

STRANGER SLAIN IN LONELY PLACE

Body of man found in Timber in This County

MAY BE E. PERDUE OF SPOKANE

Coroner's Jury Found Man was Beaten to Death

About noon last Friday, Rufus Neighbor, a boy about 15 years of age, while picking blackberries with his mother, near the old Frank Burgholzer cabin, 1 1/2 miles from Hillsboro, found the decomposing remains of a man, which had been partially covered with sticks and brush, and emitted a sickening odor, which was what attracted the boy to the place, thinking it might proceed from a dead animal. The boy notified his father, R. E. Neighbor, who sent word to Brice Wilson, who phoned the fact of the gruesome find to Sheriff Hancock. Friday evening, the Sheriff and Coroner Ernest Brown started for the scene of the tragedy, for such it proved to be. Upon arriving, the Coroner summoned a jury and began his investigations. Mr. Neighbor and family were the principal witnesses. The son testified that some three weeks prior to the finding of the body, he met a stranger wading in a near by stream, who said he was from Spokane, and he believes that the man seen and the murdered man, were one and the same. The upper part of the body was well along in the stages of decomposition, but the skull bore evidence of having been crushed with some blunt instrument. The features were unrecognizable. The man had been well dressed, and may have been lured to the lonely spot by his murderer for the purpose of robbery. In the dead man's pocket were found two stamped coins the size of a half-dollar, on which were printed "E. Perdue, Spokane, Wash. 1907." Another piece of aluminum contained an eagle with a circle around it made from the same metal. The two back teeth of both upper and lower left jaws had been filled with amalgam. The jury composed of Brice Wilson, G. E. Westinghouse, Carl Iler, Mark Sidwell, R. D. Montague and S. S. Reed, returned the following verdict: "We, the jury, impanelled, find that the deceased, an unidentified man, came to his death by having his skull crushed with some blunt instrument by some person or persons unknown. We further find that we have no evidence whatever, with regard to his assailant."

The remains were later taken by a Forest Grove undertaker and interred in the potter's field at that place. Sheriff Hancock's theory is that the dead man was decoyed to the spot under the pretense of being shown timber land, and foully murdered for money. Another theory held by local citizens is that the man knew something about a man of that section, said to have been wanted a few years ago in California. No word has been received from Spokane, where it is thought the man might have lived.

NO R. F. D. ON BAD ROADS

In order to secure good roads on the routes over which the rural free delivery carriers pass in distributing mail, not only in Washington county, but over all the country, Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Degraw has issued a new regulation to the effect that mail will not be delivered to the farm houses along roads which are not kept in good condition. Several months ago the fourth assistant issued an order requiring postmasters at rural delivery offices to report to the department headquarters at Washington the number of miles of roads covered by rural free delivery from their offices and the names of the road officials having jurisdiction over each separate section of roads. Letters are now being sent to these road officials notifying them that rural free delivery will not be continued on roads which are not kept in condition to be traveled with facility and safety at all seasons of the year. Washington county has about twenty-five rural routes, embracing over 500 miles of territory. If this ruling is put in effect, three-fourths of the routes would have to be discontinued, unless the roads are put in better condition for winter travel. The logic of the times points to better roads.

Notice to Contractors

The Directors of District No. 72, of Washington county, will receive bids for painting school house of said district. Said bids to be so much per square. All bids to be opened on August 4th. Successful bidder to furnish sufficient bond to have said work finished by September 1, 1908.

By order of Board, L. H. Holtz, District Clerk, Buxton, Ore., July 23, 1908.

Mrs. Herman Shultz, of near Phillips, died last Sunday, and was buried in the Bethany churchyard Monday. The cause of her death was a tumor. She was the widow of the late Herman Shultz, and leaves three children to mourn her loss.

Blaser spent a portion of the past week down on the Columbia river fishing for bass. They captured a nice lot of bass, but were themselves nearly captured by the mosquitoes.

Misses Agnes and Jean Tannock, of Greenock, Scotland, arrived in the city Tuesday, to visit their brother, Allen Tannock, of near Glencoe, whom they have not seen for about 15 years. While in town, they were the guests of Mrs. Jane Smith. They came out to spend the summer, and are pleased with Oregon, which they say resembles Southern Scotland, in topography and climate. The estate of the late John D. McDonald, of Beaverton, is being probated. The estate is valued at $11,750, and the administrator, Mrs. Isabella McDonald, has filed a bond amounting to $18,000 according to the terms of the inheritance law of this state, this estate will be liable for taxes. This is the first estate to come under the provisions of the inheritance law, since the Otobins estate was probated. H. W. Sparks has been elected manager of the Colts baseball team of Forest Grove, and will put the team in good condition for the Sunday game, when the local team will meet the Sherwood White Sox on the home diamond. The game promises to be a good one. The White Sox have played 21 games this season, and have lost but one. Many people from Hillsboro will go up to the Grove to see the game.

