OREGON DAIRYMEN TO MEET SOON

Big Convention Planned for December

SIXTEENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION

Washington County Dairymen will talk

The sixteenth annual convention of Oregon dairymen will meet under the auspices of the Portland Commercial Club, in Portland, on December 12th and 13th. President E. T. Judd, of Turner, will preside.

The Thursday session will hear a talk by Dan Bluer, of Brooks, on "Testing Milk on the Farm." John Dinwiddie, of Woodburn, will speak on "Winter vs. Summer Dairying." To this subject will be given a discussion for 20 minutes, to bring out the views and afford opportunity for an exchange of useful hints on the care of cows and dairy products. L. B. Zinger, of Tillamook, will talk on the "Necessity for Clean Milk," and his address will conclude the forenoon session.

In the afternoon T. S. Townsend, of Portland, will discuss "Care of Cream for Shipment," and there will be a 20-minute exchange of views on this subject. "Succulent Feed for Winter" will be described by William Schulmerich, of Hillsboro. The interesting topic of "Milk with a Machine" will be presented by Mrs. S. A. Yoakum, of Marshfield. "The Dairy Cow at Home and Abroad" will be discussed by Joseph E. Wing, of Mechanicburg, Ohio, who will make a few observations on the different methods of dairying in Oregon and the eastern states.

ATTEMPTED HOLDUP

Last Friday night, about 11 o'clock, as L. J. Palmateer, of this place, started to pass to the rear of his confectionery store on Second St., to go upstairs to his living rooms, a man stepped out from the shadows, and ordered him to throw up his hands, at the same time discharging a revolver in his direction, the bullet from which, Mr. Palmateer says, passed within a short distance from his head. Being armed, Mr. Palmateer began firing at his assailant, who lost no time in making his getaway. Mr. Palmateer thinks one of the shots must have hit the hold-up, as he was heard to utter a curse, as he ran. The robber's shot went through a woodshed, and struck the jamb of a door leading into the rear of F. M. Heide's real estate office. It was too dark for Mr. Palmateer to get much of a description of the hold-up, and while he has his suspicions, as to the identity of the man, he is not sure. The man made his escape in a passage way, to the rear of the Bigelow Hotel. Whoever he was, the fellow must have been familiar with the premises, as in his getaway, he dodged a board, which was nailed across the passage way, which probably would have stopped him rather suddenly in his flight, had he not been familiar with the premises.

Argus and Journal, $2.25.

Dave Wenger was in from Helvetia, Monday.

Art. Shute visited Portland on Tuesday.

James Robb was in from Centerville, Tuesday.

Postmaster B. P. Cornelius and Sheriff Connell attended the funeral of Mrs. Meacham, Tuesday.

For sale: Twenty five pigs, 8 weeks old. Inquire at my place near west end of Long bridge, between Hillsboro and Cornelius.—W. H. Taylor.

The sight of a million dollars in gold coin, in bags, hauled on a truck through the streets of Portland, last Saturday, to the First National Bank, did something in the matter of restoring confidence in that city, and in the state generally. And they say there is more to follow.

Fine line of Hamilton-Brown shoes, at John Dennis's.

L. M. Commons and wife spent Sunday in Newberg.

W. N. Barrett and wife spent Tuesday in Portland.

Aquapelle horse and lap covers, for sale by Carlile. 35-6

Ralph Uglov, of Mountaineer, was in the city, Monday.

Go to Webb & Hoover for stock food.

Oregon cedar and yellow fir are said to make the best of violins.

Before you buy your toilet soaps, take a look at the line at the Hillsboro Pharmacy.

Born, to the wife of Christoff Hiller, of near Reedville, Nov. 14, 1907, a daughter.

Sheep, hogs and beef cattle bought. Independent Telephone, 551, Beaverton.—J. G. Haynes.

Peter Smoker, a prominent Helvetia dairyman, was in town, Monday, on business.

Sam Kunz, the Bethany merchant, was a county seat visitor, Monday.

J. K. French, of near Roy, has sold his farm to C. Griffin, late of Missouri, the price being $3,000.

Go to Greer's for your groceries. He has everything that is kept in a first-class grocery store. 34-1f

Claus Jesse, of near Banks, was in town, Monday, and reports everything going along smoothly up that way.

R. H. Walker, one of the heavy taxpayers of this county, was in Monday from his ranch near Cedar Mill.

Mrs. Josephine Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. West, of Portland, visited the Bigelows the first part of the week.

Wesley Payne, of Glencoe, one of the leading stockmen of this county, was in town Monday, transacting business.

We will dispose of our entire line of men's suits at cost. Here is a chance to dress well at a small value.—Schulmerich Bros. 35-1f

G. C. Ong, lately from Germany, was in the city the first of the week, looking for a location to engage in the stock business.

The P. R. & N. Railroad Company is operating the Hillsboro end of the road regularly. Logs are coming in to the local mill, which is running on full time.

