B. Buchanan, the retiring commissioner, is one of the business men who has ever been a member of the Board. He has made some enemies, but has also made many friends. He had the temerity to say when he thought he was in regard to the business of the county. He will devote his attention to his warehouse business.

case came up in the Juvenile court of the county court on July 1st, when Herman Braun pleaded for the custody and care of Lee, son of A. R. and Enola. After investigation, the court granted the petition.
