A marriage license was issued by the County Clerk Nov. 19, 1908, to Ferdinand Langer and Gertrude Bronner, both of this county.

Jas Irving has filed a suit for divorce from his wife, Mary Irving in the circuit court for Washington county. The complaint recites that the couple were married in Redwing, Minn.,—a place made famous by a sentimental song, entitled: "The Moon Shines Bright Tonight on Redwing." The moon, however, failed to shine as brightly out here in Oregon, and on the 16th of February, 1908, the couple separated, after defendant, so it is alleged, had assaulted plaintiff, by kicking and striking him. Defendant was fond of attending dances, to which plaintiff objected, and then came the alleged assault and the separation. The couple have a minor son, and the father asks that the boy be given into his custody and care.
