

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS.

VOL. XV.

HILLSBORO, OREGON, OCT. 29, 1908.

NO. 33

S. P. TRAIN WILL BE HERE ON NOV. 4

Should be of Great Interest to Farmers and Others

SEVEN CARS IN THE TRAIN

Agricultural College Professors Will be in Charge

The Southern Pacific Demonstration Train will be in Hillsboro, on November 4, 1908, arriving at 10 a. m., and spending one hour and forty-five minutes in the city. The train will consist of seven cars, and demonstration will be given in almost every branch of farming. Farmers, dairymen and fruit growers are especially invited to be present. Come and bring your wives and children. It will be entertaining and instructive.

The following speakers and demonstrators will accompany the train:

Dr. Jas. Withycombe, Director Oregon Experiment Station.
Mr. M. O. Lowndale, Horticulturist.
Prof. A. B. Cordley, Entomologist.
Prof. C. L. Lewis, Horticulturist.
Prof. H. D. Scudder, Agronomist.
Prof. F. L. Kent, Dairy Husbandry.
Prof. K. W. Allen, Ass't. Horticulturist.
Mr. Harry Ashahr, Herdsman.
R. B. Miller, General Freight Agent, will accompany the party. The train will consist of seven cars, three of which will have agricultural and horticultural exhibits, while others will have machinery, etc. One car will show model dairy stalls, with two cows. Spraying methods will be shown, also a milk testing machine. Fruit packing will also be shown, each department having a specialist to demonstrate. Hillsboro will be the first stop in the itinerary of the demonstration train, and one hour and forty-five minutes will be given to this place. The hour is a little early, but it is hoped that there will be a large attendance of our farmers, fruit men and dairymen present.

BELLE FINEOUT HAINES

Mrs. Belle Fineout Haines, who died at her home near Buxton, October 15, was born in New York State, July 15, 1851. She was married to Herbert Fineout in Midland, Michigan, in 1868. In 1878, Mr. Fineout died, and in 1903, she was married to Elwood J. Haines, at Tacoma, Wash., who survives her, also three children, Mrs. Ida Burris, of New York, J. A. Fineout, of Buxton, and Frank Fineout, of Tacoma, Wash.

The funeral services were held at the undertaking chapel of V. H. Limber at Forest Grove, October 17, at 11 a. m., conducted by Rev. Miss Interment at the Forest View cemetery.

NOTICE

All parties whose accounts with me have been over six months out standing are requested to settle.
Dr. S. T. Linklater.

Geo. Robinson, who has been working for Ernest Grandgeorge, on the Henry place, near Beaver-ton, for some time past, was arrested last Saturday, on charge of bigamy, having married a woman at Vancouver, Wash., about a week ago, while divorce proceedings were pending for a legal separation from his present wife. His wife began divorce proceedings in the Circuit Court of this county, a week or so ago.

Miss Minnie Hartrampf, of the Independent telephone office, is in Portland, enjoying a two weeks' vacation.

Peter Grossen, of the German Insurance Co., of Helvetia, was a Hillsboro visitor, last Saturday.

Ed. Naylor, of Forest Grove, was a county seat caller, Monday.

Adrian Harper, of Gales Creek, was in town last Saturday.

F. E. Rowell, of Scholls, was in town Tuesday.

Greer keeps White River flour. John Knoss, of South Tualatin, was in town Friday.

Henry Hogrele, of South Tualatin, visited Hillsboro, Friday.

Paul Stalder, of Bethany, transacted business in town Friday.

Butterick Fashion book, and any pattern, for 25 cents at Baird's.

F. M. Crabtree, a Laurel hop raiser, was in the city, last Friday.

Palmtree's confectionery for your choice confections, fruits, nuts, cigars and tobacco.

D. W. Bath, of Cottage Grove, spent Saturday and Sunday, with his family, in Hillsboro.

County Judge Lake, of The Dalles, was in the city last Friday, with business at the court house.

For sale: Team horses, mare and gelding, good work team, $100, cash. Inquire at Argus office. 31-4

Wm. Hendershott, a Portland hop buyer, was in town last Friday, receiving hops under contract.

Mike Kehrl and wife, of Portland, former residents of Bethany, were in town the latter part of last week.

J. White, of Laurel, exhibited a turnip, last Friday, raised on his ranch, which was 10 1/2 inches in diameter.

Vetch seed for sale. The best variety—Apply to A. Chalmers, Forest Grove, Ore., R. 2, or at farm near Centerville. 25-1f

S. N. Tunstall, of near Phillips, called last Saturday. Mr. Tunstall will visit relatives in Eastern Oregon next month.

Jacob Wismer, of Portland, was out last Friday. Mr. Wismer will move back to his fine 320 acre ranch near Bethany, in the near future.

