WHAT ABOUT JOINT SENATOR

According to the redistricting of Senatorial territory at the last legislature, Washington, Lincoln, Tillamook and Yamhill counties are hooked up together in one joint senatorial district. A correspondent from Yamhill county, in the Oregonian recently said that it was expected in that part of the district, that Washington county would furnish the candidate this year. Whether this means that Yamhill is willing to back up and stay out of the race, or whether the expression was a feeler to see how many candidates this county had for the place, is a question. If Yamhill wants Washington county to furnish the republican candidate, we presume that enough Barkises will be found among our people who are "willin'." Don't all speak at once.

Senator Bourne has issued an appeal to republican voters to support Statement No. 1 candidates, and Fulton is opposing the statement. If the fight keeps up in the party, there is a possibility that the democratic mule will be found eating hay in the elephant's stall, after the election. Let us have harmony.

It is reported that Br'er Mulkey, who became an early candidate for United States Senator, and then had a relapse, is once more grooming himself for the race. He distributed his picture on calendars before, but there is a chance that he may try blotting pads, next time.

The contest for the republican primary nominations in this county should be of a friendly character. There is no cause for bitterness or bad feeling. Fight it out in a friendly way, and then support the winner.

The Argus will later on give a sketch of each of the candidates, whose cards are published in its columns.

If nominated and elected I pledge fair and courteous treatment to all. Being familiar with the duties of the office, I feel that I can serve the people, if elected, in a satisfactory manner. Hillsboro, Oregon.

County Clerk

I hereby announce myself as a Republican candidate for the office of County Clerk of Washington County, Oregon, subject to the endorsement of the Republican Primary election to be held in said County, on April 17, 1908. If elected, I promise a careful, economical administration of the affairs of that office, efficient service and faithful performance of duty. E. J. GODMAN.

A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry-bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchitis, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherry-bark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe asthma, hang-cough, chronic coughs, bronchitis, whooping cough, and croup, and relieve the blood, curing blotches, pimples, eruptions, scurvy, swellings and sore throats or ulcers.

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine: "In dropsical it serves an excellent purpose. Holding a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon encysted, disordered, serous sacs, especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastric inflammation of the stomach. It is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of prostatic hypertrophy and excessive gastric acidity."

"Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood, curing blotches, pimples, eruptions, scurvy, swellings and sore throats or ulcers.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the medicinal roots composing this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.
