WEALTHY TIMBERMAN

Washington County

Here to Look Over his Valuable faterests.

J. E. Dubois, after whose family Dubois, Pennsylvania, is named, ally oil where there is coal. was registered at the Hotel Tualatin, last night. Mr. Dubois has valuable timber holdings in Oregon, and he has deeds to several thousand acres of Washington County's best mill material. Before he leaves the county he expects to look over some of his prop. erty. He thinks Oregon is one of the finest states in the Union, and said, last evening:

state in the Union, and Oregon beats them all for things on a grand scale The timber is immense; the prespects of the state are beyond that of any other; and your climate is simply grand. Here is where Ponce de Lein would have found that fountain of youth-why understand by Eastern papers that you have the oldest woman in the world here. I mean Mrs. Wood, who is reportaccepting her age without cavil."

After this bouquet at our climate Mr. Dubois retired to his room. and would talk no more not even about assessment of timber lands, which means considerable taxation to Mr. Dubois.

Mrs. Henrietta Jackson Bacrett. and 14 days. Deceased was a daughter of Ulysses and Lucinda Jackson, of Glencoe, and she was born in this county in 1862, her parents having crossed the plains and settled here in 1850. She was wedded to N. A. Barrett at Glencoe, September 25, 1881. Her husband, mother, and four children survive of her immediate family. The children are: Eimer H . Jas. Ulysses, Effie A. and Leslie Lloyd. Mrs. Barrett joined the Hillsboro M. E. Church January S, 1899, and has always maintained her membership. She was a member of the Hillsborn Degree of Honor, She band for years being traveling Staver, since leaving this city. Mrs. Barrett had deep religious convictions and during her last illness signified that she was ready for the change, and said that she
