

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS.

HILLSBORO, OREGON, MARCH 5, 1908.

OL. XIV.

BRIEF SKETCH OF THE COUNTY CANDIDATES

Argus has no Favorite to Room—No One to Fight

ARGUMENT POLITICS FOR OTHERS
All Give all Primary Candidates Equal Show
The Argus has no "pets" to puff, and no slurs for any of the republican candidates who have announced themselves in its columns. It believes that all candidates should go before the voters at an equal footing, and take their chances. While the Argus may have a choice among men, who are, or who may be, good candidates, it does not propose to stir up strife among candidates of its own party. The contention for nominations at the primaries should be good natured, and the nominees should be elected. "Bush-backing" men whom it may not like, will not be a feature of the Argus' policy during the primaries, or at any other time. Let all have a square deal, and may the peoples' choice win.

For Clerk, W. D. Smith and E. J. Coleman are in the field, with others to come from both. Both are capable and competent, and each has a strong following of friends. Both are republicans, and the voters will have a chance to nominate the man they want. For Assessor, there is Geo. Wilcox, the capable present incumbent; Max Crandall, a well known Hillsboro boy, and C. E. Deichman—all good men, and all well qualified for the position. They cannot all get it, so the people will have to decide on one. The Argus will support the nominee, and terms of friends, will follow the nomination. For Sheriff, John Smith and Geo. C. Hancock are in the race. All are first class men and good republicans, and any one of them will make a good sheriff. The voters must make their choice. For Treasurer, Wm. M. Jackson and H. G. King are pitted against each other for the office. Each man has a strong following of friends, and the race will be to the hilt. Both are good men. For Commissioner from the West end of the county, John McClaran has announced his candidacy in the Argus. Mr. McClaran is thoroughly competent and would make a first class commissioner.

For District Attorney, E. B. Tongue has no competitors in this county, and from all accounts, he will easily win the nomination. Burke will get a big vote in this county, as well as elsewhere. Dr. W. D. Wood, candidate for State Senator, is a Hillsboro man, born and reared in this county. He has a large following of friends, who are anxious to see him nominated and elected. He is capable and will poll a big vote. No other candidates have as yet filed petitions for that office.

For Representatives, S. A. D. Meek, of Glencoe; R. H. Greer, of Hillsboro, and Wm. McQuillan, of Farmington, have filed their primary petitions, and are in the race for the above office. Washington sends three representatives and one senator, and one senator joint with other counties.

LEONARD-HAWKINS

On last Sunday morning a large number of friends and relatives assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Hawkins, in Laurel, to witness the marriage of their daughter, Miss Nellie, to L. A. Leonard, of Portland. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Campbell, Miss Anna Messenger acting as bridesmaid, and Charles Hawkins as best man. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Frank Crabtree.
After congratulating the happy couple, the company partook of a splendid repast.
The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful presents.
Mr. and Mrs. Leonard will make their home in Portland.

FIELD DEPUTIES

County Assessor Geo. H. Wilcox has appointed the following persons to assess Washington county, the current year. Two or three of the men are already in the field, at work. Mr. Wilcox will assess the city of Hillsboro himself. J. B. Imley will take care of the territory embraced in township 1 south, 2 west, and 1 south and 1 west; S. N. Pools will look after the southeast part of the county; H. E. Coleman, three townships north of Hillsboro, and the two townships south of town; H. T. Buxton will assess Forest Grove, and the southwest part of the county; A. B. Davis will see to the northwest part of the county.

Neil P. Neilsen was in from Buxton, Monday.
John Pearson, of Reedville, was in town Tuesday.
H. T. Bagley returned Sunday from a trip to The Dalles, and Collins, Wash., where he went on business.

Argus and Oregonian, $2.25.
Herman Collier, of Scholls, was in town Saturday.
W. P. Beard, of near Banks, was in town Saturday.
Chris. Zuercher, of near Cedar Mill, was a Hillsboro visitor Saturday.

