COUNTY LUMBER CUT LARGEST IN HISTORY

Thirty Millions Larger than Estimate of a Year Ago

NINETY OR HUNDRED MILLION CUT

A Natural Resource That Brings in Big Bunch of Money

A year ago timbermen predicted a lumber cut of sixty million feet for the year 1907, for Washington county, and these figures have been overreached in a startling increase. By the last of the year the Washington county mills will have cut at least 100 million feet of lumber, which means a gross income of over $1,000,000, the way lumber is selling. This means an income of fifty dollars per year for each man, woman and child in the county.

Out of the million dollars is paid the little army of loggers, mill laborers, lumber haulers, etc., and this money nearly all gets into circulation. This is responsible for a large per cent. of our prosperity, as this means an annual expenditure of at least $750,000.

It is estimated that the many little mills have cleaned up a quarter of a million dollars to apply to profit and betterment of their mill plants.

The official records in the Assessor's office show that at the present annual cut it will take 45 years to exhaust the supply of the first-class merchantable timber, even should there be no accounting for growth, which in that length of time will be considerable. Here is one natural resource that will be a big source of revenue for years to come.

CONDUCTOR HAS CLOSE CALL

Jacob Griffith, the well known P. R. & N. conductor, met with an accident Monday afternoon, about three miles beyond Buxton, which came near proving fatal. His engine was pushing a big steel car in front of a box car over the new track between Buxton and the tunnel, when the steel car jumped the track, and the box car followed. Conductor Griffith had just reached the top of the box car when it left the track, and was thrown headlong down the grade, where he was picked up in an insensible condition by the train hands, and brought to Hillsboro, where Dr. F. J. Bailey, the Company's physician, attended to his injuries. The accident was due to the imperfect condition of the new track, and no blame attaches to anyone for the same. Conductor Griffith has been with the Company ever since it began to operate the road, and his injuries will lay him up for some time.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT

Last Friday, as Peter Vanderzanden, who lives a mile and a half north of Roy, was driving through the streets of that place, his team became frightened at a passing train, and ran away, throwing Mr. Vanderzanden out of the wagon. His head came in violent contact with the ground, rendering him unconscious. He was taken to the residence of a friend in Roy, when Dr. Licklater, of this place, was called to attend him. The unfortunate man remained in a comatose state, due to concussion of the brain, until late Sunday, when he regained consciousness, and was removed to his home, where he now lies. The attending physician has hopes of his recovery.

M. Genzer, of Buxton, while cutting logs on his place, this week, fell and was caught in the left side by a snag, and was injured internally. He was attended by Dr. F. A. Bailey.

For Rent: Farm of 117 acres, over 100 acres under plow; on rural mail and milk route; 2 miles from Hillsboro; telephone connection. For terms call Farmers' line, Pacific States 281.

Jessie, the six year old daughter of L. A. Duncan, while playing Saturday, at the home a mile south of Cornelius, fell down a flight of stairs and dislocated the left hip. Dr. F. A. Bailey placed the child under the influence of chloroform and reduced the fracture.

J. S. Smith, of Salem, bought ten head of graded Jersey milk cows last Friday, in this county, for his dairy herd, near Salem. He bought eight head from Ed. Schulmerich, and two head from Mr. John Simpson, and they were all fine cows, which the owners can guarantee as to milk tests.

Emmett Quick, of Buxton, was down to the city Monday. He is convalescing from a broken leg, and says that misfortune never comes singly. A short time ago he had a valuable horse killed by a tree falling on the animal, while it was hitched in a four-horse team, and at work for the Buxton Lumber Company. The horse was the best of the four, and the loss was not agreeable to take, particularly while the owner was laid up with a broken leg.

