

HILLSBORO IS STILL ON THE MAIN LINE

The Trouble Over Right of Way Didn't Happen

AND EVERYTHING IS NOW SETTLED

Tracklaying to Begin From Hillsboro End of Line

An article appeared in the Oregonian, Tuesday, stating that the Oregon Electric objected to being held up for right of way, and that unless matters were settled speedily, the company would abandon the Hillsboro branch, and go to work on the Newberg branch. Great excitement prevailed in this city on account of the news, but almost simultaneously with the news came Harrison Allen, attorney for the company, and Mr. McDowell, right of way man, who began closing up right of way matters along the line from Hillsboro to Beaverton. Matters were quickly adjusted at this end of the route, and without difficulty, and we learn that there are but one or two cases to be adjusted between this city and Garden Home, and that construction work is proceeding with great vigor all along the line. It is reported that the Company will have its construction material shipped to Hillsboro over the S. P., and thence by the P. R. & N. to Washington street, where tracklaying will begin, and proceed eastward. All right of way matters have been settled from Hillsboro to Beaverton. Twenty-seven teams are at work near Pres. Jackson's place, just east of town, and 75 teams are working on the grade near Garden Home. Grading will begin on Washington street tomorrow, so it is stated.

He then graduated from the medical department of the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor, in 1890, and has since resided in his native town, where he has practiced his profession. Dr. Wood was Coroner of this county from 1892 to 1896, and, with that exception, has never held office, except that of county health officer, which he now holds. Don Watrous, the 5 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Watrous, of Forest Grove, attempted last Saturday to climb upon a moving wagon heavily loaded with fertilizer, his grandfather being on the opposite side of the wagon. The child slipped and fell in front of the hind wheel, which passed over one of his shoes, and later over his head. The sole of the shoe was torn off, and while the boy's head was bruised no bones were broken. The wonder is that the child was not killed.

Dr. J. A. Baker, of Gaston, telephoned to Dr. Wood, county health officer, Monday, that there were two cases of diphtheria at that place. The two remaining cases are under quarantine, and the family is being aided by the county. The child that died was a boy, aged 8 years.

THE COUNTY BOARD OFFERS BIG BARGAINS

Over 500 Pieces of Land to be Sold by Sheriff

COVERING A PERIOD OF 13 YEARS

Purchasers Will be Given Sheriff's Deed to Land

In another column of the Argus will be found an advertisement of the delinquent tax land owned by Washington county from 1891 to 1904. The county has acquired these tracts, as a result of the failure of individuals to buy them, at former delinquent tax sales. The county, and in fact all counties, are forbidden by law to speculate in such lands, and they must, therefore, be sold from time to time, until all are disposed of. The lands now advertised for sale embrace something like 500 pieces or parcels, and the county, in case of sale, can only give such interest as it may have in them, the purchaser taking his chances on the title. Many such pieces have been bought, in the past, without trouble to the purchasers. All the county is interested in, is to get the amount of taxes due it, and it is for this purpose that the sale has been ordered by the county court.

RESOLUTIONS

The Hillsboro Grange No. 73, Patrons of Husbandry recently passed the following resolutions.

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father in his all wise ruling has seen fit to remove from our midst a beloved member in our order, Mrs. W. D. Hare, whose conscientious performance of duty, and most lovable disposition, with the highest of ideals, won for her the respect of all the members of our order.

Be it Resolved, That we feel that we have lost a true sister, whose counsel and cheer were always in behalf of uplifting humanity, and whose greeting and friendship to all will ever be held in loving remembrance.

To the bereaved husband and friends, we extend to you our heartfelt sympathy in your bereavement, in the loss you have sustained of a true wife and counsellor.

While we feel we have lost a true friend and adviser, we feel she has been called from this earthly sphere to her Heavenly reward, where, if we would emulate her life of good deeds and service, shall expect her greeting on the other shore.

The consideration was $25,000. Sherman Murphy, of this county, and L. H.
