Exit George. The time was approaching midnight. The old gentleman was listening from a cove of vantage at the head of the stairs. He had been there in his stocking feet for as long as thirty-two minutes. The young man was lingering at the front door with the old gent's daughter. As a lingerer he was a success, and he was aided and abetted by the girl. This also the old gent knew as well as several other interesting things. That's why he became tired of listening at the head of the stairs. At last he heard a sniffling of feet.

"It's so hard to say good night, darling," the young man said to the girl, who believed every word he uttered, as they always do before matrimony gets in its baleful work.

"Don't say it, George," sang out the old man. "Wait about five minutes and say good morning!"

It was then the impediment in George's speech was removed, and with at least four and a half minutes to spare, the girl closed the front door, and George trotted along home.—Strand Magazine.

It Fell Upon Him. "Look here," remarked the thrifty man to his extravagant wife, "you're carrying too much salt, my lady." "Why should that worry you?" she retorted. "Because I have to raise the wind, that's why."—Philadelphia Press.

The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the delicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispenses with the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It is always cured. It is strictly medicinal, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrappers; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials. The most intelligent woman now-a-days frets on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 21 stamps for cloth-bound. If side consults the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held strictly confidential. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

The Farmers' Mutual FIRE RELIEF ASSOCIATION of Portland, Oregon. Held its Annual Meeting January 16, 1907, at the Logus Hall. THE ANNUAL STATEMENT

The advantages of this Association in comparison with others of a similar character are: 1. We insure not in the cities, and can, therefore, not be affected by large conflagrations. 2. We insure only the best farm buildings, and pass by old shacks and houses with steep roofs through the roof. 3. Our assessments can only be used to pay losses and not for expenses. 4. We insure no business property, no stores, no factories, saloons, no hop houses or fruit driers. 5. We take care not to over-insure, sticking to the "two-thirds" clause of the value. 6. Our meetings are held in the City of Portland, the business center of the state, where members can easily attend and keep the institution under control, so that it shall never become a graft of a few. Agents in Washington County are: 1. H. C. Pearson, Cornelius, Ore., R. F. D. No. 2. 2. W. J. R. Beach, Forest Grove, Ore. If you wish to join apply to the nearest agent or if there is no local agent in your vicinity, send your name and address to J. J. KERN, Secretary, 565 East Yamhill St., Portland, Ore.
