coffee, ice cream, cake and lemonade were served at 2:00 in the morning, well pleased at their evening's entertainment at the hospitable Nelson home.

FOREST GROVE HAS ANOTHER SCANDAL

Restaurant Woman and Consort Arrested at Banks

JAILED BY DEPUTY SHERIFF KANE

Irate Husband Goes With Officer to Identify

Forest Grove had no more than recovered from the two ten thousand dollar damage suits brought by Mrs. Lillian Bond, one against Sheriff Connell and one against B. F. Wagley, for ejection from a restaurant, the cases being dismissed upon outside settlement, than the lively little college city furnished another bit of scandal, this also being connected with the restaurant business. Some time ago one T. J. Anderson and Mrs. Kate Bradley went to Forest Grove and worked in a restaurant, the two being considered as man and wife. Monday evening, on the Sheridan train, Anderson was coming out from Portland, when the husband, Geo. M. Bradley, assaulted the purloiner of his wife's affections. The two fought in the smoker from a mile the other side of the Multnomah line, clear into Washington County. They were finally separated, the husband bearing evidence of the fist encounter. Anderson went on to Forest Grove, while the husband came to this city and swore out a warrant for the pair, before Judge H. T. Bagley. Deputy Sheriff Kane, in company with the prosecuting witness, went to Banks, where they found them staying as man and wife. This was evidence enough, and they were placed under arrest. They had gone to Banks in a livery hired at the Hancock & Gordon barn. They were landed here about 4:00 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The husband was seen by an Argus reporter, Tuesday morning, and said:

"They should be sent to the penitentiary. The woman is as much to blame as the man. We have five as fine children as you could find anywhere. I am a blacksmith, and have worked in the O. R. & N. shops for a number of years, and am now working in a Portland shop. Yes, I want to see them get the limit. No unwritten law for mine. The Oregon statute is good enough."

The man and woman were taken before Judge Bagley Tuesday morning, and waived examination. Tuesday afternoon they went before Judge McBride and pleaded guilty. Deputy Wall asked the court to be lenient in his sentence because the defendants had saved the expense of a trial. Asked if he had anything to say the defendant Anderson said that he had not ran away with the woman, but that she had arrived at Forest Grove and he had tried to protect her from her husband, as she said that her spouse had said he would kill her.

Judge McBride sentenced Anderson to the penitentiary for six months, and the woman to the county jail for three months.

Geo. Krebs, of Helvetia, was in town Monday.

George Ireland, the painter and decorator, is again in town.

Wm. Markway, of near Banks, was in town Saturday.

J. E. Price was in from north of town, Saturday.

M. H. Nelson, of beyond Glencoe, was in town, Saturday.

J. C. Lamkin and W. V. Wiley were Portland visitors, Friday.

POMPEIAN MASSAGE CREAM

Your skin may look clean after washing—until you see the left-in dirt that Pompeian Massage Cream will bring out of the pores.

Just as this paper is white until it is compared with something whiter, so your skin may look clean until you try a Pompeian Massage and see the left-in dirt that it brings out.

You have been washing with soap and water but still the dirt remained. You thought your skin was clean, but wondered why it was sallow and why the wrinkles grew more in evidence every year.

Pompeian Massage Cream gently rubbed in and then as gently rubbed out will bring with it the dirt that soap has never touched, nourishes the skin, purifies the blood in the cheeks,—lets nature do its perfect work.

All good barbers apply Pompeian Massage Cream—it is a great relief after shaving and tends to make the skin stronger and less sensitive.

Ladies appreciate Pompeian Massage Cream because it stimulates the circulation and gives a bright, clear complexion.

Come in for free sample and copy of the famous booklet "A Treatise on Facial Massage."

Pompeian Cream is sold at 50c and $1.00 per jar.
