

ADVERTISING FUND NEARLY ALL RAISED

Money to Advertise County is Practically Assured

FOREST GROVE GIVES HER SHARE

With County's Aid, $3500 Will be Available

Yesterday, Mr. Adams, representing the Southern Pacific's publication, the Sunset Magazine, and T. R. Imbrie, of this city, canvassed the town for subscriptions to the fund to advertise Washington county in the above named magazine, and at the Alaska Yukon fair. Mr. Imbrie reports that Hillsboro's share of money is all subscribed but about $100. Forest Grove has raised $750 of the amount required to insure the county's tentative subscription of $1,000. It now looks as if the whole amount would be raised, and that the sum of $2250 would be available for giving this county a thorough advertising. Other counties are coming up with their advertising funds, and from the present outlook, Washington county will receive its quota of publicity at the big fair, and through the other mediums. The committee hopes to secure the small sum remaining to be raised, tomorrow.

SAMUEL ROLF

Samuel Rolf, a pioneer of this county, was found dead in the pantry of his home, near Beaverton, Monday morning. Coroner Brown was notified, and had Dr. Robinson look into the matter. The latter reported that an insect, in his opinion, was not necessary, as Rolf evidently died from heart trouble. Rolf had suffered during the night, and it is thought he had gone to the pantry to find something to relieve his pain, when death overtook him. Mr. Rolf was a pioneer of 1852, and was well known in this county, where he had lived many years. Deceased settled near Beaverton, after coming to this state. His first wife was Susannah Porter. One son was born of this union, L. E. Rolf, of Portland. Married Mrs. Hanna Thomas in December, 1881. Five children were born to them: Ora, Zora, Clark, Mary and Jessie, all of whom are married except Clark and Jessie. Mrs. Rolf died in 1906. Deceased was known as an honest and upright citizen, who was loved and respected by all who knew him.

He was also a G. A. R. veteran. He belonged to the first regiment of Oregon Volunteers, and participated in the Indian wars of the Northwest in the early days. He is survived by six children, and was aged about 76 years. Interment took place at Beaverton, on the day following his death.

They will look over the building, relative to its exits in case of fire, and may recommend some fire apparatus. They will also examine the grounds, relative to their sanitary condition, and may order the building of septic tanks for the outbuildings. Another thing they may arrange for, is another hydrant for fire protection.

Upon their return from the celebration at Cornelius on the evening of the Fourth, the family of A. Stohler, who live on the Chas. Grabel place, south of Tualatin, found that their house had been entered during their absence, and two trunks rifled of their contents. Among the things taken were a razor and some cash, besides trinkets of more or less value. Entrance was gained by forcing one of the doors. Mrs. Stohler writes that this is the second case of house-breaking which has occurred in that neighborhood lately.

The celebration at Sherwood on the Fourth was the best had in that town for many years. Prof. Rasmus, of Portland, delivered the oration, and the Declaration of Independence was read by Miss Anna Owens. About 2,000 visitors were present, and in the evening, there was a grand display of fireworks from Sherwood heights. STATE FOOD AND DAIRY COMMISSIONER

Visits Hillsboro and Talks Interestingly About Work

"MORE AND BETTER DAIRY COWS"

Washington Richest County Outside Multnomah in the State

"Washington is the richest county in the state, outside of Multnomah, considering its size and population," declared State Food and Dairy Commissioner, J. W. Bailey, in Hillsboro, today. Mr. Bailey is making official visits to the various counties of the State, and stopped off at Hillsboro at noon today, in the exercise of his official duties.

"The dairy business has made Washington county," continued Mr. Bailey, "and now that your county has the lead, it should maintain it by getting more and better dairy cows. Think of a thousand carloads of condensed milk and cream going out of your county every year, and all the product of Washington county cows. And added to this, the large quantities of cream shipped to Portland direct from the dairies. Western Oregon is naturally a dairy country, and in time the Willamette valley will lead the world in this industry."

Mr. Bailey is lamenting the fact that his fine buggy team was incinerated in a Portland livery barn, this week. He leaves this evening for points up the valley.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS

We greatly missed the patronage and face of our customers last year, owing to the fact that our yard was full of ties and we could not attend to them, but we are pleased to state that a great number of them are returning this year, and that we are equipped to supply everyone at low prices. Price on rough lumber, from $6.00 to $8.00 per thousand in yard. Will cut any specials, not exceeding 32 feet in length, for $9.00 per M., or lengths from 32 to 42 feet, $10.00; 1x4 Sheeting, $8.00; No. 2 rough, $6.00 to $7.00 per thousand.

We are also stocking the yard with clear to season, and this fall, will be prepared to furnish strictly No. 1 and No. 2 for building purposes at our usual reasonable rate. We have just got our tram-road extended to the No. 1 timber which will enable us to furnish strictly No. 1 house material, but we especially solicit barn orders. We also have on hand some good or more ties, 6x8-8, which are good in every respect, but culled on account of wain edges. These will make excellent fence posts, and we will sell same for 10c each on the yard.

Brian Goodin, son of Judge and Mrs. J. W. Goodin, uncorked a bottle of carbide last Monday, and as it had generated a gas, a portion of the contents entered one of his eyes, causing him great pain for a time. At the last meeting of the City Fathers the matter of a chemical fire engine came up. Mayor Dennis, acting on a motion, appointed Councilmen John Connell, Ed. Schulmerich and John Sewall, a committee to inquire into the cost of a chemical engine. A number of citizens believe that Hillsboro has grown to proportions where better protection against fire is money well expended.

THE ENCAMPMENT AT CORNELIUS

Old Soldiers Hold a Four Days Celebration

EVENT WAS A GRAND SUCCESS

Roster of the Veterans who were Present

The Washington Veterans' Association went into camp at Cornelius on June 30, and continued over the Fourth of July. Oak Grove, the scene of the camp, was lighted with electricity, and camping facilities were quite satisfactory to the old "vets" who thoroughly enjoyed themselves during the entire time. Martial music stirred the blood of the nation's defenders, and many veteran visitors were present to enliven camp fire scenes. The exercises on German day were highly appreciated by all, patriotic songs being rendered in both German and English. The address by Rev. J. F. Doehser was replete with patriotism. Hillsboro day brought a large attendance. The programme rendered by the Hillsboro school children was highly complimented. The programme is given elsewhere. Rev. Blake delivered the oration of the Fourth, in his usual splendid style. The final game of baseball was won by the Forest Grove Colts, over the Verboort boys. All in all, the encampment was a great success, and reflects much credit on the Washington County Veterans' Association, under whose auspices it was held.
