A. F. Clemons left Monday for Notus, Idaho, where he expects to reside. He still has some Hillsboro property, and may return after a time.

A heavy frost on the night of the 20th killed early potatoes and other vegetables, in places all over the county.

Persons who contemplate building will do well to call on me, as I am able to furnish rough pencil sketches, or blue prints of buildings of all descriptions. Estimates and specifications furnished with each plan—S. M. Holland, contractor and builder, Hillsboro, Ore. Pacific phone, 383. 52 11

A. W. Donelson, who has been back to Nebraska for about three months, returned to Hillsboro last Thursday evening. While East he bought 240 acres of Nebraska land, as an investment. He reports Nebraska farmers as prosperous, but that they have had a backward Spring.

Paul Beck, of Dilley, was an Argus caller last Friday. In driving down to Hillsboro, Mr. Beck encountered the county steam roller on the bridge near Wib. Hughee's place, which frightened his team. One of the horses reared up, and became entangled in the bridge railing, and fell upon its back. The buggy tongue was broken, but no further damage resulted.

Leonard Hill, a young man of Buxton, died last Thursday night, of pneumonia, after a short illness. Thursday morning, he was thought to be improving, but death came suddenly the following night. Young Hill was highly esteemed in the Buxton neighborhood, and had clerked for T. B. Perkins for some time, prior to his illness. He leaves a father, mother, two sisters and brother, and was aged about 31 years. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Hill, reside at Laurel.

Professor Abdullah Alexis Ben Kori, head of the department of modern languages, P. U., is engaged to give lectures at the Chautauqua Assembly, Gladstone, Ore., during the month of July on subjects connected with Assyria and the Orient. Professor Kori is a native of Assyria and was reared in a monastery in the Far East. He is a graduate of the Patriarchal College, Ain Traz, Beirut, and Greek Pontifical College, Rome, and converses fluently in six different languages, besides having a thorough knowledge of Greek and Latin.

The law creating two judicial departments in this district went into effect last Monday. The departments will be known as No. 1 and No. 2. Department No. 1 is the civil term, while No. 2 is for the trial of criminal cases. The next regular term is on the 19th of July. Another Judge was appointed this week, and according to the law, must come from either Columbia or Clatsop county, and the appointment fell to Judge Jas. E. Eakin, of Clatsop county. Mr. Eakin is a brother of Justice Robt. Eakin, of the Supreme Court. He was born in Chicago 49 years ago, and came to Oregon in 1866. Later he graduated from the Boston Law School and returned to Astoria, where he has been in practice continually for the past 12 years. He was admitted to the bar in Oregon, October 14, 1887.

MEMORIAL DAY

DO you know what it means, boys and girls, Who hail from the north and the south—

DO you know what it means, This twining of greens, Round the silent cannon's mouth, This strewing with flowers the grass grown grave, This decking with garlands the stately brave.

This haunting of flags, All in tatters and tatters, Not a march and a singing, These bells a-ringing, These faces grave and these faces gay, This talk of the blue and this talk of the gray, In the north and the south Memorial day?

Not simply a show time, boys and girls, Is this day of falling flowers, Not a merriment play, Nor a holiday, Of flags and floral banners, It is something more than the day that starts Warm memories a-throb in veteran hearts.

For across the years, To the hopes and fears, To the days of battle, Of our and of rattle, To the past that now seems so far away, To the sons of the blue and the sons of the gray, Gaze, hand clasping hand, Memorial day.

For the wreck and the wrong of it, boys and girls, For the terror and loss as well, Our hearts must hold A regret untold, As we think of those who fell, But their blood, on whichever side they fought, Remade the nation and progress bought. We forget the foe, For we live and know That the fighting and aching, The falling and dying, Were but steps toward the future—the martyr's way, Down which the sons of the blue and the gray Look with love and pride Memorial day. —Wide Awake.

THE DRUMMER BOY OF SHILOH

Colonel John L. Clem's Story of How He Got into the Regular Army.

An interesting story is told of the way Colonel John L. Clem, the famous "drummer boy of Shiloh" and now assistant quartermaster general, got into the regular army. In the early days of General Grant's first term as president Clem, without aid, secured an audience.

The president said, "What can I do for you?" Clem said, "Mr. President, I wish to ask you for an order to admit me to West Point."

"But why," said the president, "do you not take the examination?" "I did, Mr. President, but I failed to pass."

"That was unfortunate," said the president. "How was that?" "Why, Mr. President, you see, I was in the war, and while I was there those other boys of my age were in school."

"What?" said the president, amazed. "You were in the war?" Clem was then scarcely eighteen and boyish looking.

"Yes, Mr. President, I was in the war four years." And he related his experience. The president then wrote something, sealed it, and handing it to Clem, said: "Take this to the secretary of war. I guess it will fix you all right."

Clem went to the secretary, to whom he had already applied, and was received somewhat coldly. He delivered the note. The secretary read it and said: "Do you know what this is?"

"No," said Clem, "but I supposed it was an order to admit me to West Point."

"Well, it isn't," said the secretary. "It's an order to commission you second lieutenant in the regular army."—Leslie's Weekly.

Hooker's Grand Chestnut Charger. General Hooker probably had the finest looking horse in the Union armies. This was Lookout, a horse of rich chestnut color, standing seventeen hands high and possessing all the dainty and elastic action of the most delicately fashioned colt. This was the horse, Kentucky bred, which bore Hooker during the "battle above the clouds." The horse was intended for exhibition in England, but got no farther than New York, where Hooker bought him, although having to compete with the agent of the emperor of France, who wanted him for his majesty Louis Napoleon.

Close Quarters. At the battle of Charleston, Mo., in August, 1861, Lieutenant Colonel Ransom of the Eleventh Illinois was urging his men to the charge when an officer rode up to him and said: "What do you mean? You are killing our own men." "I know what I am doing," replied Ransom. "Whom are you for?" "I am for Jeff Davis," was the reply. "You are the man I'm after," returned Ransom, and instantly two pistols were drawn. The Confederate fired first, hitting Ransom in the arm. Ransom shot his antagonist dead.

The Watch Below. Bring blossoms for the sailor dead Who sleep in ocean graves, Bring fragrant lilies, pale and pure, To float upon the waves, And dewy purple lilacs, too, From many a cottage home, And starry daisies, white and gold, To mingle with the foam.

Taken up at my farm, 1 mile south of Newton, 2 1-year old heifer or calves, and 1 heifer between 1 and 2 years old, all graded Jersey. Owner can have same by proving pedigree and paying expenses.—J. S. Steinko. 9 12

DID IT EVER Occur to You?

"I paid that bill once." "You must be mistaken." "Indeed, I am not mistaken." "Have you a receipt?" "It seems to me that I have, but I don't remember what I did with it." "We have no record of payment, and unless you can produce our acknowledgment in the way of a receipt, we must insist that you pay the account."

But it might have been a different story had the bill been paid with a check on your bank. No chance for argument or dispute when the cancelled check is produced. Better pay your bills but once—with a check on this Bank.
