UNITED RAILWAYS WILL BUILD 14 MILES

Through Washington County
When Weather Gets Right

TILLAMOOK EXTENSION DOUBTFUL
Road may Have Total Length of Two Hundred Miles

Regarding an announcement purporting to come from President Greenough of Missoula, Mont., of the United Railways, that his line would build on to Tillamook from Forest Grove, Chief Engineer L. B. Wickersham of the United Railways announced to a Portland paper, that he doubted very much that Mr. Greenough had made such a statement.

"Certainly no one here has been informed of such a purpose and I scarcely think Mr. Greenough would state it as a fact without saying something to us," said Mr. Wickersham. "We have enough work on hand now to keep us busy for some time attending to new extensions."

It has been an open secret for some time that the United Railways intended building to Tillamook, but no official announcement was ever made of that nature, and it is believed that the right of way has not yet been secured. Mr. Wickersham said that his company had received a petition from residents of Scappoose asking them to build the line through Scappoose, but that it was out of the way of their intended extensions and he did not think any line would be built down the Columbia river. He said the difficulties of building a railroad into St. Helens would probably preclude the road going there.

The motors for the new passenger cars have arrived and will be placed in the coaches next week. The ballasting as far as Hillsboro has been completed and work will start on 14 additional miles of track between Hillsboro and Forest Grove as soon as the weather will permit. About 50 men are now at work in the vicinity of Hillsboro. The company has arranged to secure its electric power from the Portland Railway, Light & Power company and Mr. Wickersham said that the line would probably always be an electric one.

He said that it would be feasible to have an electric line at least 200 miles long, although that would necessitate the construction of other power houses along the route. All of the construction and equipment of the line has been procured with an eye to keeping the United Railways an electric road, according to Mr. Wickersham.

REWARD OF $100

I will willingly pay to any one the sum of $100, who can lead to the arrest and conviction of the guilty party or parties who sent me a blackmailing letter on February 6, 1909, containing obscene language, insulting my wife, and making murderous threats upon my life. Ralph G. Edwards. 4910
Sherwood, Ore., R. D. 4.

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN" COMING

Leon W. Washburn with Stetson's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" Company, begins an engagement at the Crescent, on Saturday, Feb. 27th, when the patrons of that popular house will see this time honored play in all its superior attractiveness. "Uncle Tom," the hero of this purposeful story, is portrayed by A. F. McCruider, Stetson's original "Uncle Tom," probably the best known impersonator of this celebrated character in the world. The work of competent players is further enhanced by beautiful stage settings and new electrical devices. Col. Sawyer's celebrated pack of Siberian bloodhounds is one of the features with this company. New and novel specialties are introduced.

GETS 25 DAYS FOR KILLING A BEAVER

Morris Knudson, of Sherwood, Fails to Pay $50 Fine

SET FOR COON—CAUGHT A BEAVER
Confronted by Pelt of Animal in Court,
He Pleads Guilty

Morris Knudson, of the Sherwood section, was arrested by O. B. Parker, of McMinnville, a deputy game warden, last Friday, and brought to Hillsboro, charged with the crime of killing a beaver. Knudson, who is unmarried, pleaded guilty, when brought face to face with the pelt of his victim, and was fined $50 by Justice Barnes, or 25 days in county bastils. Not having the cash, and bondsmen being shy, Knudson chose the only available horn of the dilemma, and was taken to the county jail to serve out his time. He took his fate philosophically, remarking in a matter of fact way, that when he had served his allotted time, "it would then be time to go to work." Knudson is said to be a hard working fellow, and he claimed in his defense that he set a trap for a coon along the river, and accidentally caught a beaver. Some one informed on him, hence he is in jail.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

Notice is hereby given that the taxrolls for Washington County, Oregon, will be open for collection, and payment of taxes, on Tuesday, February 25, 1909, and all who make full payment of their tax before March 15, 1909, will receive a rebate of 3 per centum. Half payments can be made by the first Monday in April without interest charge, or penalty, and the remaining half can be paid at any time prior to the first Monday in October, 1909. Where no payment is made by the first Monday in April, 1909, the tax becomes delinquent, and the statute requires, from that date, a penalty of 10 per cent. per month on said tax until it is paid.

GEO. G. HANCOCK,
Sheriff and ex-officio tax collector for
Washington County, Oregon,
Hillsboro, Oregon, February 16, 1909.

