

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS.

HILLSBORO, OREGON, AUGUST 3, 1907.

NO. 21

GUNNEY DISARMED BY DEPUTY SHERIFF

Went to Serve Summons of Husband, Warned by Wife

Wife Took Weapon from Hip Pocket

Deputy Sheriff Bulger, of Portland, has Experience

As mentioned in last week's Argus, Luther Gunney's wife has sued for divorce in the circuit court here.

The Gunneys live at St. Johns, and Sheriff Council sent the summons down to Sheriff Stevens, to be served in Multnomah County. The papers were given to Deputy Bulger, who went over to St. Johns, Friday, to serve the summons in person. Before he reached the house he was met by Mrs. Gunney, who told him the husband was armed. The deputy entered the house and demanded that Gunney turn over the firearm on his person. Gunney denied possession of a gun, but before he knew it Bulger had wrested it from the man's hip pocket. According to the report, Gunney then tried to wrench the weapon from the deputy, but the officer put the muzzle of his own revolver at the desperate man's head, and he yielded. Gunney claimed, so the officer said, that he had bought the gun to protect himself from "Jim" Gunney, who is married to a sister of Mrs. Luther Gunney, the two brothers' wives being sisters, and daughters of the Trumba family, who lived beyond Glenwood. Luther Gunney and wife lived here some years ago, but later moved to Lake City, and thence to St. Johns. Luther was always a peaceable citizen while living here. "Jim" Gunney, the brother of whom Luther claims he was protecting himself against, is well known here, having spent his boyhood in this city.

The husband later denied that it was his brother who had threatened his life, and stated that instead it was his brother-in-law. He also said, over his signature, that the deputy had no trouble with him, and that he told the officer the gun was in his hip pocket, and he denied that the deputy sheriff pointed his revolver at him.

QUEEN LILL'S BODY GUARD BEFORE COURT

Mrs. Hiram Naylor Tires of her Youthful Husband

MARRIED LESS THAN TWO YEARS

And now the Wife Wants a Divorce, and Right Away

Hiram Naylor, youngest son of Deacon Naylor, long since gathered to his father, is about to lose his wife. Hiram is a boiler maker by trade, and aside from his predilection for booze, is a very good sort of fellow. Years ago, in the regime of Queen Lill, of the Sandwich Islands, when that dusky sovereign was a favorite with the Hon. Grover Cleveland, Naylor, who was then a snip of a boy—a "broth of a boy," as an Irishman would say—landed in the Islands, and joined the military. He was quiet, obliging, the pink of politeness, and it was but a few moons until Hiram Naylor Esq., was a lieutenant in Queen Lill's body guards, in the throne room. Lill lost her job, and so did Hiram. He drifted back to the U. S.—that is to say, to the continent—and went at the boiler-making business. Later he came back here, and sought the hand, successfully, of a Mrs. Woodham, who owned a neat little ranch on Gales Creek. They were wedded in 1906, and Hiram had trouble with an adult son of his wife. The son whipped the stepfather, and then had him jailed because of a threat to kill. Later he was released, and then Mrs. Naylor mortgaged her farm and took Hiram to Portland, where they opened a lodging house. Saturday Mrs. Naylor sued for a divorce, alleging drunkenness and abusive names on the part of the once high-cockalorum of Lill's Regal room. Mrs. Naylor is about fifty years of age, while her husband is about 35 or 39.

CORNELIUS BEATS GROVE

Cornelius and Forest Grove played at the college city, Sunday, the result being a score of 7 to 3 in favor of Cornelius, the winning team having imported pitcher Drew, who is in the Portland nine, under McCredie. Drew was hit fairly often, but the Forest Grove boys seemed to hit in bad luck, while Cornelius batted with a good streak in their favor. Forest Grove failed to score except in one inning, when there were three scores to her credit. Bettis was retired when the game was half through and Moore took his place. Frank Sholes caught for Cornelius, and he did very good work. He walloped the ball for the best hit made on the diamond.

The line up was:

Cornelius	Forest Grove
Sholes	Getter
Drew	Bettis
VanHarrison	Britton
Ed Henderson	Leopold
T. Jasper	W. Schultz
Welton	Kapple
Ed Jasper	Davis
Frank Bernards	J. West
Claude Cook	J. Bullock

Roy Cook umpired the game, and gave general satisfaction. At first the Forest Grove team demurred to Drew's pitching, he being a professional, and this being an amateur game, but the longer they hung out the more Forest Grove's team wanted him to stay in.

Hillsboro went down to Scholls and played with the local team, and the score was 3 to 2 in favor of Scholls, showing that some remarkably close playing was indulged in by both sides.

S. L. Barnes, superintendent at the Reedville Ladd & Reed Farm, states that his company will pay the usual one cent per pound for picking hops, and that the report that they would pay but 50 cents is error.

DR. C. L. LARGE GETS FINE OF ONE HUNDRED

Recorder Hoge Gives Defendant Heavy Lemon

THE CASE IS TO BE APPEALED

E. B. Tongue, Large's Attorney, Thinks he can Beat Case

Forest Grove had a lively week in Recorder's Court circles, ending Friday, when Recorder Hoge fined Dr. Large, who was charged with selling liquor without license, a round $100. W. A. Bellinger, who alleged he was working for Large in the iron house, was subsequently fined $25, and Large stood trial, Bellinger having pleaded guilty. Attorney E. B. Tongue went up to defend the case, and W. H. Hollis and Deputy District Attorney John M. Wall prosecuted for the city.

Al. Dilley testified that he had bought a bottle of beer at the resort, and it was upon this evidence that the court convicted and imposed the fine. It is said that the city officials are determined to stop illegal selling of liquor at the college city if possible.

Attorney Tongue has given notice of appeal and it will be taken to the circuit court, coming up at the November term.

JOS. B. McPHERSON DEAD

Joseph B. McPherson, aged 47 years, died at Newport, August 4, 1907. Mr. McPherson has had heart trouble for some time, and went to Newport for the benefit of his health. He improved for a few days, and then died suddenly. Mr. McPherson leaves a widow, a daughter, and two sons. He has been engaged in hop raising for a few years, this side of Forest Grove, and at one time was Assessor Wilcox' field deputy in that section. The McPherson family came to Forest Grove from Kansas, about eight years ago.

He was last at the county seat just before July 4, and at that time knew that he might be called at any time. He was a man of exemplary habits, and had a host of friends in West Washington County. The family has the sincere sympathy of a large circle of friends. The remains were brought back for burial, Monday.

POMPEIAN MASSAGE CREAM

Your skin may look clean after washing—until you see the left-in dirt that of the pores

Just as this paper is white until it is compared with something whiter, so your skin may look clean until you try a Pompeian Massage and see the left-in dirt that it brings out.

You have been washing with soap and water but still the dirt remained. You thought your skin was clean, but wondered why it was sallow and why the wrinkles grew more in evidence every year.

Pompeian Massage Cream gently rubbed in and then as gently rubbed out will bring with it the dirt that soap has never touched, nourishes the skin, puts new blood in the cheeks,—lets nature do its perfect work.

All good barbers apply Pompeian Massage Cream—it is a great relief after shaving and tends to make the skin stronger and less sensitive.

Ladies appreciate Pompeian Massage Cream because it stimulates the circulation and gives a bright, clear complexion.

Come in for free sample and copy of the famous booklet "A Treatise on Facial Massage."

Pompeian Cream is sold at 50c and $1.00 per jar.
