

A touch of real old decent human nature always does one good. One day last week a young fellow who works on the P. K. & N. at the tunnel, and who makes good money, and yet, has a good time with it, sent $100 to his mother in Colorado. The draft was enclosed with but these words in his letter: "Hello, Mother!" The message, while not voluble, must have gone to the old mother's heart much straighter than an excessive demonstration, coupled with a request for money enough to get home—and yet, such is the mother's heart that perhaps little difference would it have made. Eh?

Postmaster B. P. Cornelius and DeWitt Smith returned Saturday from a four days' trip in the Nehalem valley. They went to Vernonia the first day, and the next day drove 50 miles down the Nehalem river, over one of the finest roads in the State. Mr. Cornelius states that the farmers along the Nehalem are prosperous, their farms being well tilled and their houses a credit to any community.

Notice to hop pickers: Those wishing to pick hops on the Reedville hop farm, 100 acres, one half mile northeast of Reedville, and owned by A. J. Ray, will please register at once, either in person or by mail. Good accommodations can take care of entire families.—C. W. Thrapp, Manager.

As an illustration of the increase in farm land values in Washington County, we give the following item: James Imbrie sold his farm near town to Mr. Kempin for $9000. Mr. Kempin kept the place two years and sold it to Mr. Brogden, the present owner for $15,000. It is reported that Mr. Brogden recently refused an offer of $18,000 for the same tract. Mr. Brogden finished threshing 1500 bushels of fine white oats Friday.

Loet: Three cows, one dark brindle, dry; one black and white spotted, in milk; Jersey, light red, in milk; two heifers, yearlings, one red, with bell; one a light-colored Jersey.—Wm. Knittel, Beaverton, Ore, Route 3. Reward. Telephone, Independent 553, line 3, Scholls central.

W. B. Cate, who has 100 acres in hops on the Hawthorne place and 45 acres on his own ranch, was in town Saturday. While the hop foliage this year is not equal to that of last season, Mr. Cate says his hops are of better quality. He estimates that the yield on his own place will yield a ton to the acre this year. Mr. Cate does not anticipate a shortage of pickers this season, and is rather partial, as a rule, to women and children as pickers.

Words of Praise

For the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, as given by leaders in all the several schools of medicine, should have far more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has the badge of honesty on every bottle wrapper, in a full list of all its ingredients printed in plain English.

If you are an invalid woman and suffer from frequent headaches, backache, gnawing distress in stomach, periodical pains, disordered bowels, catarrhal, pelvic drain, dragging down distress in lower abdomen or pelvis, perhaps dark spots or specks dancing before the eyes, faint spells and kindred symptoms caused by female weakness, or the derangement of the feminine organs, you can not do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The hospital surgeon's knife and operating table may be avoided by the timely use of "Favorite Prescription" in such cases. Thereby the obvious examinations and treatments of the family physician can be avoided and a thorough course of successful treatment carried out in the privacy of the home.

Do not expect too much from "Favorite Prescription"; it will not perform miracles; it will not dissolve or cure tumors. No medicine will. It will do as much to establish vigorous health in most weaknesses and ailments peculiarly incident to women as any medicine can. It must be given a fair chance by perseverance in its use for a reasonable length of time.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret, and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

HELP YOUR SECTION

On April 29th last the Oregonian published a special industrial edition devoted exclusively to the exploitation of Oregon. It probably contained more special and miscellaneous information about Oregon than any one publication that has ever been issued. It is peculiarly useful and valuable to the homeseeker, because it gives the latest and most reliable information about so many different subjects that the homeseeker is naturally interested in. Almost every department of industry is specialized, and both descriptive and statistical information of a highly valuable character is given extensively and in entertaining form.

Residents of Oregon who know its advantages as compared with the congested and polluted East, and who still have friends back there whom they would like to see here enjoying the good things of this favored state, can aid in a splendid work without cost and very little effort. If you think your friend would be interested in knowing more about Oregon and might eventually become a valuable citizen, send his name and address to the general passenger agent of the Oregon Railway & Navigation Company Southern Pacific at Portland, and a copy of this special edition, with a complete summary of the several subjects treated, carefully indexed, will be mailed to him promptly. In this manner you may be the means not only of giving your friend a good time, but of helping to stimulate the growth and prosperity of Oregon.

Don't forget that commencing September 1st and continuing daily for two months tickets will be on sale at almost every railroad station in the East to all points in Oregon and the Northwest at what has come to be popularly known as "reduced rates." These rates are the cheapest general long distance rates ever established, and enable one to reach Oregon from any part of the United States at but a trifle more than one cent a mile. They are the greatest incentive to colonization and progressive home building of any known agency, and if the resident, dissatisfied resident of the East is made to know before-hand the advantages he can enjoy here, the problem is solved, and the star of empire will continue to move steadily westward.

Now is the time to spread the gospel of Oregon, so that it may be heard and heeded by the time the rates go into effect. Send one name or two, or a dozen, and you will be exerting a worthy influence toward the upbuilding of our state. Send them to your nearest Southern Pacific agent or Wm. McMurray, General Passenger Agent, Portland, Oregon.
