The Legislature appropriated business. $35,000 for the Oregon exhibit at the Alaska-Yukon fair, at Seattle. The commission asked for $50,000. The Fair should be of great benefit to Oregon, and the amount given ought to be a good investment for the state.

The death of Levi C Walker. late county surveyor, is regretted by all who knew him. He was of a quiet, unobtrusive disposition, and many did not know his true inner nature, which was that of a wholly good and honest man, who tried to do his duty as he saw it, without seeking credit for the good he did. He was a good public officar, and stood for the best in his community.
