

When You Have a Bad Cold

You want a remedy that will not only give quick relief but effect a permanent cure.

You want a remedy that will relieve the lungs and keep expectoration easy.

You want a remedy that will counteract any tendency toward pneumonia.

You want a remedy that is pleasant and safe to take.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all of these requirements, and for the speedy and permanent cure of bad colds stands without a peer.

A Severe Cold Quickly Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used."

PROPOSALS WANTED

For Crushing and Hauling Rock

Sealed bids will be received by the County Court of Washington County, Oregon, until 2:00 p. m. on the 14th day of March, 1928, and then opened, for the crushing of 500 cubic yards of rock, viz: 300 yards at the Thatcher quarry four miles north of Forest Grove; 200 yards at the Spring Hill quarry four miles south of Forest Grove; and 100 yards at the Cedar Mill quarry three miles north of Beaverton on the Cornell road.

The County will furnish the crusher now at the Thatcher quarry, and the contractor will be required to move and set up the machinery at the different quarries.

Bidders will be required to name a price per cubic yard delivered in the bins, the two finer grades to comprise 45 per cent of the product; also a price for the excess used over the 45 per cent of the two finer grades.

Bids will also be received at the same time for the hauling of said rock, bids to state the price per cubic yard per mile.

Bids may be made on the crushing alone, or on the crushing and hauling together, or on any part of the hauling.

The court reserves the right to increase the above amounts of rock to be crushed 50 per cent, at each of the quarries, and also the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of the County Commissioners.
 J. W. GOODIN,
 County Judge.

Notice to Taxpayers

Notice is hereby given that the taxrolls for Washington County, Oregon, will be open for collection, and payment of taxes, on Saturday, February 15, 1928, and all who make full payment of their tax before March 15, 1928, will receive a rate of 3 per cent. Half payments can be made by the first Monday in April without interest charge, or penalty, and the remaining half can be paid at any time prior to the first Monday in October, 1928. Where no payment is made by the first Monday in April, 1928, the tax becomes delinquent, and the statute requires, from that date, a penalty of 10 per cent, and also an interest charge of one per cent per month on said tax until it is paid.

 Sheriff and ex-officio tax collector for Washington County, Oregon,
 Hillsboro, Oregon, February 13, 1928.

SUMMONS

Thomas Kidd, Plaintiff,
 Letitia S. Kidd, Defendant,
 To Letitia S. Kidd, the above named defendant:
 In the Name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby notified to appear and answer the complaint filed herein on or before the expiration of six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: January 30, 1928, and if you fail so to appear and answer the complaint in said time, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in said complaint, viz: that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be dissolved, and that plaintiff be awarded the care and custody of Margaret L. Kidd and Gertrude E. Kidd, minor children of plaintiff and defendant, and for such other and further relief as may be just and equitable.

This summons is served upon you by publication by order of Hon. J. W. Goodin, county judge of Washington County, Oregon, which order was made and dated on January 30, 1928.
 W. N. Barrett,
 Attorney for Plaintiff.

Deceased was a brother of Wm. Albers, formerly a partner of Herman Kamna, of North Hillsboro.

Superintendent A. S. Hall, of the Hillsboro Light and Water Plant, received a new volt testing metre yesterday, and a test this morning showed that 131 volts are now being used on the city circuit, when a competent voltage for the same work would be 110. The increased rate was due to an old and inefficient meter tester.

Judge J. W. Goodin, of this city, received a card from his brother, Dick, book keeper at the Oregon Insane Asylum, dated at Klamath Hot Springs, where he is stopping temporarily for the benefit of his health. On the postal card was the picture of a big string of fish, suspended from a long pole, which was enough to stir the blood of a fisherman. Dick did not lay claim to the catch, however.

Theodore Pointer, pioneer of '50, and who has lived on the Portland mountain over 57 years, celebrated his 66th birthday anniversary recently, and the occasion was enjoyed by the family and friends.