Found—A solid gold locket with pictures within, and monogram on outside. Owner can have same by proving property and paying for this advertisement. Call at this office. 32-35

A. W. Donelson, who returned from a trip to Nebraska last week, brought some fine specimens of corn from that state, which he placed on exhibition in Kuratli's real estate office.

Taken up at my place, near Blooming, a red 2-year-old heifer, with white marks on forehead, body and tail. Owner can have same by proving property and paying for damages and advertising.—M. Eichen, Cornelius, Or., R. 2. 31-3

Albert Hartrampf, representing the Seavey Hop Co., of Portland, last week bought the following lots of hops from Banks hop raisers: Shearer, 170 bales; Bradley, 84 bales; Friday, 68 bales; Inkley, 49 bales. The price paid was around 7 1/2.

A meeting of the Road Supervisors of Washington county will be held at the court house, November 21, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m. A full attendance is requested. The public is cordially invited to attend this meeting, the object of which is to discuss the question of better roads for the county.—F. M. Kelsay, Chairman of Good Roads.

Persons wishing to tile their farms will always find a large stock of fine tile in our yard at Scholls. We carry building blocks but have no more brick to sell. Those intending to build will find a large supply of lumber at our yard, and you are invited to call and look over our stock before purchasing.—The Groner-Rowell Co., Scholls; P. O. address, Hillsboro, Ore., R. D. 2

Leon Girod, the rustling agent of the Oregon Nursery Co., was a court house visitor, Monday. Mr. Girod says that several of the Germans, who worked on the Oregon Electric, have bought tracts near Orenco, and will make homes in the timber, near that place.

I am now prepared to show you the Chas. Stevens & Bros.' samples of the new Fall and Winter Styles in ladies' and misses' dress suits, silk and cloth suits and dress skirts, made to your special order, of your own selection of goods. Ladies, misses and children's coats, also carried. I carry a standard line of corsets and undershirts. I will be glad to bring my goods to your house upon request.—Mrs. M. E. Caudle, Independent phone, No. 584. 27-38

J. H. P. Veach, who spent a year in Hillsboro, in the carpenter business, writes a Hillsboro friend that he arrived safely in Sheridan, Wyo., and that Mrs. Veach's health has been improved in the short time they have been there. The Veaches were in the terrible Northern Pacific railroad wreck of about a month ago, in which 18 persons were killed, and 12 to 15 seriously injured. Mrs. Veach had her neck wrenched, and Will Veach's daughter, Mabel, received a bruise on the head.

H. Rhea & Co.

One door west of Schulmerich Bros.' store, Hillsboro.

The site of the new Southern Pacific depot has been selected, and the plans of the architect are in the hands of the Company, so it is stated, but it is not known when the work will begin. The building and warehouse will be on Second Street, between the track of the P. R. & N. and the main track of the Southern, and one depot will answer for both roads. It is reported that the Southern Pacific expects to add still another daily train, between Forest Grove and Portland.

There are but three inmates of the county jail at present, Johnson, the man arrested for killing Perdue; Fred Fox and Fred Rice, the young men charged with looting the Rinko store, at Buxton. Johnson is in good health and spirits and is getting fat. His mother visits him occasionally. Sheriff Hancock says Johnson is a model prisoner.

At the Crescent Theatre, Oct. 30, at 8 p. m. Come out and hear Congressman Ellis. Ladies especially invited.

J. B. Wilkes has forwarded his bonds to the Governor at Salem, for re-appointment as a notary public.

Thos. Murphy and T. Smith, of Mountaineers, were in the county seat last Saturday.

Mrs. P. R. Cooper, of this city, is visiting relatives in Salem this week.

J. W. White, of near Banks, was an Argus caller Tuesday.

D. B. Cooley, of Phillips, called on the Argus, last Saturday.

Lloyd Ingram, of Farmington, was in town last Saturday.

J. A. Fineout, of Buxton, was in town, Sunday.

Baird sells the famous Tilt-Kenny shoe, for men. 30-1f

A. E. McGill, of Orenco, was in the city, last Saturday.

Mr. Frost, of Bethany, was a Hillsboro visitor, Monday.

David Wenger, of near West Union, was in town Monday.

J. C. Miller, of Shady Brook, was an Argus caller, Saturday.

Jos. Lutz, of the Barnes road, was in town Monday, on business.

John Urbach and Jacob Stohle, of Helvetia, were in the city last Saturday.

A. T. McClaughy, of near Toledo, is visiting with J. C. Moore and wife, this week.

Mrs. Chas. Barrett, of Greenville, visited relatives at this place, last Saturday and Sunday.

R. H. Greer has a fine lot of Brown Leghorn and Black Minorca cockerels and pullets for sale.

Mrs. M. M. Pittenger attended a session of the Congregational Association at Portland, last Sunday.

