Alfred Guerber, of the Swiss settlement, at Helvetia, transacted business in town Saturday. Wild strawberry blossoms at this time of year are not an uncommon sight in this part of Oregon. O. Sundin, formerly of Tillamook, but now of near West Union, was in town Saturday on business. Charley Meacham, of near Hillsboro, was in town Saturday. He was formerly a Mountindale farmer. Do you want a buggy? We have the finest line ever shown in this county.—Schulmerich Bros. Peter Grossen, of Lenox, was a county seat visitor Saturday. Mr. Grossen is secretary of the German Fire Insurance Company, of both any. Mr. Gardner, formerly with the Oregon Trust & Saving Co., has accepted a position with the Hillsboro Lumber Company of this place. Miss Marie Tunzai, a stenographer with Bagley & Hare, will visit with friends and relatives at Portland and St. John for the next week or two. A number of farmers were in the city, Saturday, receiving fruit trees. Many of the best varieties of apple trees are being set out in this vicinity this week. Saturday was a lively one in the city. The town was full of people, from all points of the compass, trading, and attending to business. The stores were crowded all day. For Sale—Table and stock beets, table and stock carrots, cabbage and tomatoes. Delivered. Phone. Pacific States, 57.—N. W. Chilcott and W. H. Marden. 34-41 John D. Thomas, a well known Hillsboro boy, who is attending the National Law School at Washington, D. C., has made application to become a Federal land clerk under the civil service rules. John Kamna and wife, of Farmington, were agreeably surprised last Friday night by an inrush of friends and neighbors, who proceeded to help them celebrate their 18th wedding anniversary in a most pleasant manner. Willis Waggener, of Nyebrook, Lincoln county, was in town Monday and Tuesday, the guest of his brother, Rufus Waggener, of the Tuslatin Hotel. Willis had in his possession some of the finest New-Port agates the writer has ever seen. He says the early spring is the best time to find good agates, as the tides are higher and the agate beds are more apt to be uncovered at such a time. I am now prepared to show you the Chas. Stevens & Bros. samples of new Fall and Winter styles in Ladies' and Misses' dress suits, shirt waist suits, and dress skirts, made to your special order, and of your own selection of goods. Fall and Winter coats also carried. I carry a standard line of corsets and undershirts. I will be glad to bring my goods to your house upon request. Independent phone, No. 264. Mrs. M. E. Caudle. John Fisher and wife, of near West Union, were in town Saturday. John bought a new farm near West Union, some time ago, and while cleaning up around the place he found an old German bible, which he purposes to exhibit at the next Hillsboro fair. John is reading the same diligently of late, and has got along as far as the seventh book of Moses, and is so interested about the Jews that he doesn't bear his wife call him to supper more than half the time. Chas. Schmidt, a German resident of near Phillips, aged about eighty years, met with a peculiar accident last Saturday, while working on his ranch, about a half mile from his house. He cut down a small tree on the bank of Rock creek, when the tree kicked back the butt of the same, catching the old gentleman on the right leg, breaking both bones below the knee, causing what is known as a compound fracture. The wound was a bad one, the bones protruding from it. Mr. Schmidt called for help, for some time, without receiving any, when he started to his house. He finally reached the road in front of his house, when he attracted the attention of some passers by, and was assisted to his home. Dr. Tamielie was called to attend the old gentleman's injuries, and unless other complications should ensue, he will recover.
