NO. 45

THE TAX ROLL SOON TO BE WITH SHERIFF

Extension of Levy Concluded by February 1

MAX CRANDALL BUSY FIGURING

County Revenue Soon Will be Kelling Into County Seat

Max Crandall, who has been hard at work on the taxroll for 1907, reports that he expects to conclude the extensions by February 1, or shortly after, and the books will then be ready for turning over to Sheriff Connell for collection. The levy is 93 mills, based upon a valuation of $16,592,774, and raises, for state, county and general school purposes, an aggregate of $154,311. In addition to this there are the special road and school district levies, which will run the total up to at least $180,000.

Mr. Crandall, who was awarded the task of computation, is assisted by Mrs. Crandall, and he is working strenuously to complete his labors by the first of the month.

Once the roll reaches the sheriff's office that official will soon be in readiness to make collections.

NOTICE TO FRUIT GROWERS

The fruit inspector of this county has found that almost all trees are infested with fruit pests, and the law requires the owners, or persons having possession thereof, to destroy or eradicate such orchards or pests. You are, therefore, notified that unless such orchards or pests are destroyed or eradicated before the first day of March, 1908, I will proceed, under the law, to either destroy or destroy such orchards, or have the trees sprayed at the owner's expense.

W. R. Harris,
County Fruit Inspector.

MRS. MARY E. HAGUE

Mrs. Mary E. Hague, a resident of Forest Grove for the past 20 years, died at that place Saturday, aged 88 years. She was born near Prescott, Ontario, and came here from Nebraska in 1884. Her maiden name was Mary E. Stipes. In 1845, at Norfolk, N. Y., she was married to Oliver Stowell, who died in 1848. Five years later she married John Hague, who died in 1866. One daughter, Mrs. Susan E. Rex, who resides at Omaha, Nebraska, survives her. Interment was in the Buxton cemetery Monday.

The social and dance held at Centerville, on the 11th inst., was a success, and was much enjoyed by those present and participating. The sum of $68 was taken in by the management, which was donated to the pastor of St. Matthews Catholic church, in Hillsboro.

M. D. Follotte, a Portland landryman, was in town Saturday, looking over Hillsboro as a possible location. He talked with a number of business men, and expressed himself as well pleased with the outlook, so much so that he may bring a plant to the city.

The local branch of the Pacific Hop Growers' Association, will meet at the court house next Saturday, for the purpose of securing more acreage. Committees are expected to report at that time. It is reported that 90 per cent of the hop growers of Marion county have become members of the association.

One of the sledges used by the burglars recently, for breaking open the safe at the Crescent Mills, and destroying the combinations of the safes at the depot and postoffice at Forest Grove, was found Saturday, near the depot at that place, by a Mr. Ward, with the handle showing out of a pool into which it had been thrown.

J. R. Shepard, of Salem, representing the Willamette Valley Development League, was in the city Saturday. He is an old newspaper man, and successful Oregon fruit grower, and is trying to secure 1000 acres, based upon fact and resource, which, when written up and disseminated in the East, will bring to this valley 50,000 home-seekers. While here he talked with President Tamies, of the local Board of Trade, in the hope of securing co-operation.

FORMER WASHINGTON CO. MAN ON ROCKPILE

Myron Beard, Wife Beater, Gets Four Months

ESCAPES THE WHIPPING POST

Beard Lived in This County for Many Years

The municipal court of Portland probably saved Myron Beard, a former Washington county man, from the whipping post, by sentencing him to four months hard labor on the rockpile at Kelly's Butte. Beard was arrested for cruelly beating his wife, in Portland, and on Monday of this week was brought before Judge Cameron, who gave him the above sentence. Beard did not bear a savory reputation when he resided in this county. He, with his family, occupied a house near the race track, at one time, and was well known in Hillsboro, and in the Banks section, having resided there several years.

E. B. TONGUE A CANDIDATE

E. B. Tongue, of this city, is the only candidate in this county, so far as heard from, for the republican primary nomination for District Attorney, and the Argus, therefore, feels free to recommend him for that important position. His ability to fill the office is unquestioned. And the further fact, that it is now Washington county's turn to have the office, makes him at once the logical and legitimate candidate for the position.

The following state offices are now held by residents of Astoria: C. W. Fulton, United States Senator; H. G. Vandusen, Master Fish Warden; Alfred C. Kinney, Member State Board of Health; R. K. Wallace, Member Barbers' Board of Examiners; Samuel Blumore, Board of Commissioner of the Port of Columbia; Frank J. Taylor, A. W. Pendleton, Albert C. Ross, being three out of four members constituting the State Board of Pilot Commissioners; Oswald West, a member of the Railroad Commissioners; F. I. Dunbar has just finished two terms of the office of Secretary of State, and Harrison Allen was elected to two terms of the office of District Attorney, the second term expiring on the 1st of next July. When Mr. Allen was first elected to the office, the term of said office was for a period of two years, but during his term it was increased to four, and Mr. Allen was therefore elected to what was equivalent to four terms of the office, as the same was held by Mr. Cleaton, Mr. Barrett, Mr. McBride, and others.

