It was a parallel case with one exception. Potiphar's wife and Joseph, and Mayor Lane and Mrs. Bell Waymire. The exception noted, is that the virtuous little martyr escaped with more of his raiment, than did our old Jewish friend, Joseph. Alas, we are never so safe, as when with our wives.

In the midst of the gaiety of Carnival time, Hillsboro has a serious moment in which to deeply and sincerely regret the untimely death of one of her most enterprising and honorable business men and citizens—George A. Morgan.

Poor old Ezra Meeker feels aggrieved that Wall Street did not pay more attention to his ox team and prairie schooner. Ezra is old enough to know that Wall Street has all it can do to keep its eye on the dollar.

Good people, the city is yours, while you are with us. The Argus bids you welcome to the best Hillsboro Fair since the last. Enjoy yourselves.

A paper states that "Ford's stenographer smiled at Henny with scorn." So did Ruef and Schmitz, but—both are in jail.

The Deacon's Philosophy

Ambition's mighty pleasin' An' it helps a feller 'long. An' sorta' keeps him humpin' Like an' ol' camp-me'tin' song; But it very often happens That you fall to teach the spot, And don't worry, jest remember, When you're dead, it's all fergot.

You've got your load of trouble, An' your plans have gone astray, Till you worry from the mornin' Thro' the whole darned livin' day; But keep in cheer, ol' feller, An' you'll get there like as not, And if you don't—jest bear in mind, When you're dead, it's all fergot.

Old life is full of jungles, An' the trail has lots of turns; Still, you alius find the biggest elk, Where the forest never burns; But if you never stalk your game, Or get to fire a shot, Don't you worry, jest remember, When you're dead, it's all fergot.

Life has sorrows; life has vic'ries, Tho' the last come not your way; Still, you've had your hours that's joyous, An' you've had your bills to pay— So if your life's a failure, An' you worry 'bout your lot, Stop it now, an' jest remember, When you're dead, it's all fergot.

COUNTRY STORE FOR RENT

A good country store building, in good location, can be leased on reasonable terms. Address, X. Argus office.

L. F. Johnson, of Buxton, was in town on Monday, on his way to Portland.

Fletcher Wilson, of Tillamook, was a guest of L. W. House, of this place, the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Edna V. Russell, photographer, has opened a studio on Main Street, north of the bank, Cornelius. Sunday hours, 2 to 4.

Will Schulmerich was called to the Grange Fair, at Scio, this week, to deliver and address on the subject of dairying. Dr. Withycomb, E. T. Judd and Prof. Bradley will also give talks on agriculture, and relative subjects. Next week, the above party will go over to the Nehalem valley and hold meetings its entire length, where Mr. Schulmerich informs us there is much interest taken in dairying. Last year a Portland creamery company paid Nehalem dairymen over $30,000 for cream alone. The company runs a four-horse wagon in the valley, which gathers up the cream and takes it to Clatskanie, on the Columbia river, where it is shipped to Portland.

Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they swallow whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle-wraps, what his medicines are made of and verifies it. This he feels he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, oftentimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred system of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless.

The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nerve and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Home, and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

For Sale or Trade.

Will sell or trade for live stock, a good Prince Organ. Address or call on Thos. Sims, Sherwood, Route 4, box 35.

ACKNOWLEDGE IT

Hillsboro Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Citizens Prove It

After reading the public statement of this party, given below, you must come to this conclusion: A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the kidneys in good health since, can be relied upon to perform the same work in other cases. Read this:

G. S. Cooper, farmer, living three miles northeast of Salem, Ore., on R. F. D. No. 7, says: "I just as emphatically recommend Doan's Kidney Pills today as I did some three years ago. At that time I procured the remedy at a drugstore and used it with the result that the backache was banished and the other annoyances caused by a derangement of the kidneys disappeared. The troubles started from too heavy lifting, resulting in my back being strained and ever after there was a dull aching over my kidneys and through the loins. I got prompt relief from Doan's Kidney Pills. I also know of some of my neighbors who have used your remedy and found it most reliable."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no other.
