LEGAL MIX-UP OVER A BEAVERTON WILL

Widow of Mrs. Hannah Purser Asks for Guardian

LARGES SHE NEEDS GUARDIAN

Twenty Thousand Dollars in Wealth Involved

H. Ouderkerk, joined by Chas. Johnson, aged 45 years, has asked Judge Goodin to name a guardian over the person and estate of Mrs. Hannah Purser, an elderly woman, and widow of the late David Purser, the Beaverton onion king. Mrs. Purser recently made a will, naming Johnson as her legatee. She later was ill, and became delirious, running away, and doing other things that showed for the time being that she was not in her right mind. During her illness Johnson opened one of her tin trunks—which was in his custody—and took out some money, and discovered that he was sole legatee. When she recovered she evidently found that Johnson had entered the receipt, and she had her at lawyer, H. T. Bagley, out Johnson from the place, and also proceeded to have Ouderkerk, who occupied another house of hers, notified to leave. Mrs. Purser made a new will disinheriting Johnson, and the suit was brought at once. If their contention stands, then the old will is good, even if destroyed.

H. T. Bagley, assisted by W. N. Barrett, is attorney for Mrs. Purser, and Chas. J. Schnabel is counsel for Ouderkerk and Johnson. The suit has had one day in court, and will be concluded next Monday. Mrs. Purser is still too ill to be in court.

MRS. GEO. KIRKWOOD

Mrs. Janet Somerville Kirkwood, wife of Geo. Kirkwood, died at Forest Grove, Dec. 25, 1908. She was born in Rothesay, Buteshire, Scotland, February 26, 1826, and was married to George Kirkwood, Nov. 4, 1850. Four children were born to the union, one of whom, a daughter, Mrs. W. O. Donelson, mourns her loss. The year of their marriage they came to America, and came to Oregon in 1892, settling at Forest Grove, where they have since resided. The remains were taken to the Portland crematorium, and interment made.

Abraham Zuhler, of near Cedar Hill, was in town Saturday.

Frank cows for sale. Will trade for goats.—J. T. Killen, Banks, Oregon.

John Iversen, who recently moved to St. Johns from near this city, was in town Tuesday.

Harry Guild, with Schiller, was out Sunday, the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Guild.

W. A. Marlin, of south of the city, was in town Saturday, and called on the Argus.

Frank Wallace, with the government work at Hammond, was in the city to spend Christmas with his family.

Mrs. T. P. Buzhard will do plain sewing at her residence, corner Fourth and Jackson Streets, Hillsboro.

Al. McCumsey, the Mountindale sawmill man, was in Tuesday evening. His mill is shut down for the holidays.

Marshall W. P. Atkinson lays down the star, as city marshal, which he has carried for eight years. Carl Larsen takes the position January 1.

A full quarter block, one block from Oregon Electric, just the place to build your home. Can't be duplicated in the city for $1050.—Connell-Imbrie Co.

Hillsboro Argus, $1.50 per year. Walter Zuercher, of near Cedar Mill, was in town Monday.

Miss Ona Ford visited with friends in Portland, over Christmas.

Money to loan on real estate. Terms reasonable. Apply to Kuratli Bros., Hillsboro, Or. 21-1.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Jackson visited Christmas with Oliver Holmes and wife, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Everest, of St. John, were guests at the J. B. Wilkes home the first of the week.

For Hercules giant powder, fuse and caps, see Chas. R. Bradley, near Newton station. Phone 449. Pacific States. 42-5.

Fred Zilly and wife, of Portland, spent Christmas with T. R. Imbrie and family.

E. McCormick, with the Oregon Nursery, was a county seat visitor Saturday.

Abe Grossen, of northeast of West Union, was in the city Monday morning.

H. L. Flint, of near Scholls, was in town Saturday, and passed the time of the day with the Argus.

Andrew Wann, with the street cleaning department, of Portland, was out Sunday evening, the guest of relatives and friends.

Winfield McMurphy and Laura Borden were married December 27, 1908, at the home of Mrs. Alma Seelye, Rev. LaDow officiating.

Thos. E. Cornelius, of Salem, was in the city last week, looking after the sale of some horses that he and Fred Cornelius brought down from Eastern Oregon.