J. S. Steinke, of Minter bridge, was in town Monday, and reports that he raised some gigantic potatoes, one of which weighed three and one-half pounds.

Herman Osterman, the popular Centerville merchant, called Monday. The dance and shooting match at that place, last week, was a big success in every respect.

For Sale: Fifty acres cleared land in the vicinity of Hillsboro, on rural mail and milk route; near telephone line. Fine location; good building site.—Inquire of Argus.

According to the Governor's proclamation, all of this week is under the holiday lid. Legal business is badly tied up, and there is considerable grumbling in consequence. A number of real estate sales are pending in this place.

Just received at Morton's Plant and Flower Gardens, a choice lot of fruit trees, from 1 to 3 years old. These trees are free from aphid and other pests. Also a lot of fine roses from Stimpson's Rose Nursery. Call and see them. 35-1f

Mrs. B. E. Dunning, of Forest Grove, who died at the Patton Home, in Portland, on the 18th inst, was buried at Forest Grove, Tuesday. Mrs. Dunning was 81 years old, and had been a resident of this county for more than twenty years.

Farmers are busy plowing and seeding during the fine weather. White winter wheat and fall oats are the principal grain crops. Many farmers are trying the Blue Stem wheat, this fall, as it yields better than other varieties, and brings 2 or 3 cents more in the market, for milling purposes.

Portland clearing house certificates in large and small denominations are circulating freely in this city. They are backed by the Portland Clearing House Association, and back of them are the wheat, salmon, and other commodities of the northwest, and are redeemable in coin, February 8.

The thirteen year old son of Joseph Boyd, of near Dilley, accidentally discharged a shotgun one day last week, the right hand of passing through the right hand of his little five year old sister, badly mangle the member. It is possible that amputation may be necessary in order to save it.

"MOTHER OF OREGON" SENDS GREETINGS

To Methodist General Committee, Portland

CENTENNARIAN GRANDMA WOOD

is Oldest Living Methodist, and is a Resident of this city

Mrs. Mary Ramsay Wood, of Hillsboro, the oldest woman in the world, sent greetings, Monday, to the Methodist United States General Church Extension Committee, now in session in Portland, and Rev. L. F. Belknap, local pastor, carried the message. Upon motion of Bishop Wilson the meeting acknowledged the greeting, and extended its felicitations to the aged woman who has the distinction of being a Methodist for over a century. A committee of Bishops came out and called on the old lady. It is unnecessary to publish the fact for local readers, that if Mrs. Wood shall live until next May she will be 121 years old. It is claimed for her that she has been a Methodist for 108 years.

MASS MEETING

Notice to Legal Voters: There will be held in the City of Hillsboro, at the City Hall, on Monday, November 25, 1907, beginning at 8 p. m., a mass meeting of the legal voters of the City of Hillsboro for the purpose of nominating a city ticket, consisting of Mayor, for the term of one year; three councilmen for the term of two years; city recorder and city treasurer for terms of one year, and for the transaction of any other business that may properly come before such meeting.

By order of the City Council. Dated at Hillsboro, Oregon, November 21, 1907.

John Dennis, Mayor.

T. R. Ratcliffe, of Scholla, was a county seat visitor, Friday, and gave the Argus a pleasant call.

Edward Waite and Maud Davis, of Hillsboro, were given authority to wed, by the county clerk, on November 16th.

A marriage license was issued on November 15th, to W. F. McCoy, of Forest Grove, and Kita Dilley, of the same place.

Benjamin Birdsall, of Forest Grove, was in town Saturday, visiting his daughters, Meadames McCormick and Dennis.

Smokers like the Schiller and the Excellence. These cigars are of the best stock. You can't fool an authority on a good cigar.

Pearl and Harold Greear, of this city, started to San Diego, California, last Wednesday, to join their parents at the latter place. They will remain some time.

"Balm of Myrrh," a guaranteed remedy for sore shoulders on horses. Money refunded if not satisfactory. For sale by A. M. Carlile. 35-6

C. Blaser opened his skating rink in the building formerly occupied by the Greer grocery, Saturday night, a large crowd being in attendance.

Jos. Hayes and wife, of Sheridan, were in the city, Monday, on business. They formerly resided at Glencoe and Forest Grove, and lately owned the Varley place, west of town.

For gentlemen's, ladies' and children's hose you can do no better than to buy of John Dennis. We have them for everybody, and at prices that are values.

E. E. Lytle and wife, and their son-in-law, J. E. Ellis, and wife, of Portland, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lytle, of Hillsboro. Mr. E. E. Lytle is president of the P. E. & N. railroad.

Lost—On the Nehalem road, between Banks and the upper railroad camp, a 12x14 heavy duck tent, nearly new. Finder will please leave word at Argus office, or with Turner Brothers, at Banks.

