

Argus and Pacific Monthly, $2. W. F. Heberlein, of near Bethany, was an Argus caller Monday.

Miss Lona Christensen, of Portland, visited Miss Fay Commons, over Sunday.

The board of equalization, will pass on the complaints made, after Governor Chamberlain's holidays are over.

H. T. Koerber, of Scholla, was in town Monday. Mr. Koerber will move to the ranch he bought of Mr. Brown, south of town, in a few days.

Peter Grineski, who lives four or five miles north of Buxton, and who is clearing up a mountain home, was in town Monday, and had business with the assessor.

Dan Emerick returned from a visit to his brother, John, at Arlington, Monday. He and Billy McCourts killed a nice bag of geese, while gone. They report that the geese are getting mighty gun-shy in that section.

Nearly all the oats in South Tualatin have been sold this fall. One of the Burkhalters sold 53 tons; Wm. Schulmerich, 100 tons, and Henry Hogrefe, 75 tons. The grain brought $30 per ton, f. o. b., at Hillsboro.

A 12-year-old son of Robert Simpson, of Buxton, while playing with some companions, last Saturday, fell from the top of a fence, and sustained a peculiar break of the right arm. Drs. Linklater and Killingsworth reduced the fracture.

Tom Cornelius, of Salem, was in the city Monday, with a bunch of Eastern Oregon horses. He left Monday evening for Salem. He has been in the bunchgrass country for more than a month, largely for the benefit of his health.

G. A. May, wife and child, of near Mist, were in town Monday. They will visit Mr. May's parents, near Shady Brook, before returning home. He reports the Nebalem as being in a prosperous condition. The P. R. & N. road will pass within a few yards of his home, when completed to the sea.

The little child of H. S. Erwin, who was quite badly burned on the head and face last week, by falling into some hot ashes, is improving, and Dr. A. B. Bailey, the attending physician, thinks the disfigurement following the burns, will not be great. Mr. Erwin lives one mile south of this city.

The Pacific University football team was badly beaten in the game that occurred at Corvallis last Saturday, between the two teams. At the end of the game the score stood O. A. C. 49, Forest Grove, 0. The O. A. C. team like a muddy field, and were accustomed to playing under such conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dixon, of near Forest Grove, celebrated their golden wedding last Saturday. They were married in Iowa, in 1857, and came to this county in 1897, where they have since resided. The following children: Albert, E. A. and Laurence Dixon, and the Misses Clarissa and Anna Dixon, and Mrs. Maud Dixon, all live in this county. Other children are Walter Dixon, of Panama, and L. Dixon, of Salem.

I am now prepared to show you the Chas. Stevens & Bros. samples of new Fall and Winter styles in Ladies' and Misses' dress suits, shirt waist suits, and dress skirts, made to your special order, and of your own selection of goods. Fall and Winter coats also carried. I carry a standard line of corsets and undershirts. I will be glad to bring my goods to your house upon request. Independent phone, No. 264. Mrs. M. E. Caudle.

While chopping wood with another man, near Mountindale, last Saturday, Henry Cypher asked his companion to throw him an axe. The man tossed the axe in Cypher's direction, but in transit, it struck a twig, which diverted the aim, with the result that the keen blade struck Cypher's right knee, cutting an ugly gash thereon. Dr. Linklater was called and attended the wound. Cypher will be laid up for some time.

D. O. Quick, who lives in Benton county, this state, was in town this week. He is visiting with his son, Emmett, at Buxton, and is attending his son, Will, who is just recovering from what threatened to be an attack of typhoid fever. Mr. Quick was one of the pioneer sawmill men of this county, and for many years engaged in the milling business at Mountindale. He has not lived in this county for more than twenty years, and naturally notes some changes.

G. W. Morgan, of Vineland, met with an accident, near Hillsboro, Monday morning, while driving out of town toward his home. A bunchgrass horse, which he was driving, shied at some object along the road, and swerved quickly to one side, throwing the occupant of the buggy out upon his head and shoulders, and inflicting some painful injuries, which rendered him unconscious. He was found lying in the road in that condition, by persons who summoned medical assistance, and took care of him. The team ran away, broke the tongue of the buggy, and one of horses emerged from the mix-up with a broken leg.
