

WEN HERE TO PROMOTE A $12,000 CANNERY

All Have it in Operation This Summer if People aid

ANT IS TO BE CO-OPERATIVE

Represent a Chicago Manufacturing Company

Davidson and Danforth, of Portland, representing a firm who manufacture canning machinery, Chicago, have been in the city a week past, endeavoring to promote a fruit and vegetable cannery for Hillsboro. They were before the Board of Trade last Thursday night, and received the sanction that body, who will render all possible assistance. The plan of the promoters is to put in a $12,000 cannery, which will be able to handle all the fruit and vegetable products of this section for some years.

Farmers will be encouraged to put in vegetable crops suitable for canning purposes, once the enterprise is assured. The idea will be to get the people to own and operate for themselves. The Company will, upon a proper guarantee of funds, proceed to erect buildings, and install the necessary machinery, the subscriptions to the coming day as the work proceeds. It is hoped to interest a number of farmers in the scheme, when the cannery is established, they will be the chief beneficiaries. The Argus has urged the establishment of a cannery at this place, believing that it would result in great good to the community, in various ways, which it has heretofore pointed out. Whether the promoters succeed or not, rests with the people. These canneries are being established all over the state, and, wherever tried, have uniformly been successful.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Beginning Friday, March 25th, and continuing throughout the season, we will display pattern and trimmed hats of best styles, best quality and best values. Your inspection and judgment will be greatly appreciated.

Gen. Manager Talbot, Supt. Coolidge and Auditor Nevins of the O. E. Co. were in town Tuesday. It was learned that the new depot will soon be constructed.

Robert O. Stevenson, of Forest Grove, State Game Warden, was in Hillsboro, Tuesday, on business. Mr. Stevenson stated while here that the game laws are better observed than at any time in the history of the state. He is at present employing 26 deputies in various parts of Oregon, and during the summer season will employ as many as 50 men. He states that during the recent open season as many as 50 elk were killed by hunters, and that there are about two thousand of this game animal within the borders of the state. In Southern Oregon, where formerly hundreds of deer were wantonly slaughtered for their hides, very few are now killed out of season, and the "deer hog" is extremely careful how he plies his avocation. I now represent the Spirilla cornet, formerly represented by Mrs. Hattie Perkins. Selection in your home, where accurate measurements can be taken, and you get a corset to meet the requirements of your figure. Send postal card, or phone call for appointment—Mrs. M. E. Caddle, Hillsboro, Oregon, Fifth and Jackson Street. Independent phone, 584 46 5.

As I have decided to continue my millinery business, I will open up Tuesday, March 30, with a nice, new, up-to-date line of hats, in the point and wall paper store, next to my residence. I cordially invite all my friends and patrons to call and see my line, before buying, and I assure them that they will be treated right. They can also see our new line of up to date wall paper, at the same time—Mrs. J. P. Peterson, Cornelius, Ore. 2 3

Don't use sprays that you don't know anything about. They are dear at any price. I have been in the spray business for years, and my sprays, as you know, have given satisfaction. Send for prices in barrel lots. Prices lower than last season. B. Leis, 511 1/2 Beaverton, Ore.

Mike Halpin, while engaged in blasting stumps near Glenoco, Friday, was blown a distance of two or three rods, by a premature explosion. Beyond the shock and a few minor scratches, he was not injured. Dr. Tamiesie was called to fix him up. His escape from worse consequences was almost miraculous, as he was bending over the stump when the explosion occurred.

ESTIMATES FOR A 40 MILE CONTRACT

Are Being Prepared by the P. R. & N. Officials

WORK RUSHED AT EACH END

Two Thousand Men Will be Employed on Construction This Summer

Superintendent C. E. Lytle, of this city, states that estimates are now being prepared for a big contract on the P. R. & N. extension, which will include the building of 40 miles of railroad between Hillsboro and Tillamook City. McCabe, the contractor, is now busy pushing the work on his present contract, with 350 men, and the track has been finished to the 20 mile post. The latter expects to begin tracklaying beyond the 20 mile post, next Friday. All the bridges have been completed up to No. 18, and the latter number is rapidly being finished. On the Tillamook end of the line, 10 miles of grading have been finished, and 4 miles of track laid. A force of 250 men are employed on the work. The road has been graded from Tillamook City to Miami crossing, and the Company's engineers are now locating a permanent line around Garibaldi point, down the beach. This is the line recently given to the P. R. & N. Co., by a decision of the Oregon Supreme Court. The 40 mile contract referred to on this end of the line will take the road down to the mouth of the Salmon river, where it flows into the Nehalem river. The Hillsboro and Burton train at this end of the line is used every other day for construction work.

The basket social given at the W. O. W. hall in Glenoco, last week, was a pleasant affair. Several songs were well rendered, and the band executed some pleasing numbers. The baskets sold netted $51, which goes to the school fund. A number of Hillsboro people attended. Miss Haunschild deserves credit for the fine programme.

The matter of a county fair is again being talked. The details were worked out last winter, but when it came to subscribing for stock, there was an apparent lack of interest, although several of the promoters offered to take liberal blocks. Washington county should have a good county fair, but it takes money to make it go. That is the only thing that appears to be lacking.

Edward Schulmerich returned from his trip to the Middle West, yesterday morning. He visited Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Missouri, Tennessee and several northern states. He pronounces Oklahoma the most progressive of the southern states, and Arkansas the slowest. He states that Oregon is well advertised, and that many eyes are turned this way, and predicts a big immigration this season. After seeing the greater part of the Middle West, Mr. Schulmerich is of the opinion that Oregon is best of all.

Mrs. Eliza Benson, wife of Andrew Benson, of Cornelius, died at the family home, March 24, 1909. Her maiden name was Reid, and she was born in Ireland in 1844, coming to America in 1859. MEXICAN WAR VETERAN DIES AT SANTA MONICA

Col. T. J. Bramel, Formerly of Hillsboro

LIVED TO RIPE AGE OF EIGHTY FIVE

Well Known Here and at Redville, for Many Years

Col. T. J. Bramel, the well known Mexican War Veteran, died at Santa Monica, Cal., March 17, after being a sufferer for years from heart trouble. He was born in Missouri, February 21, 1824, and when a young man joined the American army which was invading Mexico. He was in the battle which completely routed Santa Anna, and as one of the aides, picked up the Mexican commander's wooden leg, which was left on the battlefield. After the war was concluded, Col. Bramel was in California for several years, later coming to Oregon. He was well known at Astoria, where he was for years a popular caterer. He was a stepfather of G. J. Palmater, of this city. He leaves no children. Col. Bramel was widely known among the veterans of the Northwest, and his irrepressible humor made him many friends.

Just a few days before his death he wrote a letter to his Hillsboro relatives, saying that he felt better than for years.

Mr. Bramel had many friends here who will regret his death, and remember with kindness and sympathy the old veteran who always had a cheery word for everybody.
