

McCORMICK CONTESTS BAILEY'S ELECTION

Complaint Filed in Circuit Court This Afternoon

PLAINTIFF ASKS FOR FULL RECOUNT

McBride Sets Case For Monday, June 22

John W. Bailey, who has already received his election certificate, as County Clerk, was served with a copy of a complaint signed by E. L. McCormick, his opponent in the late election, which charges that complainant believes there were irregularities and errors committed in all the precincts, whereby Bailey's vote was increased, and McCormick's diminished. That 20 or more ballots cast for Bailey had the names of voters thereon, or other distinguishing marks, and were therefore void. Complainant asks for a recount of the ballots. Hon. T. A. McBride, Judge of the Circuit Court, has set June 22 at Hillsboro, as the time for hearing the case. H. T. Bagley is attorney for Plaintiff, and Tongue & Tongue and Bagley & Hare, will represent Mr. Bailey.

THE WAGGENER CONCERT

The Crescent Theatre was comfortably filled with music lovers Wednesday night, on the occasion of the Waggener Concert. It was Miss Wilma Waggener's first appearance before a Hillsboro audience since her return from Germany, where she went to round out her musical education. She was warmly welcomed, and generously encored. Her numbers represented Bach, Mendelssohn, Chopin, Zanolli, Schubert-Liszt, Greig and Moszkowski. Miss Waggener was a finished musician before her departure for Berlin, but her post-graduate course, under some of the best masters of Europe, has added much to her execution and technique. Altogether, she more than justified the expectations of her numerous friends here. In fact, her appearance last night was in the nature of a triumph over years of hard, painstaking effort in her chosen profession, and Hillsboro people are much interested in her musical future. Frederic Vrooman, a Hillsboro baritone, was in good voice, and is easily a favorite with Hillsboro audiences. He was given a warm welcome, and his rendition of "Ich Grolle Nicht," by Schumann, caught the audience. His voice, while not exceptionally strong, is sweet, and shows the result of careful training. Miss Barker, of Portland, violinist, made a hit with the audience, and responded to several encores. Miss Lorene Salls, of Portland, and Miss Katherine Shannon, of Forest Grove, as accompanists, acquitted themselves with credit.

JAS. WELDEN STRIKES GEO. LEDFORD WITH AX

Assault Takes Place in Hillsboro Condenser

WELDEN NOW IN THE COUNTY JAIL

Is Charged With Assault With Intent to Kill

Jas. Welden, engineer of the Hillsboro Milk Condenser, now occupies a cell in the county jail, charged with assault with intent to kill. The victim of his frenzied assault, Geo. Ledford, junior, is lying at the home of his father, Geo. Ledford Sr., slowly recovering from the wounds inflicted. The attack took place Monday morning in the engine room of the condenser. Welden, the engineer, after a brief dispute, seized a double-bitted ax, and struck young Ledford on the back with the flat part of the weapon, knocking him down, and followed up his attack with a blow on Ledford's head, with the edge of the ax, inflicting an ugly wound, which penetrated the scalp to the bone. Ledford's cries for assistance were heard by Mr. Lightfoot, the former engineer, who rushed in and forced the infuriated engineer to desist. Ledford was taken home, where Dr. Tamiesie dressed his wounds. Welden was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Ledford Sr., charging him with assault with intent to kill. Welden is a middle aged man, coming here from Seattle. Seen in his cell yesterday. Welden refused to give his version of the matter. He has employed T. H. Tongue to defend him. Bail has been fixed at $600, which has not yet been furnished. His wife arrived from the East this morning.

Persons wishing to tile their farms will always find a large stock of fine tile in our yard at Scholla. Those wishing the larger size tiling should place their orders with us before June 1. We also carry brick and building blocks. Those intending to build will find a large supply of lumber at our yard, and you are invited to call and look over our stock before purchasing.—The Groner-Rowell Co., Scholla; P. O. address, Hillsboro, Ore., R. D. 2.

