The Portland Daily Journal is making itself ridiculous with its geographical blunders. Wednesday it had this intelligent (?) item: "Work on the P. R. & N road from Tillamook to Sheridan, is progressing at a rapid rate." It is hereby informed that Hillsboro is on the map, and that the P. R. & N Co will not make a detour of some 50 miles for the pleasure of going through Sheridan.

Bids were opened by County Judge Goodin and Commissioner McClaran last Friday for the construction of the new bridge over Gales Creek, at the Watts school house. This is the bridge that fell last week, precipitating a man by the name of Sexton and his team to the bed of the creek, a distance of about 12 feet, but without harm to man, horses or vehicle. The bidders were: D. B. Reasoner, $349.24; J. S. Loring, $295; C. E. Potts, $328.75. The contract was awarded to Loring, who will begin construction at once. The structure will be a sixty foot span, with straining beam truss, and will cost $295.

REPORT OF THE MARCH GRAND JURY

Returns Seven True and Two Not True Bills Into Court

MAKES SOME RECOMMENDATIONS

Several Improvements are Suggested to be Made at Poor Farm

Following is the report of the Grand Jury for the March term of Circuit Court. The Jury presented its report on the 25th of the month, and was discharged:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY

To the Honorable Thos. A. McElride, Judge of the above named Court:

We, the Grand Jury, duly empaneled and sworn to inquire into all crimes committed or triable in this county, and to inquire into the conditions and management of every public prison and public institution in this county, respectively report the result of our investigations, as follows, to-wit:

That we have returned seven true bills, and two not true bills.

That we have examined into the conditions of the officers of the county court house, and find all of said officers efficiently conducted by the respective officers, and we find the wants of the county clerk's and sheriff's offices entirely too small and inadequate for the business of the offices, and we recommend that an additional vault be immediately provided for each office.

We also find that there is no vault or safe in the assessor's office for the safekeeping of the valuable records of the office, and we deem the need of the same especially urgent, and would emphatically suggest and recommend that a fire proof vault or safe be immediately provided for said office.

We find the safe in the surveyor's office inadequate and out-of-date, and suggest that a new safe or vault be provided for the safekeeping of the records of that office against fire.

We also find that the notes of the late L. C. Walker, for the past year, have not been put upon record, and recommend that the county court investigate this matter and have the notes placed upon record immediately, and find out whether Mr. Walker has been paid for this work, and if so, we would suggest that his estate or his bondsmen should pay the costs of transcribing his notes.

We also investigated the condition of the county jail, and suggest that a new bed be placed in Cell No. 2, otherwise we find the jail well kept and in good condition.

We also find a great many of the officers, and in fact nearly all of them, badly in need of re-education, and would suggest that this be immediately attended to.

We have also examined into the conditions of the county poor farm, and we find the same clean and well kept, but in need of new bedding, and the buildings badly in need of general repairs. We would suggest that the buildings be lined up, and underpinning fixed, and a better foundation put under the chimneys, and that the building be made warmer and more comfortable. A new wood house should be built in place of the old one, and the barn should be repaired and have a new foundation placed under it immediately, before it is too late.

We would respectfully submit this, our report, and request that we be dismissed. Dated this 25th day of March, A. D. 1909.

H. V. Gates and daughter, who visited Klamath Falls, Ore., and California points during the past few weeks, returned home last Sunday. Commissioner Butler and a posse of neighbors, of near Beaverton, set up all one night last week, with shot guns waiting for the return of a Portland chicken thief, who stole about 50 chickens in the neighborhood the night before. He had cashed the chickens out along the road in gunny sacks, and evidently intended to return later in the night and get them, but daylight must have come too soon for his purpose, and he left the fowls by the roadside. Had he returned the following evening, he would have been given a warm reception.