John Miller, wife and children, were out from Montavilla, Christmas, guests of Grandma Susan Brown and family.

The Groner Rowell Co. desire to say that they are out of all sizes of drain tile, except 10 and 12 inch. On the 17th of this month, however, they will have a full supply of all sizes. Phone before you come for tile.

N. Womer and Frank Atkins, of near Laurel, were in the city Monday. Mr. Womer says that Winter grain is looking fine this season, and there is no snow on the Chehalis mountains.

Dr. J. S. Bishop, who has lately returned from a course of study in hospitals and sanatoriums in the East, is now prepared to give the best modern home treatment for tuberculosis. Office in the Templeton Block, Forest Grove, Or. 341.

A lot 100x200 feet on Washington street, in heart of city, fair house, for $1300. This property is easily worth $1500 today. Must be sold quick.—Connell-Imbrie Co.

Forest Grove, Monday, by a vote of 82 to 33, decided to build a $12,500 school house. The site and grounds will soon be selected and the building will be modern in every respect. The old building is to be maintained for the intermediate grades.

Offering all the ornamental shrubs and vines for sale cheap. I also have a lot of roses, bulbs, (such as narcissus, peonies, etc.) and greenhouse plants. Will soon have an abundance of blooms.—Mrs. Agnes Campbell, corner Seventh and Fir Sts., Hillsboro. Phone, Independent 1154.

A visit to the Southern Pacific depot demonstrates that the travel over that line out of Hillsboro is not nearly so great since the advent of the Oregon Electric. There has been a loss of perhaps 65 per cent. in the travel. When asked about it Agent Vickers, like John D. Rockefeller, had "nothing to say." "We're taking in lots of cash," he said, and that was all he would venture.

Harry Frink, conductor on the Forest Grove local, was "mohbed" on Christmas Eve, as the 5:40 train pulled out of Portland, by six men, one of whom was Chas. J. Schnabel, a Portland attorney. The conductor was presented with a fine lantern, suitably engraved, and the brakeman was presented with a pair of gloves. The conductor was voted the most accommodating man on the West Side train service.

H. T. Blair and wife, of Portland, were out Sunday, guests of Mrs. Ruth Blair, of North Hillsboro. Mr. Blair is still on the composing force of the Oregonian. He recently had an experience with two holdup artists, and says that he happened to have but 15 cents with him at the time, and stood with him at the time, and stood the two highwaymen off until he backed under a light, when they were remoniously departed. After that Blair bought cartridges with his 15 cents, and when Summer comes he will buy the gun.

EUGENE HUGHES NOW ON LARGE CIRCUIT

Former Washington County Clerk in Vaudeville

PLAYS WITH BEST CO. ON ROAD

Putting in the Week at the Orpheum, Portland

Eugene C. Hughes, raised at Forest Grove, and who was elected county clerk in 1888, and served two terms, after which he was engaged for a year or so in the mercantile business in this city, is now with one of Cohan's big productions, and he plays at the Orpheum, in Portland, all this week.

Hughes left Hillsboro about 14 years ago, and went to New York. After being in the East several years he married the leading lady in a theatrical company, and he has been at the vaudeville business ever since.

Hughes was possessed of a great deal of ability, and made a good county clerk. The business in which he engaged in Hillsboro failed, however, and Hughes left for the East. His whereabouts were unknown for some years, when finally it was learned that he was on the stage in London and New York City. When the big circuit was made he and his wife secured an engagement and the company rolled into Portland at the last of the week. Many Washington County people attended the Orpheum this week to see Hughes in his new role.

Tuesday's Oregonian says:

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hughes, the former an Oregon boy, by the way, who was County Clerk of Washington County in days gone by, before he became a big card on the vaudeville stage, give a hilarious comedy sketch called "Sup-pressing the Press," which is calculated to make a graven image smile and the normal human being laugh outright and often. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes seem to have realized the very essence of comedy and their efforts are calculated to arouse the enthusiasm of the most exacting audience.

Madame Norelli, well known as the wife of Dr. Ernest Barton, has returned from the East, where she has had a year of triumphal singing with the big stars. Mrs. Barton was for years musical instructor at Pacific University.