Elsie M. Baker, who died of tuberculosis, at Oak Grove, Clackamas county, on June 4, 1908, aged 16 years, was a niece of Mrs. Geo. Ledford, of this place, and of Dan. Baker, who lives near Forest Grove. Deceased leaves a father and two sisters, Mrs. Lundell and Mrs. Morgan, and a brother, all of lone, Ore. The remains were taken to lone for interment.

CLYDE WILSON DIES OF HIS WOUNDS

Quong Lee, his Slayer, out on his own Recognizance

HE WAS RELEASED LAST FRIDAY

Case Will Come up at Fall Term of Circuit Court

Clyde Wilson, the young man who was shot by Quong Lee, the Chinese laundryman at Forest Grove, Saturday night, May 30, died at his home last Saturday morning, as a result of his wounds. Quong Lee appeared before Justice H. T. Bagley, last Friday, and was released on his own recognizance. He will likely be arraigned at the fall term of circuit court. Since the death of Wilson, however, the Chinaman may be arraigned, the charge being either murder in the first degree or manslaughter, as the Deputy District Attorney may elect. Wilson was shot for attempting to enter the Chinaman's wash house, for the purpose of drinking beer and eating a lunch. The Chinaman says he had been molested several times during the evening of the shooting, by parties who bombarded his house with beer bottles, breaking the lock and tearing out a panel of the door. A post-mortem examination was held. He was buried Monday, at Forest Grove. Wilson was respectfully connected, having a number of relatives in this county.

Sam. Moon, of Centerville, was in the city this morning.

T. B. Perkins, a prominent merchant of Buxton, was in town today.

LAW REGULATING AUTOS

We have been requested to publish the important section of the law regulating automobiles on the public highway. Here it is: "Sec. 9. Every person having control or charge of any automobile, motor vehicle, or motor cycle, whenever upon any public street or way, and approaching any vehicle drawn by a horse or horses, or any horse upon which any person is riding, shall operate, manage and control such automobile, motor vehicle or motor cycle in such manner as to exercise every reasonable precaution to prevent the frightening of any such horse or horses, and to insure the safety and protection of any person riding or driving the same. If such horse or horses appear frightened, the person in control of such motor vehicle shall reduce its speed, and, if requested by signal or otherwise by the driver of such horse or horses, shall not proceed further toward such animal unless such movement be necessary to avoid accident or injury, or until such animal appear to be under the control of the rider or driver."

COUNCIL RAISES METER RATES

The city council met Tuesday night in an adjourned session. An ordinance was passed raising light rates from 7c per kilowatt, 7c candle power, and 50c minimum rate, to 12c per kilowatt, minimum rate 75c, or a flat rate of 5c per candle power. This amounts to a raise of 10 on candle power, and 50 per kilowatt on metres. The new ordinance, which is labelled No. 286, embraces 21 pages of type written matter, and further provides the sum of $3 must be deposited with the treasurer when application is made for light or water, or both, to be refunded when contract is ended, provided the applicant or user, is free from all charges for use of light or water. The city council at its last meeting awarded contracts as follows: For new water tank, to hold 30,000 gallons, L. W. House, $337. The contract for the new steel tower, 80 feet in height, was awarded to W. E. Caldwell & Co., of Louisville, Ky., at $1435.

DR. WM. BOTHWELL HARE

Dr. Wm. Bothwell Hare, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hare, graduated from the Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia, Pa., June 1, with honors. Dr. Hare was born at Hillsboro, and was raised here. He was a universal favorite and had that touch of nature that marked him wherever he went. He passed through the Hillsboro High School, then through the Portland High, and later entered the Philadelphia Medical School, where he attained high class honors. Dr. Hare has just been appointed to a post in the French Hospital, at San Francisco, which carries both salary and honors, and his many friends here wish him every success. Those friends in Washington county, who have known his parents since they were children, and the Dr since he was a child, will watch his medical career with interest.

Dr. Hare is but 23 years of age. His parents now live at 274 Caruthers street, Portland.