ALANSON HINMAN DIES, AGED 86

Prominent Pioneer of Forest Grove dies Monday Afternoon

CROSSED THE PLAINS IN 1844

Was a man of sterling worth and beloved by all who knew him

Alanson Hinman, one of Forest Grove's prominent and respected citizens, died at his home in Forest Grove at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, at the advanced age of 86 years. Mr. Hinman was born in New York state, May 2, 1822. At the age of 22 he crossed the plains and resided for about a year at Walla Walla, where Dr. Whitman was just beginning his labors toward the college which now bears his name. Mr. Hinman assisted in the school work while there. Later he came to the Willamette Valley and spent some two years as instructor in the educational institution at Salem, now known as the Willamette University. He then went to The Dalles, remaining there until the time of the massacre, afterward coming to Washington county. Since that time he made his home in and about Forest Grove. In 1856 he was elected to the Legislature from this county, and the following year was appointed Collector of Customs and resided in Astoria for about eight years. He conducted a store in Forest Grove for many years, retiring about 15 years ago. Mr. Hinman married Miss Martha Garrish in 1846, and to them eight children were born. Mrs. Hinman died in 1864, and a few years later he was married to Miss Sophia Margaret Bowen and to this union two sons were born. The children living are Mrs. A. R. Leabo, Dr. Alanson Hinman, Miss Margaret Hinman, Carl L. Hinman, Frank Hinman, all of Forest Grove, and Oliver Hinman, postmaster at Ellensburg, Wash.

Mr. Hinman served two terms as mayor of Forest Grove and was for many years one of the ruling powers in municipal affairs. He retained exceptional mental ability to the last, notwithstanding his advanced years, and although unable to walk about much, he read the daily papers and current literature, keeping abreast of the times equal to one half his years. He was loved by all who knew him, and the entire community mourns his death. He was a member of the Congregational Church. Funeral services were held at the Congregational Church at Forest Grove yesterday, interment following in the Buxton cemetery.

J. H. RINCK'S STORE ROBBED, AT BUXTON

Rob Store Tuesday Night, in Jail Wednesday

CASH STOLEN CHECK AT THE GROVE

Deputy Sheriff Downs Nabs Robbers at Hillsboro Depot

Tuesday night, robbers entered the store of J. H. Rinck, a Buxton merchant, and stole, among other things, a check on the Forest Grove National Bank, indorsed by Jas. Cummings. Wednesday morning, two young men came to the Grove, and tried to cash the check with Claude Smith, of Roe & Co., but failed, as Smith was suspicious of the pair. They then prevailed on a merchant by name of Abrahams to cash it, and then left town. In the meantime the robbery was reported to Sheriff Hancock, and soon afterwards Abraham discovered that the check had been stolen. Abrahams was able to give the sheriff a good description of the men wanted. They were arrested in this city just as they were about to board the 1:42 train for Portland, having walked to Hillsboro to take the train, thus hoping to get away without detection. The men gave their names as Rice and Berry, and claimed they live in Portland. Most of the plunder taken from the store at Buxton was found with them. They stole the check for $12.50, $1.40 in silver, and some copper coins. The copper coins were found on their persons. They also had a good supply of chewing tobacco and cigarette "fixins", besides two pair of shoes, handkerchiefs, and other articles. Yesterday afternoon, Cashier Thornburg, of the Forest Grove National, and Messrs. Smith and Abrahams, came to Hillsboro, and the two latter identified the men as the persons who cashed the check, one of the thieves claiming to be Cummings, the man who had indorsed the check. They probably are good for a term in the pen. It is said that the men had been cutting wood near Buxton.

Why let horses and cows suffer from fly bites during these hot days when Webb & Hoover have "So-Boe So, Fly-O-Curo," and Lilly's lice killer to sell?

Mr. Newton, the Californian who brought up a lot of horses recently, concluded to take his herd to Tillamook county, where he thought the sale would be better.

Have Dr. Lowe relieve your bad head and eye ache with a pair of his superior glasses. He does not go from house to house. Consult him at Hotel Tualatin next Monday, July 31.

J. J. Hill, of this city, has leased the Tualatin Hotel, from Rufus Waggener, the proprietor, for the period of one year, and will take possession of that hostelry on next Thursday, a week from today. Mr. Waggener and family will spend the remainder of the summer at Newport.

Rev. Howard Gilpatrick, of this city, who some time ago resigned the pastorate of the Congregational church, will leave next Tuesday, to rejoin his wife, who is spending the summer at Bar Harbor, Maine. Mr. Gilpatrick will have charge of the Missions work of his church in central Maine.

While two children of J. Buell were playing yesterday, one of them dislodged a sharp ax from a pile of wood, in some manner, the blade striking the leg of the other cutting a gash the full width of the ax from the ankle to the bottom of the foot. Dr. Tamiesie was called and gave an anaesthetic and sewed up the wound.

