GOOD NEWS

Many Hillsboro Readers Have Heard it and Profited Thereby

'Good news travels fast,' and the thousands of bad back sufferers in Hillsboro are glad to learn that prompt relief is within their reach. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Thousands upon thousands of people are telling the good news of their experience with the Old Quaker Remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

J. K. Parrish, 372 1/2 E. Oak St., Portland, Ore., says: 'I think just as highly of Doan's Kidney Pills today as I did over three years ago when I endorsed them publicly. Kidney complaint made its appearance in my case so gradually that it was some time before I paid much attention to it. However, a heavy cold which I contracted, was the means of bringing my trouble to a climax. Dull pains across my loins and through my back caused me the most intense suffering, and if I did any work that required me to over exert myself, my condition was much worse. I noticed a convincing testimonial in the papers concerning Doan's Kidney Pills and this led me to try them. The results of their use were highly satisfactory. I was so completely relieved that there has never been a return of my trouble since.'

The Pacific Coast Condensed Milk Company has pulled off two of its wagons for its Winter, owing to the scarcity of the milk supply. Part of this is due to the fact that many are now sending their milk to Portland, and the metropolitan purchasers are outbidding the local people. When the Spring comes again there will be plenty for all, and the wagons will again be hauling to Hillsboro, with probably an addition or two. Portland's great growth is making that point an excellent market for Washington County's milk product.

Dennis Burkhalter, a cousin of Dan and Ervine Burkhalter, of South Tualatin, and who for 35 years was an employee of the Southern Pacific, and who for several years has been general superintendent of the Sacramento division, died Dec 2 at his home in the California capital city, from a general breakdown. As a practical railroad man on a mountain division he had no superior. Five hundred people attended his burial and his subordinates sent to the home of his widow two carloads of flowers as a tribute of their esteem. Burial was at Los Angeles.

Valentine Sears, who died at Ballston, Or., Dec. 14, was born near Greenville, Floyd County, Ind., Dec. 9, 1825. He married Miss Sarah Ann Boston, who died in Tillamook in 1883 and soon after his marriage moved to Jefferson County, Iowa. After a few years' residence there, he started west in the Spring of 1853, accompanied by his wife and two sons. He settled on Salt Creek, in Polk County, where he lived until the late '70s, when he moved to Tillamook County. After his wife's death he returned to Polk County. He is survived by two sons, Jonathan G. of Hillsboro, and Charles W., Beaver.