T. C. Wadsworth, cashier of the American Type, Portland, was out Sunday, accompanied by his wife and children. While here Mr. W. went out and looked at a ranch in the Maple Hill section, with the view of possible purchase.

W. O. Donelson is building a neat bungalow on his property, at the corner of Third and Maple streets. The main building will be 26x30, with a kitchen, 14x16. The building will cost, when completed, in the neighborhood of $1200, and will be a credit to the town.

Five cases of typhoid fever are reported in one family near Reedville. The sick people arrived lately from Minnesota, and the physicians believe they contracted the disease before they left that state. The principal cause of typhoid fever is impure water. This often occurs when water gets too low in the wells. When persons have a suspicion of impure water, they should boil all used for drinking purposes. This is the advice of the physicians.

H. D. and E. E. Schmeltzer, who spent about six weeks visiting relatives and friends in Iowa and Texas, returned to Hillsboro last Saturday. They came home by the way of California, and report a pleasant trip. The only disagreeable feature of the trip was when they reached Los Angeles, California, and attempted to get some checks cashed. The banks there refused to cash checks on Oregon banks, but they found some friends who would, so they got home all right. The boys say that Oregon looks good to them.

THIS COUNTY WINS FIRST APPLE PRIZES

At Big Red Pippin Show in Portland

STRICTLY A VALLEY ORGANIZATION

Atwell, Forest Grove; and Overholtzer, Tigardville, win cups

An exhibit of the apple product of eleven Willamette Valley counties was made in Olds, Wortman & King's store, in Portland, November 14, 1907. The prizes given, consisted of cups, which were awarded as follows:

- Box of Baldwins, Homer C. Atwell, of Forest Grove, and present postmaster at that place.
- Box of King, J. M. Overholtzer, of Tigardville.
- Box of Spitzenbergs, Wallace estate, Polk County.
- Box of Jonathans, E. Keebler, Lebanon.
- Box of Northern Spy, C. J. Tidcomb, Skappoose.
- Box Ben Davis, J. F. Peebler, Albany.
- Box of Gano, L. T. Reynolds, Salem.
- Arkansas Black, D. C. Van Dorn, Dayton.

Best packed box of apples, Miss Ceila Kirk, McMinnville. As will be seen two of the cups were carried away by Washington county growers, which speaks well for the soil and climate. The exhibit was better than a Hood River exhibit, held at the same time, at another place in the city. Hood River apples are not as good as the valley, having neither the bouquet nor beautiful coloring.

To J. N. Overholtzer, of near Tigardville, and H. C. Atwell, of the Grove, belong the credit for this splendid advertisement of Washington County as an apple section, and that we have won first prize on two of the leading varieties of apples, is an honor and distinction worth having.

An association of the valley growers was formed at the Imperial Hotel, Nov. 14th. Milton O. Lowndale, of Lafayette, was elected president; L. T. Reynolds, of Salem, was made secretary and treasurer. There were vice-presidents chosen from every county in the valley, as follows: Lane, J. H. Bushnell, Junction City; Linn, H. Bryant, Albany; Benton, D. W. Rumbaugh, Corvallis; Marion, C. A. Park, Salem; Polk, Paul Wallace, Zena; Washington, H. C. Atwell, Forest Grove; Yamhill, H. C. Van Dorn, Dayton; Columbia, A. Holladay; Multnomah, H. C. Doech, Portland.

WILSON WHITMORE

Wilson Whitmore, of this city, after an illness of several weeks, died at the family home, November 15, 1907, interment being in the local cemetery, Sunday. Deceased was born in Coshocton County, Ohio, October 26, 1832. Moving to Iowa in youth, he was wedded to Ellen Coesel, in 1854, and to this union were born three children, one of whom, Jacob Whitmore, of Hillsboro, survives. He was again married, in 1868, to Rebecca Fleming, at Bladensburg, Iowa, two children being born to them, Tiberius Whitmore, and Mrs. Nora Miller, both being deceased. The family came to Oregon in 1871, and settled on a homestead near Laurel. They resided there continuously, except a time spent at Newberg and Golden-dale, and the last year or so in this city. Mr. Whitmore was highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. His widow survives.

A dispatch from Seattle, dated the 17th inst., says that the Hawaiian girls, who were entertained in Hillsboro some time ago, got into trouble while returning from a trip to Alaska on the steamer Jefferson, bound from Juneau, Alaska, to Seattle. The girls tendered drafts on Honolulu, for their fare, which were refused by the steamship officials, so that the girls are in the position of stowaways. The fair maidens, however, are under the protection of some big hearted miners, who are coming down to Portland and Seattle to spend the winter, and who promise to settle the matter of fare when Seattle is reached. Mrs. Weathered, who is a sister of Leroy Tozier, appealed to him, and in spite of the protests of the steamship officers, the girls were taken aboard. The fair Hawaiians had not figured on meeting a money stringency, when they left home, and the steamship company did not want to accept exchange on the Honolulu banks.