We handle the Utah Land Plaster.—Frank & Borwick, Reedville, Ore.
Miss Lena Toke, of Buxton, who has been visiting friends at North Yamhill, spent Sunday with Miss Eunice Paisley.
Wanted—Bull, 18 months, or 2 years old. Short-horn preferred.—Moretz Schmidt, Hillsboro, Ore., R. 1, Box 51.
Miss Minnie Abbott departed, Sunday, for a fortnight's visit with her sister, Mrs. L. N. Gillett, who resides at Littel, Washington.
Jacob Reichen, of beyond West Union, and who is road supervisor for Washington precinct, was in the city, Monday.
For Sale—Ten milk cows, all fresh this spring, or early in summer. Good milkers.—Henry Hennagin, 2 miles southeast of Reedville.
A Gaston cow recently gave birth to an eyeless calf, and now Forest Grove comes to the front with a turkey with five legs. This must be a freak year.
Walter Hoge, of Forest Grove, has bought a half interest in the job printing establishment of Christie & Curran, of Portland, and will remove to that place. Mr. Curran is well known in Hillsboro.
Hon. Elmer Connell, of Deer Island, Columbia county, was in Hillsboro Monday, looking after interests here, and incidentally paying taxes on his property in this county.
For Sale—Alsaie and Red Clover seed, Vetch and Swedish Select seed oats, at reasonable prices.—Wm. Chalmers, 1 1/2 miles south of Glencoe. Pacific States' phone, No. 7x3.
N. N. Gassner, of near Beaverton, was in the city, Monday, and called He says that Beaverton is considering the question of a fruit cannery—a thing Hillsboro might consider with profit.
Any one wishing to purchase a gasoline engine should call on Schulmerich Bros. We have a sample at our store. Come and see it operated. We are agents for the International, the strongest and best engine made.
C. E. Shinn, wife and child, who have been visiting Mr. Shinn's uncle, S. A. D. Meek, of Glencoe, since Christmas, returned Monday to their home at Fletcher, Idaho. Mr. Shinn says the Fletcher county is blooming like the proverbial rose.
Why not get some good layers? Blue Andalusians, winners at leading shows. Pullets and cockerels for sale. Eggs, $1.50 for setting of 13. Schmidt & Kuliech, 2 1/2 miles northwest of Beaverton, on Baseline road.
Mrs. Delia Laughlin Smith, of North Yamhill, died last week, aged 70 years. She crossed the Plains to Oregon in 1847, settling at Laughlin's Gap, where, in 1852, she married William O. Smith. Among other children, she leaves a daughter, Mrs. John Roberts, of Banks.
For Sale—A pair of good driving fillets, 4 and 5 years old, respectively, next May; also 3 head graded Jersey cows; and a yearling Jersey heifer.—J. Q. Adams, residence 1 1/2 miles due south of Job's Cross road.
The widow of J. C. Greer, who is stopping with friends and relatives in this city, has just received a check for $2,000 from the Forest Grove A. O. U. W. lodge. Mr. Greer's death occurred on the 7th of February, near Spokane, and his remains were buried at that place. Mrs. Greer will return to her home at Spokane, where she has a son and daughter.
Call at the new Greenhouse for roses, bulbs, plants, etc. I have a nice stock to select from. Thanking the public for past patronage, I respectfully solicit a share for the future. Independent phone, 823.—Mrs. Agnes Gowan, Seventh and Fir Sts., Hillsboro.
Albert Stanton, of West Hillsboro, has filed a suit in circuit court for a divorce from his wife, Blanche Stanton. He states in his complaint that defendant was divorced from her former husband, Rolla Coffeen, in Multnomah county, and that at the time he, Stanton, married her, the law, which provides that a divorced person cannot legally marry within six months following such a decree, had not run its time, hence the marriage was illegal, and only pretended. Plaintiff, therefore, asks that the pretended marriage be annulled.

Dr. J. P. Tamiesie

THE SPRAY THAT WINS

In order to have every one who has fruit trees try the celebrated Phoenix Lime and Sulphur Spray, I will, until the end of the season, sell the Phoenix spray at $3.50 per barrel of 50 gallons, f. o. b. in Portland, or at my farm at 20c per gallon. This spray is recommended by Prof. A. B. Cordley, and is guaranteed of full strength. Its cost is 30c per cent. It saved my orchard of about 1,000 trees from being ruined, as the trees were encrusted with the San Jose Scale, hence I am recommending it. I will ship to any part of the county.
Barney Leis, Agent,
Beaverton, Or.

EDNA O. TAMIESIE

Edna O., wife of Victor Tamiesie, died in Portland, February 29, 1908, of tubercular meningitis. The remains were taken to Scappoose for interment last Sunday. Dr. J. P. Tamiesie, Miss Marie Tamiesie and their father, J. B. Tamiesie, of this city, attended the funeral. The young couple had been married a little over two months when the end came. Mr. Tamiesie has the sympathy of many friends in his untimely bereavement.

BEAVERTON WANTS CANNERY

The committee in charge of the matter of a cannery for Beaverton authorizes the publication of the following: "All persons who may be interested in the establishing of a fruit and vegetable cannery at Beaverton, are requested to correspond, before March 21, 1908, with N. N. Gassner, Beaverton, Oregon, Route 3, or N. P. Oakesman, Secretary of the Beaverton Fruit Growers' Association, Beaverton, Ore."

Argus and Journal, $2.25.