HONOLULU GIRLS VISIT HILLSBORO

Chaperoned by Edyth Tozier Weatherred

PARTY VISITED PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Dined at Bigelow Hotel, and Given Reception at Crescent Theatre

Seven Honolulu young ladies, chaperoned by Mrs. Edyth Tozier Weatherred formerly of this city, arrived in the city Friday morning from Forest Grove, and were met at the depot by a committee of Hillsboro ladies, and Mayor Dennis, who drove them over the city in carriages. Later, they were driven to the Hillsboro public schools, where Principal E. W. Barnes and his corps of teachers were assembled with the school children, in one of the principal rooms. Mr. Barnes welcomed the visitors cordially, to which Mrs. Weatherred fittingly responded. Miss Rose Alonai, one of the Hawaiian ladies, sang a song in the Hawaiian tongue, followed by musical numbers in chorus by the party. The party then repaired to the Bigelow hotel, where a fine luncheon awaited the visitors. The dining room was tastefully decorated for the occasion with beautiful plants and flowers from the green house, and the service was all that could be desired. After luncheon, at 1:30 p. m., a reception was given the visitors at the Crescent Theatre, where Mayor John Dennis happily welcomed the guests, followed by Dr. F. A. Bailey, in one of his always appropriate addresses. Mrs. Weatherred responded in a pleasing way. Musical numbers were rendered by Miss Florence Tongue and Mrs. Layton, in a manner that charmed the audience, which amply filled the auditorium. The visitors then rendered several numbers in the Hawaiian language, their voices blending sweetly in the songs of the home land. Then followed the social part of the function, Mrs. Weatherred presenting her proteges to her old Hillsboro friends. The young ladies created a very favorable impression here, and were escorted to the depot at 4 p. m. by a large number of Hillsboro people, when they took the train for Portland. The names of the visitors are: Misses Katie Sadler, Daisy Todd, Hester Lemson, Lillian Mundon, Callie Lucas, Mattie L. Saffery and Ross Alonai, all of Honolulu, Hawaii.

Sam Johnson, of Shady Brook, was in town, Monday, bringing in Harry Eldredge, of Portland, who has been out on a deer hunting expedition.

W. H. Forney, formerly of La-Crosse, Wash., has bought the Geo. Harrow place, 1 1/2 miles west of town, the sale being made by S. S. Barnes.

Kuratli Brothers last week sold 5 lots in Highland addition, for Mrs. Fugery, of Portland, to Everett Crocker, the consideration being $500.

Wm. G. Hale, a Portland attorney, who claims Hillsboro as his birth place, being a son of Green Hale, formerly of this place, was in the city Saturday.

Joe Kiser, whose sale was advertised in last week's Argus, has sold his stock, etc., at private sale, and the sale will therefore not take place, as advertised.

L. R. Ingles has bought a lot in Buxton, and the old school house on same, which he will convert into a feed store, and go into that business. He formerly lived on the North Plains.

Oregon fruit growers will receive for the entire fruit crop this year, the sum of $4,275,135. The estimate given above is made by Hon. W. K. Newell, of the State Board of Horticulture, and is thought to be approximately correct.

Frank Stewart, a former Hillsboroite, and now a U. S. postal inspector with headquarters at San Francisco, was here Saturday, on a short visit with friends and relatives. He was much gratified at Hillsboro's evident improvement since his last trip.

H. L. Hatchette, of Gaston, recently from Illinois, was in town Friday. Mr. Hatchette is a sawmill man, and may locate in this county. He thinks Washington county's soil cannot be excelled anywhere, and he is right.

I am now prepared to show you the Chas. Stevens & Bros. samples of new Fall and Winter styles in Ladies' and Misses' dress suits, shirt waist suits, and dress skirts, made to your special order, and of your own selection of goods. Fall and Winter coats also carried. I carry a standard line of corsets and undershirts. I will be glad to bring my goods to your house upon request. Independent phone, No. 264. Mrs. M. E. Caudle.

The Thorns and Orange Blossoms Co., which played at the Crescent Saturday night, is one of the companies that is making good on the road this season. The entire cast was good, and so realistic was the work of the villain that a man from the north county called out "You're a liar!" That's going some, and should get the actor a raise. A little more and the auditor might have gone up on the stage and taken a fall out of the villain, not unlike "Three Fingers Hoover," when Modjeska played Camille in the Tabor Grand, at Denver.

