An Oregon tax-dodging corporation has given notice of its intention to test the Initiative and Referendum law of this state. Two California attorneys have been employed to bring the suit, which has been duly filed in the United States Circuit Court at Portland. The object of the promoters of the suit evidently, is to get the case before the United States Supreme Court, and thus, they no doubt hope, get it knocked out. The San Francisco lawyers allege in their complaint that the law is unconstitutional, but the people of the state of Oregon want it to remain a law, for the very reason the corporations want to get rid of it.

There bids fair to be some ginger in the next state campaign. Those two descendants of Hibernian stock, Francis J. Heney, of land fraud prosecution fame, and Senator Fulton, will likely pay doubtful compliments to each other on the stump, as Heney has announced that if Fulton shall be a candidate, he will stump the state against him. In the event of such a fight, the gentleman of Teutonic descent, and champion of Statement No. 1, Frederick W. Mulkey, is likely to cut some ice with his political ax, not forgetting the gentleman whose name reminds us of sweetbread—the Hon. Wm. Cate.

A Columbia county man has brought suit against the Southern Pacific Company to compel it to sell to him 160 acres of land according to the terms of the old O. & C. land grant. The suit has been filed in the Federal Court at Portland. Much interest will attach to the case, as there are hundreds of squatters on the company's lands in this state.

Mr. Kay, a hold over State Senator, has seized opportunity by the tail, and declared himself a candidate for President of the next State senate. Mr. Kay is from Salem, and evidently believes in the old adage that "the early bird" has the best chance at the matrimonial worm.
