

Argus and Journal, $2.25.

Fred Hamel, of West Union, was in the city Monday, and called.

Dan Stoller, of Helvetia, was down to the county seat, Friday.

Miss Stella Boscow, stenographer with a Portland wholesale house, spent Sunday at home.

Do you want a buggy? We have the finest lines ever shown in this county.—Schulmerich Bros.

George and Chester Alexander, of Portland, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Koonz, of this place.

Miss Anna Connell returned to Portland, Sunday, to resume her position as cashier in a department store.

Wm. Josse, of near Lenox, was a county seat visitor Monday. Farmers are about through seeding in his section.

Isaac Ennes, who is now ranching over in the Iowa Hill section, was greeting friends in the county seat, Monday.

A. A. Phillips, of Portland, is stopping with his mother in this city, and incidentally looking for a job of brick masonry.

Miss Foster and the Misses Georgia and Minnie Wise, of Portland, were out Sunday, guests of Misses Madge and Letitia Imbrie.

Walter Hoge, former editor of the Forest Grove Times, but now in the real estate business at the Grove, was in town Monday.

Miss Edith Slusher and Miss Alice Wehrung, attending St. Helen's Hall, were guests at the home of Miss Wehrung's parents, Sunday.

Kurati Bros. last week sold the following pieces of real estate: the Wilhelm Richter 5-acre tract in East Hillsboro, to Frank Daly; and the O Sundin tract of 20 acres, to John Fieber, of West Union.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Herman Reese and Lena Liebenow, Blooming; W. N. Hathorn and Mary J. Mulloy, Laurel, license to the first couple having been issued on the 25th, and to the last couple on the 23rd inst.

A little daughter of J. B. Thompson, of Mountaineer, accidentally fell from her high chair to the floor, last Sunday, striking upon her head. It was feared that she had sustained a fracture of the skull, but Dr. F. A. Bailey, of this city, who was called, said the child had received only a severe concussion, and it is hoped she will get along allright.

The Argus acknowledges receipt of the third annual edition of the Planetary Guide, for 1908, by Llewellyn George, Astrologer. Mr. George makes astrology easy for the beginner. He is a well known newspaper man and printer of Portland, who has taken front rank in this new-old science, and who is not to be confounded with fake exponents of the science. Address Portland School of Astrology, I. Hulery Fletcher, director, Portland, Oregon.

I am now prepared to show you the Chas. Stevens & Bros. samples of new Fall and Winter styles in Ladies' and Misses' dress suits, shirt waist suits, and dress skirts, made to your special order, and of your own selection of goods. Fall and Winter coats also carried. I carry a standard line of corsets and underkirts. I will be glad to bring my goods to your house upon request. Independent phone, No. 264. Mrs. M. E. Caudle.

Paul Fitch, the nine-year-old son of Justice of the Peace Fitch, of Cornelius, was struck by the west-bound train, Monday morning, and thrown upon the cement sidewalk near by, on his head, sustaining severe bruises and a partial fracture of the skull. The boy met with his accident while attempting to cross in front of the approaching train, but was not quick enough to avoid it. Dr. A. B. Bailey, of this city, was called, and attended to the boy's injuries, which are not considered particularly dangerous at this time.

Judge A. C. Archbold, of this city, recently received a copy of the Daily Commercial-News, of Danville, Illinois, which contains a big illustration of the great Harrison and Morton ball, which was made by I. N. Archbold, of Danville, the Judge's brother. The ball, which was an immense thing, was rolled over a large part of the state, but finally it met with an accident that put it out of commission. Speaker Cannon and other prominent republicans were present when the ball started, and made speeches. It was built during the 1888 presidential campaign. The emblem was easily the greatest of that campaign.

Wm. Schulmerich returned home from a lecturing trip up the Valley Sunday night, and was in Hillsboro Monday. Asked for his opinion of dairying and farming up the Valley, Mr. Schulmerich said: "Washington county is way ahead of other portions of the Willamette Valley. In many places they are still raising 'cheat, wheat and oats,' and land is selling at from $20 to $30 per acre. There are many old tumbledown houses and barns, that give the country a bad appearance to strangers coming to the country. I want to say that Washington county has more fine farm houses and barns than any county in Oregon. And the cows did it all."
