Harriman Gives Lytle $2,000,000 to Complete Road

WILL COST $3,500,000 WHEN DONE

Construction Will Employ More Than 1,000 Men in the Work

E. H. Harriman has authorized the expenditure of $2,000,000 within the next 12 months for the completion of the Pacific Railway & Navigation company line, known as the "Lytle road," from Hillsboro to Tillamook.

This new appropriation for completing the road will bring the total cost to about $3,500,000, the 37 miles of road now completed representing an expenditure of approximately a million and a half dollars.

To a Portland paper, today, President Lytle said: "I expect to have everything well under way by April 15. I am now getting bids on the construction of the 53 miles of road yet uncompleted. This includes the general construction work of grading, laying steel, building bridges and culverts and ballasting.

The work we have done so far has been far from easy, and that ahead of us presents some engineering difficulties that can't be overcome without much hard work. The country almost is unbelievably rough for much of the distance.

The $2,000,000 which Mr. Kruttschnitt has notified me I have to complete the work should cover all expenses and put the road in excellent shape for operation."

COMMERCIAL BANK HAS MORE NEW BLOOD

President Sholes Sells His Stock to Local Citizens

EDWARD SCHULMERICH PRESIDENT

Four new Stockholders Add Strength to the Institution

On Tuesday, A. S. Sholes sold his interest in the Commercial Bank of this city to J. W. and Dr. A. B. Bailey, Mrs. W. O. Donelson and Geo. Kirkwood, the latter of Forest Grove. Mr. Kirkwood will move to Hillsboro in a week or two, thus making the new stockholders all local people. At a meeting of the directors and stockholders held Tuesday, the resignation of A. S. Sholes, as President, and of J. W. Connell, as director, were accepted. E. I. Schulmerich was elected President of the bank and J. W. Bailey, Vice President. Geo. Schulmerich and J. W. Bailey were elected to succeed John Connell and E. I. Schulmerich, as directors. Geo. Schulmerich will continue as cashier, and F. J. Sewall, as assistant cashier. The addition of four new stockholders, representing as they do strong business interests in Hillsboro will put the Commercial in the front rank with similar institutions on the West Side. Under past conservative management it has grown rapidly since its establishment, and will continue to be one of the strong institutions of the county.

Mr. Sholes will continue with his associates to conduct the Cornelius State Bank, and that institution will be stronger, as a result of the change. Mr. Connell retires from the Commercial to engage in the mercantile business, this week purchased from the Schulmerichs by himself and associates.

OFFERS $10,000 FOR PLANT

An informal meeting of the city council was held Tuesday night, to hear a proposal which may be submitted to the council at its regular meeting next Tuesday night. A typewritten proposition was submitted for the inspection of the members present as a sort of prelude to its formal submission later on. Briefly stated, Mr. P. A. Devery, a Spokane capitalist, offers the council $10,000 for the water and light plant, to be paid in yearly installments of $1,000. He will require a 20 year franchise from the city, and agrees to put in a first class plant. The city must take and use for ten years for municipal lighting, 12,000 nominal candle power lights, at the following rates: For each incandescent, $1.00 per month; for each arc, $6 per month; rates on meter, minimum, $1 per month; first 3 1/2 candle power lamps, 60c each; next 5 at 40c each; if only one lamp is used, 75c for 16 candle power. On the basis of a 25 years' franchise, Mr. Devery will install and maintain a modern water system, and provide the storage of 50,000 gallons, in addition to present supply. The rates to consumers are higher than now, and that is the case with lights. On the basis of a 30 years' franchise, Mr. Devery will furnish a gravity water system, with pure, mountain water, with good fire pressure, the city to pay $150 per month for ten years. All hydrants used in excess of 30 to be paid for at rate of $250 each per month. It is understood that the council is not satisfied with the water and light rates to start with, but there may be modifications of the proposal. One councilman thinks the Devery proposition is not as good for the city as the one submitted by Mr. Gates. The matter will be discussed, however, at the meeting to be held next Tuesday night. It is hardly probable that the Council will want to take $10,000 for its plant, and then take its pay on installments. The city should get cash for the plant, and the light and water users should have protection. The people are not in favor of giving the plant away.

WELBON WHO USED AX ON LEDFORD

Found Guilty of Assault and Fined The Sum of $500

SEATTLE LAWYER IN THE CASE

Welbon was indicted for Assault with Dangerous Weapon

The trial of H. H. Welbon, indicted for an assault with a dangerous weapon, took place yesterday, the case going to the jury at a few minutes before 6 p. m. The defense had little evidence, while Mr. Lightfoot proved a good witness for the state. He stated that he heard Geo. Ledford cry for help, and ran in and prevented Welbon's further use of the weapon. Dr. Tamieie testified to sewing up the wound, which was upon the side of the head, and about 1 1/2 inches in length, making a clean cut, but not fracturing the skull. The evidence showed that the men had words before the assault, and Lightfoot heard Welbon say: "I'll fix you." Welbon swore that Ledford had an iron poker in his hand, at the time of the assault, but other witnesses refuted this statement.

The jury was composed of Chas. Taylor, L. F. Carstens, M. J. Christensen, H. L. Burchell, Aug. Tewa, J. J. Krebs, J. H. McNamer, John Kamra, Jacob Smith, Thos. Kerr, J. T. Young and C. Rehe. The jury returned a verdict of assault, this morning Judge McBride sentenced Welbon to pay a fine of $500.

GLEE CLUB CONCERT

The two Dramatic Cantatas to be given at the Crescent Theatre, Saturday evening, April 10th, will introduce two new works to a Hillsboro audience. The scene of the "Cloister Gate" is in the north of Europe, before a convent entrance. The two soloists are the Abbess and the "Homeless Maiden," who has fled from her home after her father has been killed by her lover. Distracted and miserable in mind and heart, she seeks entrance to the cloister when she hears the nuns singing the exquisite hymn that closes the cantata.

The "King Rene's Daughter" is from the German, as the former is taken from Bjornson. In the original—the drama is by Hertz—the argument is as follows: Iolanthe, daughter of King Rene, has been betrothed in infancy to the son of Count Vandemont. Stricken with blindness when but a year old, she was reared with all knowledge of the faculty of sight withheld from her. A leech has promised to restore her sight by means of an amulet he has given her, on condition she is first informed of the missing sense; but the King has refused permission. Iolanthe's betrothed wanders as a troubadour, lights upon her abode in a valley of Vanclous. Without knowing her, for a feud has kept their lives apart, the troubadour knight is enthralled by her beauty. He does not know that she is blind, and his words reveal to her the faculty of which she has been kept in ignorance. He aids the magician's art thus, unwittingly, and Iolanthe is restored to sight.

At Hillsboro, two of the soloists—Marta and Beatrice—will be singers from Hillsboro, at P. U. Conservatory, Miss Cecilia Greer and Miss Alice Sewell.

Other numbers include a violin solo by Dwanell Clapp, who is making a name for himself. The success he had recently, at Portland, was widely noticed, as well as his youth, for he is only sixteen years old. The male quartet has special college numbers. The violin solo on this occasion will be the "Grand Military Fantasia of Leonard." New college songs of Radcliffe College and Smith, as well as P. U. close the evening's program.

The program will begin promptly at eight o'clock on this occasion, as the program is not curtailed or cut. Reserved seats on sale at McCormick's Music Store.
