Surveyors Are Busy and Contractors Are in Readiness

Persistent rumors are floating around town and up and down the essiern end of the P. R. & N. to the effect that work on the extension of the road which will connect is a guest of the Misses Imbrie, of Hillsboro with Tillamook will soon day. begin. It has been known for some time that the Company has been waiting for payment of $20,000,000 street. from the bondholders, and that President Lytle has been busy in Washington district, was in town trying to secure the payment and complete the work. There is evidence that Mr. Lytle expects this money very soon but bondholders are slow and deliberate and much Morning sermon by the pastor in red tape must be unwound before the final adjustment of the matter route to Portland. so that the company, like everybody else interested in the building of the road, must wait. One strong indication that work will begin soon is the fact of the presence of three surveying parties in the field Thos. Haines, of Scholls, were in who have been actively at work for some time past. The company began to build the road as la'e as October two years ago and the fact that summer is waning makes no difference. The P. R. & N. people will push the work once they begin. The Argus is not able to give official information for the reason that the officials do not know just when work will begin. It all depends upon financial matters but there is a strong belief that the Grove Colts will play baseball on time is near when work will be the Banks enclosed grounds, Sun lively along the line of the new day, July 19, at 1:30 o'clock sharp road.
