NO CAUSE FOR ALARM

A reaction of business is now upon us, as a result of natural causes. The prices of articles of necessity have gone away up, out of all reason. The price of labor has followed, until its employment by the farmer is almost out of the question, as it has gone into other channels. For some time past conditions have been unnatural. Readjustment was due, and it is coming—is here. Crazy speculation has a limit, and fictitious values must fall. There will not be a ruinous depression on this coast—just a letting down, a return to safe and sane conditions. The philosophical plan is to meet the readjustment calmly and thank fortune that Oregon, at least, is in a mighty good condition to withstand the pricking of the bubble of fictitious prices. Times may be a little duller, but it should all result in sane valuations, and real and legitimate prosperity.

With all her splendid industries to back her, Washington county, and in fact the whole state, ought not to feel the financial flurry to any great extent. And back of all is the Alaska country, with its millions, just now coming down to the Northwest coast for investment. In this county, alone, we have millions in timber, farming, fruit, dairying, etc., and all that is needed is to have confidence in our resources and in ourselves.

Gus Koehler, of Baker City, was in town this week.

Remember, the Oregonian and Argus, only $2.25.

Miss Ona Ford went to Beaverton this evening, to attend a Halloween party.

J. W. McRoberts and Mr. Vincent, who live up on Gales Creek, transacted business in Hillsboro, yesterday.

W. M. Wilcox, who has been visiting relatives in this county for some days past, returned Tuesday to his fruit ranch, near White Salmon, Wash.

Reports on the price of hops this week, are not reassuring. Brewers are slow in buying, and it turns out that the foreign demand will not be as great as was anticipated.

Smoke the Banner cigar, the best 10 cent cigar in the county—and the only 10 cent cigar made in Washington county. Call for it, and help out home industry.—Chas. E. Fish, Mountaineer, Ore.

Mrs. L. V. Sweesy, formerly an instructor in music in Berkeley college, Cal., but now residing in Tacoma, and who is attending the county institute in this city, this week, favored the Argus with a pleasant call Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhoads, of this city, sold their house and lot this week to I. D. Chappelle. The latter and family expect to make Hillsboro their future home. Mr. Chappelle has a string of race horses at the Fair grounds.

"Treasure in Heaven," will be the topic for the morning service, at the Cong. Church. "The Fresh Start," will be the evening topic. Mary Heidel will be leader of the Y. P. S. C. E. which meets at 7 p. m., Sunday. All are welcome.

A SURPRISE

Miss Lizzie Atkinson, daughter of Marshal W. P. Atkinson, was the recipient of a pleasant surprise last Monday night on the occasion of her 17th birthday. A four-horse wagon load of young people from Helvetia, formed the party. Music, games and other entertainment followed, and at midnight a fine dinner was spread, to which all did justice. A feature of the dinner was a cake, 18 inches in diameter, contributed for the occasion by Frank Waibel, of Helvetia.

The following were present: Mollie and Emma Ritter, Page Patton, George Ritter, Dan Wenger Jr., John Junge, Dan Stoller, Verona and Rudolf Teobanz, Frank Waibel, Louise Zurocher, Sarah and Clara Buhler, Emma and Wm Gottlieb, Mike Waifer, Jessie Mays, Emma Cornelius and Lizzie Atkinson.

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliancy vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheeks of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate woman's organs, so surely when these organs are established in health, the face and form improve. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—containing no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers or for those broken-down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening medicine, nicely adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.