COUNTY GIVES BIG SUPPORT TO COLLEGE

Forty Pupils From Here Attend at Corvallis

LIST OF THOSE ATTENDING O. A. C.

If all Counties Gave Like Support the Enrollment Would be 1250

If all counties in the state—32 in number—gave the State Agricultural College as much support as this, the school would have 1250 pupils. As it is, there is an enrollment of only 870.

Following is a list of Washington County students at Corvallis this year. It will be seen that Hillsboro leads the list in number:

Bacona—Andres M. Jeppeson.
Beaverton—Albert F. Bernard, Harvey W. Bradley, Robert B. Denney, Iva C. Peterson.
Cornelius—Albert Ashahr, Lester R. Cypher, Page E. Gardner, Cecil G. Rafferty.
Forest Grove—Ezra S. Dixon.
Gaston—Earle P. Harding, Emma Purdy.
Hillsboro—Grace M. Bath, James L. Batchelder, Frank J. Beach, Harry Bowman, Cecil M. Brogden, Edith S. Brogden, Mary E. Cate, Frank W. Connell, Grace E. Connell, Earl I. Donelson, Ruby E. Galloway, Walter C. Galloway, Samuel H. Graf, Charles W. Martin, Nellie L. Naill, Lawrence A. Turpen, Earl W. Wallace.
Hillsdale—Roswell Dosch, Hallie A. McMurphy.
Mountaineale—Bradford Fowles.
Sherwood—Charles H. Hayes, James Koerber, Agnes M. Sanger, Raymond Seelye, John G. Vincent, Dorris S. Young.
Scappoose R. 1—George A. Nelson, Walter L. Nelson.

THE QUEEN OF MY HEART

My own typewriter, as bright as a dollar, And with form that is pleasing to see, With touch that is light, and with ribbon so dainty— All this gives a pleasure to me.

Her gait is so springy; she never gets cranky; She's a jewel I cannot forego; She takes my dictation without agitation, And answers each thought I bestow.

I can't do without her; I love her, adore her, The fairest I ever have seen; My wife isn't jealous—it isn't a maiden— It's just my typewriter machine.

A SILO SEAL

A. A. Hansen, of the Commercial Cream Company, of Lewiston, Idaho, and who drove over this county the first of the week, is one of the men who is talking silos in and out of season. He believes in the common stave silo with the cement foundation, for the average farmer. He believes in cutting the ensilage pretty fine—not more than three fourths of an inch. Moisture is a little, especially as the corn is being out at a little more matured stage than at first, pack it well in the silo, then put on top six or eight inches of chaff or chopped straw, and sow some grain. This will spring up, grow rankly, and completely seal the silage on top. He found few silos here, owing to the preponderance of milk sale to the condensers.

STEWART—MOHR

Mr. Arthur W. Stewart, of Portland, and Miss Minnie E. Mohr, of Hillsboro, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mohr, Sunday, October 20, 1907, Rev. L. F. Belknap officiating. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stewart, of South Tualatin, and is now in the employ of a Portland telephone company. They will reside in Portland.

Remember, that the Argus is $1.50 a year, and all the other county papers are the same. All subscriptions from and after Oct. 1, 1907, must be paid for at that rate. As before stated, the Argus has not voluntarily made the new rate, but has been forced to do so, by the paper trust. All country papers must raise the price of their subscription, or go out of business.

Gus Rossi, the Beaverton saloon keeper, was arraigned before Judge Bagley of this city, last Saturday, on a charge of selling liquor to a minor. Benton Bowman appeared for the State, Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Wall, being sick. Rossi was defended by W. G. Hare, of the firm of Bagley & Hare. Wilson Brugger and Alonzo Hoover were the witnesses examined for the state, both being minors. As a result of the examination, Rossi was bound over to the circuit court in the sum of $200, which was furnished.