THE "SUNSET" WRITE-UP

The booklet issued by the Washington County Development League, and printed by the Sunset Magazine Co. of San Francisco, contains a number of fine illustrations, but the descriptive matter is not as full as it might be, in fact it does not give the information to which the people are entitled. The map of Washington county is fair. Less than two pages are devoted to the fruit industry, and Hillsboro, the county seat, and principal town of the county, gets but 32 lines of mention. Gaston received 26 lines of notice. In the list of illustrations are Marlin's onion crop, the Porter hop yard, Bagley's hop yard, and a "paying off" scene at the latter yard; a fine Holstein bull is shown on the Carmichael place; also Frank Chalmers' fine herd, and Jackson's herd of Holsteins at Glencoe; Wm. Schulmerich's South Tualatin herd of Jersey are shown; also J. W. Connell's farm and dairy herd; three scenes at Cove Oaks farm, one showing a summer irrigation crop; Marlin's watermelon crop; the Rice onion field; the Wm. Bagley hop house; Geo. R. Bagley's Cove Oaks irrigated corn crop; Wm. McCourt's farm; a scene at the Oregon Nursery, near Oreno; and Mr. McGill's fine bungalow; the Hillsboro public school, and the Court House; Groner & Rowell's tile factory at Scholls. Hillsboro residences get no showing.

OREGON ELECTRIC SCHEDULE

The Oregon Electric runs six cars each way daily. The 8:55 a. m. and 1:45 p. m. trains out of Hillsboro connect promptly with Salem cars at Garden Home. The Hillsboro-Portland timetable follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wallace, of Portland, visited with the Wallaces, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Abbott, of Portland, visited relatives in the city, Sunday.

Mrs. E. H. Rotermund, of New-Town, was an Argus caller last Saturday.

Sam Moon, a calling stock and dairy authority, was in from Centerville, Saturday.

J. C. Bechen, of West Union, was in the county seat Saturday afternoon.

Few small pigs for sale.—James Borwick, 14 miles north of Reedville.

Rev. Stewart, the Methodist minister of Banks, was down last Friday, to attend the funeral of the late Dr. Berger.

Oregon Electric officials came out Wednesday, in a special, and in company with the County Court and Surveyor Morrill, inspected all the crossings over the county roads in Washington County. The agreement was that no grade should exceed 5 per cent. at road crossings, and the right of way will not be signed until this fact is established. It is understood some of the grades are as high as 7 per cent.

The young folks held a social at the home of Jacob Mitchell, last Thursday evening, and the drawing for the benefit of St. Matthews' Catholic Church, conducted by the young ladies, was concluded. Mrs. Emil Kuattli was the recipient of a fancy skirt and Mrs. Emma McKinney won a handsome sofa pillow, which was designed and made by Mesdames Frank Regan and Frank Richard.

The masquerade at the skating rink last Friday night, was well attended, and there were many skaters in evidence. Miss Ila Blaser, as "Flower Girl," was given the lady prize as the best sustained lady character; Dan'l Rousso, first prize, best sustained male character; Arthur C. Adkins, most comical character, representing "Rube"; and Miss Neva Marks, as "Sis Hopkins," was assigned the prize for the most comical lady character.

The next term of Circuit Court will convene here on the 15th of March. The Legislature added an additional Circuit Judge to this district, which is composed of Washington, Clackamas, Columbia and Clatsop counties, and by the terms of the bill, one of the Judges must reside in either Columbia or Clatsop counties. No provision was made for an additional District Attorney, and E. B. Tongue, the present incumbent will have to do the work for the whole district, without additional compensation. The district was not divided. The Governor will appoint an additional Judge, to serve until the next general election.

W. O. Donelson is preparing to build a one story building on the corner of Main and Third streets, just as soon as the weather will permit. It will have a concrete foundation, and will be built of hollow cement blocks. The dimensions will be 50x100, and Mr. Donelson will occupy the building when completed with his undertaking goods. He may conclude to make the building two stories. Hillsboro needs more business buildings for rent. There is a growing demand for such buildings, and the demand will increase, instead of diminish. Hillsboro is bound to be a big business center, and the people may as well prepare for it.

Washington county dairymen effected a permanent organization at Forest Grove last week. The officers of the organization are: President, Wm. Schulmerich; vice-president, Carl Pfahl; secretary and treasurer, D. B. Adams. Prof. D. W. Souder, of the department of agronomy, Corvallis College, was the principal speaker. Short speeches were made by Wm. Schulmerich, A. T. Buxton, Carl Pfahl and others. Mr. Schulmerich paid a compliment to the county newspapers, saying they were doing a grand work and that their reports of farmers' and dairymen's meetings were of special interest. This was in answer to a rather sarcastic remark of some one in the audience that county newspapers should give better accounts of doings of special interest to farmers instead of gossip. "The weekly papers are doing a good work," said Mr. Schulmerich, "they are helping us in promoting the interests of good dairying and are our best friends."

EPITOME OF THE AMENDED GAME LAW

Those who Fish Must pay a License of $100