It has always been the custom among the counties, to allow the District Attorney's office to go in rotation to the different counties comprising the district, it is now Washington county's turn to have it. Washington county's last candidate only had it four years; Clatsop county's last candidate had it for eight years, and therefore it would seem that Clatsop county, on this account alone, has no claim to the office at this time. Washington county has always stood loyally by the candidates of Clatsop county for this office, and it was the support of Washington county that gave Mr. Allen the office in the first instance. This county always has supported Mr. Fulton and Mr. Dunbar also, and Washington county certainly has a right to expect assistance at the hands of friends of these gentlemen, in their own county.

The office of District Attorney is getting to be a very important one, and ought to be filled by a lawyer of considerable experience, and it is said that Mr. McJue has never practiced law in his life, until he received the appointment as Mr. Hedges' assistant, a few months ago, and the voters of Washington County should see to it that their own County lands this nomination, and they ought to impress upon Clatsop county that they expect her assistance.

E. B. Tongue has filed with the Secretary of State, his declaration of nomination, and which contains, among other things, a short, compact platform direct to the point, which reads as follows: "If I am nominated and elected I will, during my term of office, honestly, vigorously and impartially perform all the official duties of the office of District Attorney, without fear or favor, endeavoring always to accord to every individual, irrespective of party, politics or personalities, a square deal under the law, keeping always uppermost in my mind the interest of the tax-payers in said District and State."

W. H. Ringle, who has been superintendent of the city water and light plant for some time, has resigned his position, and Albert S. Hall, Portland, has been appointed to succeed him. Mr. Hall comes highly recommended by the General Electric Co., one of the largest concerns in the United States, and he will probably take active charge of the plant about the first of the month. It is reported that Mr. Ringle will remain until the new superintendent becomes familiar with the system.

W. O. Donelson and wife departed today on the southbound Overland, for California, for a six weeks' pleasure trip. They expect to visit all the principal points of interest in the state, including a trip to the San Catalina Islands.

Dr. George Merryman, of Klamath Falls, Oregon, a former Hillsboro boy, is prominently mentioned for the office of joint senator for the counties of Lake, Crook and Klamath. Dr. Merryman was a member of the legislature from Klamath county two years ago. His many friends here hope he will win.

Trullinger & Trullinger, who erected a large building on Third street, between Main and Lincoln, last Fall, have installed a part of their machinery, and will put in the remainder early in the Spring. They will make a specialty of screen doors, window frames, etc., and may go into the manufacture of furniture later on. They have come to stay, and say they will have plenty of work when they get all their machinery in shape, ready for business.

DAIRY PRODUCTS RUN INTO MANY MILLIONS

Will Reach Fifty Millions Next Decade

OVER SEVENTEEN MILLIONS NOW

United Efforts of Association Pushing Industry

"The dairy products of Oregon ought to increase from $17,000,000 in 1907 to $50,000,000 in another ten years," says W. L. Crissey, of the Oregon State Dairy Association in his circular issued this week, "and it is our united efforts as an association that will accomplish this." Mr. Crissey is seeking to add new members to the association. The dues are only $1 a year, and that is the only fee. Washington county is easily the greatest milk producing county in the state, and the dairy business is making wonderful strides forward. Its two large condensed milk plants consume most of the milk output at present, but there are still other channels in which any surplus milk could be utilized. The dairies in this county are continually increasing, and the business is now the leading one here.

At the conclusion of the lecture, the members of the lodge and visiting brethren, were invited by the refreshments committee to the Bigelow Hotel, where a banquet awaited them. Mr. Yoran went from here to Forest Grove, on Tuesday, where he paid an official visit to Holbrook Lodge, of that place.

Clearing Up Sale

Herman Osterman & Co., of Centerville, will begin a clearing up sale on January 1, 1908, which will be continued until all the stock is sold. A $3000 stock of general merchandise will be sold at the cost price. Enough said.

Herman Osterman & Co., 41-4f Centerville, Ore.

Dallas, in our neighboring county, Polk, has decided to have a fruit cannery. The cannery will be operated on the co-operative plan. Washington county ought to have a fruit cannery. Why cannot the granges of this county take hold of the matter, and organize a grangers' co-operative cannery? They would make it go, as they already have the organization to start with. The establishment of a cannery would further stimulate the raising of small fruits in this county. Polk county has a large acreage in Logan berries, and a cannery could run on those berries the greater part of the season, with profit. Strawberries is another profitable crop for canning purposes.

Agent Vickers sold tickets to the following named persons from Forest Grove last Monday: Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McNeal, and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wright. The former go to North Platte, Nebraska, and the latter to Galloway, Nebraska.