Team for Sale—Span of geldings, 9 and 11 years old, weight 1500, each. Good team for logging camp or farm. Set double harness goes with team. Price, $300, if sold soon. Team can be seen at Callahan sawmill, Patton Valley. P. O. address, F. H. Harper, Gaston, Ore. 52-3

A movement has been started by the normal school towns to invoke the referendum on the appropriation made by the last legislature for the Oregon Agricultural College. A. T. Buxton, Master of the State Grange, is out in a letter addressed to the gauges of the state, in which he takes strong grounds against the proposed movement. The Oregon Agricultural College is the only institution of learning in the state, which fits the farmer boys with a practical education, and thus further dignifies their avocation. The whole thing savors of spite work on the part of the normal schools, and if the matter comes to an issue, the people ought to vote to sustain the appropriation.

Persons who contemplate building will do well to call on me, as I am able to furnish rough pencil sketches, or blue prints of buildings of all descriptions. Estimates and specifications furnished with each plan.—S. M. Holland, contractor and builder, Hillsboro, Ore. Pacific phone, 383. 52-11

W. H. Wehrung was out from Portland, Tuesday. On Friday he visited the Oregon building and grounds at the Alaska Yukon fair, and found everything in good shape. The Oregon building has a dome about 30 feet high, which an artist is decorating with Oregon seeds and grasses. On one-half of the circumference of the dome is a picture of Mt. Hood, and mountain and river scenes, all done in colored grasses grown in Oregon. On the opposite side are dairy and farm scenes, including the representation of a huge dairy cow. Mr. Wehrung says the effect of the artist's work will be striking. He hopes to have all the Oregon exhibits installed by May 15, and states that the exhibit will be one of which Oregonians may well feel proud.

PIONEER OF 1854 DIES AT AGE OF 94

Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson Passes Away at Scholls

WIDOW OF JUDGE BYER JACKSON

Six Grandsons Officiate as Pall-Bearers at Funeral

Mrs. Elizabeth Craig Jackson, a pioneer of 1854, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Emrick, at Scholls, March 26, 1909, aged 94 years. Elizabeth Craig was born in Kentucky, February 16, 1815, and was wedded to Hyer Jackson, May 24, 1831, later moving to Virginia, and thence to Indiana. In 1854, the family crossed the Plains to Oregon, settling on their donation land claim 2 miles east of Glencoe, where they resided until 1862, when they moved to the place known as the "Jackson Bottom Farm," just south of Hillsboro. Her husband, Judge Hyer Jackson, died in 1873, while serving a term as Washington county's treasurer. He had previously served as county judge, and was elected to the Oregon Legislature. He was also one of the leading attorneys of his day, in this county. He enjoyed the distinction of being the first county judge of Washington county. The train with which the Jacksons crossed the Plains, was not molested by the Indians, who were particularly hostile that year, but a train which was only 24 hours behind them was attacked, and all the people but one boy were murdered by the savages.

Eight children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, three only of whom survive, viz: P. M. Jackson, Hillsboro; Eugene S. Jackson, of near Grants Pass, and Mrs. Sarah Emrick, Scholls. Other children were: W. R. Jackson, Mrs. Mary J. Wilkes, Mrs. Louisa Kelsey, Laura and John Jackson.

Deceased is survived by thirteen grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild, as follows: Grandchildren—Thos. S., L. E., J. B. and O. G. Wilkes, Mrs. Elsie Schulmerich, of Hillsboro; Mrs. Anna Holmes, of Portland; Mrs. Nellie Purdin, Forest Grove; Loren and Lura Jackson, Hillsboro; Mrs. Norma Link, of Idaho; Claud Jackson, of Scholls; Mrs. Flossie Stone, of San Francisco, Cal.; Mrs. Estella Bonner, of Scholls. Great grand children—Marion F. Wilkes, of Corvallis, Or.; Burt, Elinor, Ward, Clair, Rhea, Lewis, Lynn, Ipha and Velma Wilkes, all of Hillsboro. Lyman F., son of Marion Wilkes, is the great-great-grandchild.

The funeral was held at the Christian church Sunday afternoon, Rev. Beery officiating. Interment was in the Hillsboro cemetery. The pall bearers were all grandsons of deceased: Loren and Claud Jackson, and T. S., L. E., J. B. and O. G. Wilkes.