It is said "A Prophet is without honor in his own country," yet the man who buys this three acre tract with a fine house and barn, and all kinds of fruit, will be honored for his wisdom. See Connell-Imbrie as to price.

Mrs. Grace Black, wife of Chas. Black, husband and wife formerly of Hillsboro, came up from Los Angeles the last of the week, for a short visit with her parents, S. D. Russell and wife. Mr. Black is at Forest Grove.

Chief Engineer Geo. L. Davis, of the P. R. & N. was in the city Tuesday, returning from a trip over the construction work above Buxton.

Mrs. Amanda Purdin, wife of the late Hugh Purdin, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Bessie, visited with her mother, Mrs. W. R. Barrett, over Christmas.

Connell-Imbrie Land Co. have condemned the following tracts: S. B. Huston to R. C. Harramp, house and lot opposite the court house; L. M. Tompkins to J. Hensley, house and lot; Geo. A. Brown to E. C. Groce, 10 acres and south of town; Phil. Masters to L. C. Waibel, house and lot 99x200; Frank Fessler to L. M. Tompkins, house and lot 99x99; E. Bull to Fred Ennis, house and lot 10x198; R. P. Simon to Mrs. Dan Barkhalter, corner First and Oak streets, lot 90x198; G. A. Patterson to W. O. Donelson, undertaking business.

Reuben Foster, a Portland accountant, and formerly with the P. R. & N. C. E. Lytle general manager, in the early days of the railway, was out Sunday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Bagley.

Robt. O. Stevenson, state game warden, was in town Saturday, and made the Argus office a pleasant call. "Bob" says he is having but little trouble over the district these days.

JAMES J. CROSELEY

James Jesse Croseley, aged 52 years, died at his home in Forest Grove, December 26, the cause of death being tuberculosis. Mr. Croseley was born at Mackinaw, Ill., and came to Oregon 35 years ago. A wife and the following children survive him: Percy Roy, Clyde Lester, Ferrin Cary, William Henry, Edna May, Ruth Leavie and Jesse Ovis Croseley, all of Forest Grove. Of his immediate family the following brother and sisters: Harry Croseley, Tacoma, Wash; Mrs. A. T. Knox, Portland; Mrs. Charles Bell, Seattle, Wash; Miss Wilda Croseley, Tacoma.

Interment took place Monday, in the Naylor cemetery.

WANT DATA ABOUT POULTRY RAISING

Oregon Agricultural Exert is After Fact

ASKS ALL ABOUT OUR BEN FRUIT

Will Also send out information to all Who May Wish it

Washington County farmers are receiving a circular from James Dryden, of the Oregon Agricultural College, which asks questions about poultry raising, egg production, etc.

The state is importing eggs from the east, and the college directors want to ascertain the trouble, if it is possible, in order to change this to an export basis.

The Argus advises all who get the queries to answer them, as they will then receive valuable information as to poultry raising for best results. The questions are:

1. What is the size of your farm?
2. How many laying hens do you keep?
3. What breed do you keep?
4. How do you house the fowls?
5. Are they confined in yards?
6. Do they have free range on the farm?
7. Describe method of feeding?
8. What animal food, if any, do you feed?
9. What is the annual cost of food per fowl?
10. How many eggs are laid per fowl during the year?
11. How many years do you keep your laying hens?
12. What has been your experience with incubators, if any?
13. Do the incubator chicks do as well as the hen-hatched chicks?
14. What was the lowest price received for your eggs and poultry in 1908? The highest?
15. Do you ship any to city markets?
16. Do you co-operate with your neighbors in shipping? Why?
17. Is the poultry looked after by the men or women?
18. What is the average death rate among the fowls and what is chief cause?
19. What is the hardest problem in poultry-keeping?
20. Do you consider poultry-keeping profitable on the farm?
21. To what extent do you think farmers should engage in poultry-keeping?
22. Do you raise turkeys? How many each year?
23. What per cent of turkeys hatched do you raise?
24. What is principal cause of losses in turkeys?
25. Are you interested in a home-reading course in poultry culture?
