CAKE FOR SENATOR

The Argus will support H. M. Cake for Senator. He is now the regularly elected candidate of the republican party, and as such should receive the support of all republicans. He made a manly campaign, which was free from abuse of his opponent, and he has ever been a consistent and straightforward member of his party. He should, therefore, receive the vote of every republican elected to the next legislature. It now remains for Governor Chamberlain to withdraw from the race for Senator. and as an bonest friend of Statement No. 1, give his moral support. at least, to the man who has in advance made the fight for the principle, which the Governor af fects to believe should be made paramount. In other words, if the principle is vital, why have two Statement No. 1 candidates in the field? Will the Governor's devotion to the principle, or his per sonal ambition to be Senator, rule in the matter? The people awaii his decision.