W. C. Gray, of Dilley, was in town Monday, visiting with County Treasurer Jackson.
C. Laogus, of near Beaverton, was up to the county seat Friday, and called.
Dan Emrick, who has been quite sick with grip, is still unable to be on the streets.
Peter Zuercher, of near Cedar Mills, was a Hillsboro visitor Monday, and called on the Argus.

A new platform is being built this week, in front of the Har-tramp warehouse, on Main street, near the P. R. & N. track.

Argus and Pacific Monthly, $2.
Walter Vandyke, of Banks, was in town Friday.
Frank Westhoff, of near Beaverton, was up Monday, paying taxes.
Mrs. Cummings, of Buxton, was in town last Friday.
J. H. Humphreys, of Buxton was in town Saturday.
F. J. McFarland, of Buxton, was in town Monday.
Chas. Metzger, of Tigardville, had business in Hillsboro Monday.
H. C. Gustin, of Tigardville, was in town Monday, paying taxes.
Thos. Bradley, of Progress, was a county seat visitor Monday.
L. J. Francis, of Tualatin, was in the city Monday.
A. B. Davis, of Buxton, was in the city Monday.
Buy your meals and groceries at Emmotts, and get a fine oil painting for every $20 purchase. 46-1 f
John Kassebaum, of Shady Brook, was in town Monday, and called.
A. H. Scofield, of Buxton, came down from Buxton last Friday, on business.
W. N. Haynam, of above Mountaineale, was down to the county seat Monday, and called on the Argus.
C. E. Shorey was in from Mountaineale, Saturday, and took out posters for his public sale, which is to take place March 12.
J. E. Sullivan, who has been reading the Argus for thirteen years, was a caller at the county seat Monday, and paid the Argus a pleasant visit.
William D. Buxton, of Russellville, Clackamas county, a pioneer of 1863, died last Friday. He leaves a daughter in this county, Mrs. Alice Cox, of Mountaineale, and several other children.
For Sale—A team of matched geldings, weighing between 2400 and 2500 pounds. Perfectly broken and ready for any kind of work.—Jno. A. Hobbs, corner Fourth and Oak Sts., Hillsboro.
Wm. Kemper, of North Forest Grove, was in the city Saturday, paying taxes, and while here called on the Argus for a few minutes. He incidentally swelled the Argus list to the tune of two subscriptions.
Apprentice wanted, at The Delta Drug Store. Must be not less than 17 years old; have an education equivalent to the ninth grade in the public school, and be able to carry on a conversation in the German language.
We carry too many articles to enumerate, but we have anything the farmer needs. The largest stock ever shown in Washington county, and can and will beat all competitors.—Schulmerich Bros.
Born, at Lenox, March 3, 1908, to the wife of Chris. Zuercher, twins—a boy and a girl. These new-comers make the children in the family number exactly twelve. This is the kind of family the president indorses.
Clearance sale of all men's, boys' and ladies' suits. Will be sold at actual cost, and all broken lines carried in the immense stock of the General Merchandise Store of Schulmerich Bros. Come early and get your choice.
Herman Tiedemann, of Garden Home, and his brother, W. H. M. Tiedemann, of Portland, were in Hillsboro Tuesday, and called on the Argus. They say that land values in the vicinity of Garden Home are jumping skyward, caused by the presence of the Oregon Electric Line, which passes through that place.
Fruit spraying is going on all over the county, in town and out of town. Most of Washington county's orchards will be sprayed this year, and there will be a decided improvement in the quality as well as the quantity of the apples raised. Spraying pays; there is no doubt about it.
Capt. F. S. Barnes, of Forest Grove, has just received a lot of arrows made in the East, for killing big game, and will go to British Columbia, next summer, with some Portland and Seattle friends, to hunt big game with bow and arrow. The party will be organized at Forest Grove. The fame of Robin Hood will probably grow dim when the Forest Grove party check up on their game, at the close of the hunt.
Colonist rates again in effect: From March 1 to April 30 colonist rates will be in effect on the S. P., and O. R. & N. lines from the east. From Chicago to Portland, $38; from Missouri river common points or St. Paul and Minneapolis, to Portland, the rate is $30; from Pueblo, Denver or Colorado Springs, to Portland, $30. Send this clipping to your friend in the east.

Two or three persons have asked the Argus to publish the ordinance against chickens running at large, in this city, and numerous complaints are being registered concerning the depredations of roaming fowls. The Argus finds that there is an ordinance which covers the case, which reads as follows: "No horses, cattle, swine, sheep, goats, ducks, chickens, or geese, shall be permitted to run at large in any of the streets, alleys, or other public places in the city of Hillsboro." The title of the ordinance also provides for penalties. The city marshal may be appealed to at any time.