L. J. Palmateer handle the largest assortment of high grade cigars in the city. Give him a call.

D. Lebeau, a prominent republican of Sherwood, was in town Saturday, shaking hands with friends.

E. D. Cooper, of Portland, representing the Northwest Horticulturist of Tacoma, was in town last Friday.

Smokers like the Schiller and the Excellence. These cigars are of the best stock. You can't fool an authority on a good cigar.

Henry A. Smith and Julia Murphy, both of Mountaineers, were granted a license to wed, last Saturday, by the County Clerk.

J. D. Merryman, of Portland, has sold his 7 acre tract in the western part of the city to G. J. Palmateer; consideration $2,000.

When in town, call and try our hot coffee and cocoa, and don't forget the luncheon at Palmateer confectionery.—L. J. Palmateer Prop.

Mrs. Fred Olson, who has been seriously ill for some weeks past, is improving in health. Fred resumed work on his mail route Monday.

Fred Greenburg, of near Tigardville, was in town Monday, and filed a map of a new addition which he has laid out at Greenburg station, on the Oregon Electric line.

For Sale—Brood sow, soon to pig; weighs about 150 lbs. Bred by a Chester White.—Inquire at Moretz Schmidt's place, 8 miles north of Hillsboro. P. O. address, Hillsboro, R. 1. 33-4

F. B. Clark, of near Farmington, was in town Monday. He expects to go to Nebraska, after the election, for a couple of months, where he has relatives. His wife, who has been visiting in Franklin county, Neb., for some time, will return home this week.

Hillsboro is not having a boom, but a good steady growth, far greater than it ever before experienced. The new houses are all substantial, and in many cases modern dwellings. There is a good demand for lots, and in some parts of the city, good building lots are scarce. It is said that several new additions will be laid out next Spring.

While at the slaughter house, last Saturday morning, Ed. Moore, of the firm of Moore & Greear, dropped a butcher knife into a bucket of water. Hastily reaching down to recover the knife, his left hand encountered the point of the instrument, which penetrated the palm, cutting an ugly gash, an inch and half long. Dr. F. A. Bailey sowed up the wound.

Col. Robt. A. Miller, of Portland, spoke at the court house, last Saturday night, for Bryan. The turnout was about equal to that received by M. C. George, who spoke for Taft, last week. Party enthusiasm seems to be lacking in Oregon this year. It will be a quiet election, without buttons or badges, and it will be dangerous to talk much on that day around the polls in Oregon. The Uren's Corrupt Practices Act will be in force on that day.

John Johns, the man arrested by Sheriff Hancock, last week, on suspicions of being the person who went through the Dillely store, the week previous, was released last Saturday. Johns was trying to sell a watch chain at the Hillsboro Lumber Co.'s mills, when arrested. It turns out that Johns is a hard working fellow, who has been living near Shattuck, and that he has money in the bank. He took his arrest good naturedly, saying that it would be found out that he was not the man wanted. He worked for R. H. Love, of near Shattuck, all summer, and Love came up Saturday, and got him out.

WASH. CO. MAN MADE MANAGER OF C. C. L. A.

W. H. Wehrung Elected Manager of Portland Fair

WILL COMMENCE DUTIES AT ONCE

Association Raises $40,000 to Pay off Indebtedness

The Portland Country Club & Livestock Association, which held such a successful fair this year, will become a strong association. It raised $40,000, last week, to pay off indebtedness, and the directors elected Hon. W. H. Wehrung, of this county, as manager of the fair, his duties beginning at once. Mr. Wehrung was President of the State Fair for 4 years, and it was largely due to his management that that institution was placed on a secure financial footing.

Mr. Wehrung is President of the Alaska-Yukon Fair Commission of this state, and seems to have a natural adaptation for that sort of work. He is a native son of Washington county, and is possessed of much executive ability, which is what counts in the position to which he has just been elected.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

The District County Sunday School Convention will be held at the Christian church at Forest Grove, Saturday, October 31, commencing at 9:30 a. m., closing at 4 p. m. Following is the programme:

Music.
Paper—The relation of the Sunday school to the church, Rev. H. Gould.

The Sunday school teacher as a sub-pastor, Mrs. C. F. Clapp.
The Maxima class, Mrs. H. Gould.

The duty the teacher owes the Sunday school; the duty the school owes the teacher, A. B. Fitch.
Temperance and good citizenship, L. L. Hollinger, county superintendent.

Recess.
Question box, Rev. C. F. Clapp.
Teachers training class, Rev. C. H. Sias.

Presentation of diplomas.
The successful teacher, Miss Emma B. Penfield.

The duties of a Sunday school teacher, Prof. O. W. Gardner.
Good of the order.
