The Argus, last week, mixed up Dr. W. D. Wood's announcement for State Senator, by signing to it the name of "Wm. D. Smith." It was one of those unaccountable mistakes of the printing office, which happen now and then, despite the vigilance of the proof reader. Just to offset any wrong impressions, let us state that Dr. Wood is a candidate for State Senator, while W. D. Smith is a candidate for County Clerk.

Read the announcement of R. H. Greer, for representative.

Kuratli Bros., this week, sold the Niman property, on Fir street, between Fifth and Sixth, to E. Buel; consideration, $1300.

Verdict for Dr. Pierce AGAINST THE Ladies' Home Journal.

Sending truth after a lie. It is an old maxim that "a lie will travel seven leagues while truth is getting its boots on," and no doubt hundreds of thousands of good people read the unwarranted and malicious attack upon Dr. R. V. Pierce and his "Favorite Prescription" published in the May (1906) number of the Ladies' Home Journal, with its great black display headings, who never saw the humble, groveling retraction, with its inconspicuous heading, published two months later. It was badly charged in the standard and libelous article that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of woman's weaknesses and ailments, contained alcohol and other harmful ingredients. Dr. Pierce promptly brought suit against the publishers of the Ladies' Home Journal, for $200,000.00 damages.