Lime, cement, spray material, shingles, paint, oil, bran, shorts, barley, oats, oat chop, wheat, middlings, alfalfa meal, some chop, oil, meal, bone dust, ground bone, grit, oyster shell, cracked and whole corn, chick feed, meat meal, meat scrap, poultry and stock tonic, stock salt, "White Mountain," "Great Raiser" and "Moss Rose" flour at Webb & Hoover.

Memorial services in honor of Mrs. Mary A. Hare of Hillsboro, and Mrs. Jennie Quinton, of Portland, members of the Grand Lodge, Degree of Honor, who have died within the past year, were held by the grand lodge, A. O. U. W., yesterday afternoon, in Portland, Mrs. Mamie W. Briggs, past superior chief of honor, delivering the eulogy and conducting the ceremony.

Wm. Thurston, a prominent onion grower of Cedar Mills, is in town as a witness in the O. E.—Reghitto case. He says, the onion crop this year in his section will not be as good as it was last year, owing to the late, cold spring. Where irrigation cannot be had, onions are suffering from water. Mr. Thurston believes in summer irrigation in this valley, and especially for onions.

While about to leave Johnson's sawmill, south of Hillsboro, Tuesday evening, with a partial load of lumber, a team driven by Mike, a son of W. E. Smith, became frightened at the mill whistle, and ran away, throwing young Smith out, and wrecking the wagon. In the mix-up Smith received a severe scalp wound and suffered a broken right hand. Dr. Tamiesie was called to attend the injuries.

The dispatches yesterday announced the engagement of Samuel E. Gates, of Hillsboro, Oregon, to Miss Frances Niles, of Toledo, Ohio. Miss Niles is the daughter of the late C. M. Niles, of that place, who was a banker, a city official and a high Mason. The dispatch announces that after the wedding, the couple will reside in Portland, where Mr. Gates will have a position. Mr. Gates is a son of Hon. H. V. Gates, of this city, and has been living in Schenectady, N. Y., where he was superintendent of a large electric light plant.

CIRCUIT COURT

Judge Thos. A. McBride convened the July term of circuit court in Hillsboro, Monday morning. The first case considered was that of E. L. McCormick vs. J. W. Bailey, asking for a recount of the ballots, in order to settle the contest for the clerkship. The motion to quash McCormick's amended complaint on the grounds that it was not filed within the time prescribed by law, was overruled, and a recount of the ballots, as prayed for in McCormick's petition, was allowed. The recount will begin next Saturday, and continue until the contest matter is settled. In the case of Knapp vs. Knapp, divorce granted. City of Hillsboro vs. T. Meek and T. Herndon; on appeal from Recorder's Court to Circuit Court, the Judge ordered the fines collected by the city be refunded. These are the cases where peddlers were arrested for selling certain goods in the city without a local license. In the case of F. E. Cornelius vs. J. W. Goodin et al, a petition for recount of the ballots in South Hillsboro, the precinct having gone dry by a majority of 12, in the June election, the Judge after hearing the authorities and arguments of counsel, decided that a recount of the votes on the question of prohibition, should be had at this term of court. The petitioner alleges that enough illegal votes were cast to change the result from dry to wet. The case of the Oregon Electric Co. vs. Rose Reghitto was called yesterday morning. This is a suit for the right of way through land near Beaverton, comprising about two acres. The following jurors were chosen: Robert Thompson, D. H. Bailey, C. J. James, Olave Johnson, Dwight Pomeroy, Jno. R. Ennes, A. J. Roy, Ervin Ritter, H. B. Johnson, Jas. Jacquot, J. C. Wilson and C. F. Barrett. A motion was granted permitting the jurors to view the premises. Wednesday afternoon, the jury, the lawyers and Judge McBride went down to the premises and looked over the land involved in the suit. This morning the taking of evidence began, and it is not probable that the case will be submitted before tomorrow. Attorneys for Reghittos are Rufus Mallory and W. D. Fenton, of Portland, and E. B. Tongue, of this city, while the O. E. Co. is represented by Judge C. H. Carey and Harrison Allen, of Portland.

The infant of Mr. and Mrs. Brant, of Lents, was buried in the Odd Fellows cemetery at this place Monday, the remains having been shipped out by the parents. Mrs. Brant is a daughter of M. M. Bridges, of Lents, who used to be in business in Hillsboro.

Christian church Sunday. Bible school at 10 o'clock, and preaching at 11. Sermon from Characteristics of Christ. Bible study, "Training for Service," at 7 p. m. At 8 o'clock, Rev. Beery will preach at the union service in the Baptist church from "Sir, We Would See Jesus."

George Schulmerich and wife and Miss Jessie Donelson, of this city, and Jos. Schulmerich and daughter, of Banks, will start the first of next week for a month's outing in the Cascade Mountains, and may go to Bend, in Eastern Oregon, before returning. They will fish, and perhaps the men will do the big game stunt, as George has set his heart on bagging a mule deer, while on the trip. The gentlemen will go by team, and the ladies by rail, via Albany and Lebanon.
